Summer Fallow Washed Away.

Both men and women will be admitted. Age limits are 18 years or over on the date of the examination.

Auto Owner Goes Bankrupt.

Notice was received this morning by Referee Fitz Gerald that Otto Bergrein of Freewater had been declared a bankrupt and a consultation of the list of liabilities shows pretty plainly that the ownership of an automobile has been fatal to his finances. He gives his liabilities as $2395.39 and of that amount one item of $705 is a lien against his auto, more than $600 is charged up to repairs of the car, and most of the other items are for gasoline, supplies and other expenses for operating the machine. His assets are given as $2092.95 and one of the marvels of the case is that he lists $225 in cash as an asset. Not often does a bankrupt acknowledge having any cash at all. A first meeting of his creditors has been set for April 16.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Musselman of Freewater are visitors in Pendleton today.

TEXAS WILL WIPE OUT ILLITERACY IN STATE

AUSTIN, Tex., April 3.—Texas has fired the first shot at illiteracy in the "solid south" by passing a compulsory school attendance law. Texas, the least illiterate state in the south, is still the thirty-seventh state in the Union in degree of illiteracy. Following her lead, it is expected other commonwealths below the Mason and Dixon line will adopt compulsory education.

The Texas legislature, just adjourned, enacted a law to compel the attendance at school of every child over seven years of age at least six months every year until the age of 12 is reached. But the bill does not go into effect until September, 1915, and for the next three years the maximum of six months attendance is not enforceable. No child of twelve years or over can be compelled to attend school if he has completed the fourth grade and his assistance is needed in the home.

While this law may not compare favorably with stricter measures in northern states it is considered a fair beginning for a state so long steeped in child labor and illiteracy. The advocates of the measure in the 1915 legislature were confident the law would be improved in future sessions. It was bitterly fought in both branches of its legislature.

Brownville, Tex., is paying the price of occupying an unscrubbed seat in the grand stand.

40 BRIDES ARRIVE ON A SINGLE BOAT

SEATTLE, Wash., April 3.—Forty brides, after a tempestuous voyage across the Pacific, arrived, constituting the most imposing bridal party so far reaching Puget Sound on a single vessel. Tremendous seas were fought for two days by the liner Awa Mar upon her voyage from Yokohama. At times the storm attained the velocity of a typhoon, the bridge being flooded and the fore upper topmast carried away.

The brides were all married in Japan to members of a Seattle party of tourists.

If, as the Japanese contend, China is not awake, it is doing a lot of yelling in its sleep.
