Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Indian Boy Dies. The three year old son of Thomas Scheibel, well known Indian farmer, died yesterday at his home on the reservation and will be buried today. Will Go East for Treatment. Dan P. Smythe, well known attorney and sheepman, expects to leave sometime soon for Rochester, Minnesota, to undergo an operation for stomach trouble at the Mayo Bros. Institute. Committed to Hospital. Cynthia C. Weaver, 12 years, who has been a resident of Pendleton for many years and who has lately been in feeble health, was yesterday afternoon adjudged insane and committed to the care of the Eastern Oregon State Hospital. Leaves Nye Rooming House. George H. Clark yesterday leased the Nye rooming house on Water street and will take charge at once. A. W. Nye, who has been in charge for some time past, will leave during the latter part of the week for Portland to spend the summer with his daughter, Mrs. Jessie Shultz. Leaves Money in Walla Walla. H. Struve, who was arrested this morning by Patrolman Tom Doyle on a charge of violating the traffic ordinance, by passing a street car while it was discharging passengers, has been released on $5 bonds for appearance in police court this afternoon.—Walla Walla Bulletin. Half-miler Indisposed. Cecil Curl, well known high school half miler, has been under the weather for several days. It is hoped that he will soon be able to be out for track again. He is the high school's best half miler, having already this year run this race four seconds better than the first place man at the Wallowa meet last year. Holdman Coyotes Suffer. Coyotes in the neighborhood of Holdman suffered severe losses last week due to the activity of three residents of that community. Newt Miller and son killed 25 pups and two old coyotes on Thursday and Friday evenings and Pierce Dugan bagged 13 on Sunday. Three dollar bounty makes coyote hunting a profitable business. Partners Buy Out Each Other. Frank Downey and Judd Rogers, who have been associated together in the management of the Oregon Market and the Cosey theater for some time past, have dissolved partnership. Rogers yesterday bought out the interest of Downey in the market and is now the sole owner while Downey is in exclusive possession of the theater and will manage it in the future. Cranston Leaves This Eve. C. K. Cranston, secretary of the Pendleton Commercial association, will leave this evening for San Francisco as Umatilla county's official representative at the Panama-Pacific exposition. He will be one of those in charge of the eastern Oregon booth at the Oregon building and will be in a position to do some good exploitation work for this county. To Confer With Chautauqua Men. A. J. McAllister, who is in charge of local arrangements for the annual chautauqua in June, will leave Sunday for Portland to confer with the management of the Ellsien-White bureau which is under contract to deliver the talent for the chautauqua. Mr. McAllister states that the bureau will this year send better musical attractions and better lecturers than last year and he believes people all over Umatilla county will come in during the week. Motanic to Join Auto Club. Having purchased a big automobile a few days ago, Parsons Motanic, well known Indian farmer, is thoroughly impressed with the need for better roads and has announced his determination to join the automobile club which is to be organized in this city Friday evening. The primary purpose of the organization is to work for better highways and Motanic, like many white men, wants to be enrolled as a strong advocate for them. Eastern Oregon People at Fair. The following eastern Oregon people have registered in the Oregon building the past week, according to a letter from W. E. Meacham: H. Markman, Freeport; F. W. Ham-bel, La Grande; J. J. Harrell, Lostine; Thos Wade, Island City; Harry E. Wright, Heppner; Don Shintaffer, Wallowa; H. Jeldness, Halfway; W. R. McCarty and wife, Baker; J. N. Crafton, The Dalles; Fred L. Oimstead, Vale; Joe Morris and J. P. Rector, Burns. Is Now Licensed Embalmer. J. T. Brown, local furniture dealer and undertaker, arrived home this morning from Portland where Monday he took the state examinations and received a certificate as a licensed embalmer. The examination consisted in questions on anatomy, the principles of embalming and practical demonstration and Mr. Brown made an average of 88 per cent. The certificate was issued by Dr. Calvin S. White, secretary of the Oregon state board of health. Pheasant Kills Self. Evidently bewildered at being in the city, a China pheasant yesterday afternoon dashed against the Gus Schmidt house in west Court street and was instantly killed. The bird came from the direction of Main street and was flying exceedingly low and at great speed. It narrowly missed other houses in the range of its flight. It struck the Schmidt house but a few inches from a large window. Where the bird came from is not known but it is supposed it had flown into the city and then becoming frightened was making great haste to escape. Officials on Tour. On a routine tour of inspection a party of Northern Pacific officials have been here today, having made the trip on the regular train from Pasco, two special cars being attached thereto. Those in the party included E. C. Blanchard, general manager; L. B. Richards, general superintendent; W. T. Tyler, superintendent; L. M. Perkins, engineer in charge of way, and P. E. Anderson, roadmaster. Deserted Wife Wants Divorce. Deserted by her husband, B. F. Hensel, just two months to a day after their wedding according to her complaint, Mrs. Florence M. Hensel this morning commenced suit for a divorce. They were married in Portland on March 29, 1911, she alleges, and on May 20 of the same year he left her contrary to her wishes. S. A. Newberry is her attorney. CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson.

The Picture That Created a Sensation in Portland. The Most Talked of Picture Ever Made TWO DAYS ONLY THURSDAY AND FRIDAY Count Leo Tolstoi Daring Drama "Kreutzer Sonata"

WITH ALL STAR CAST NANCE O'NEIL, America's Foremost Emotional Actress, as 'The Wronged Sister.' THEDA BARA—Who starred in "A Fool There Was"—plays Celia Friedlander, The Vampire. WILLIAM E. SHAY, as George Randor, "The Man." Nance O'Neil is beyond peradventure of a doubt one of America's—one of the world's, in fact, greatest emotional actresses. Theda Bara adds another "Vampire Woman" to the part enacted in "A Fool There War."

Famous Beauty Known, America's Most Eminent A Vampire Woman. Emotional Actress.

THEDA BARA NOTED PARISIAN ACTRESS PLAYS CHARACTER OF GREAT STRENGTH AND SINISTER FASCINATION IN "KREUTZER SONATA" Theda Bara, the famous Parisian emotional actress, created a veritable earthquake of comment throughout the country for her marvelous telling performance of The Vampire, in "A Fool There Was," repeats her gripping characterization of that role in her rendition of Celia Friedlander, the beautiful and ruthlessly passionate girl, who, without scruple breaks the heart of the faithful Miriam, so that she may possess herself of Miriam's husband Gregor, the brilliant violinist, is one of the strongest screen parts ever written and in many ways the most startling and remarkable. Miss Bara's powers were never displayed, even in the memorable "A Fool There Was" to more transcendent advantage than in Tolstov's great work as it is seen upon the screen. With cruel, serpent-like cunning, Celia weaves her coils about the infatuated Gregor. She casts her unbreakable spell of beauty and fascination over him till Gregor forgets everything in order that he may be in her arms. From the farm in Russia, where, as a wealthy land owner's adopted daughter, she first meets Gregor and charms him by playing "Kreutzer Sonata," to the last throbbing scene of the play where she and Gregor are trapped by Miriam and, in a scene so thrilling as to be almost painful in its intensity, meet their deserts, Miss Bara's superb art never falters, nor steps aside. Her rendition of the part is bound to make "Kreutzer Sonata" one of the most discussed picturizations yet produced.

Will Create More Discussion Than "A FOOL THERE WAS"
