NOTICE

Few prettier card parties have been given in Pendleton than that which yesterday afternoon attracted more than a hundred society matrons and maids to the Eagle Woodman hall for a pleasant hour at bridge.

The hostesses were Mrs. Reuben Alexander, Mrs. Charles Bonney, Mrs. Will Moore, Mrs. James B. McCook, Mrs. John F. Robinson and Mrs. Eliza T. Wade. For the success of their function they had drawn generously upon the offerings of spring, the beauty and fragrance of the blossoms and foliage of the season making the big auditorium a fit setting for an April party. Apple blossoms, dogwood blossoms from the Willamette valley and wood ferns were artistically employed in decorating the hall. Overhead were Japanese baskets filled with fragrant blossoms and suspended by invisible wires, about the walls were other blossoms of pink and white, clusters of dogwood hung from pedestals among the tables and across the stage was a screen of foliage and flowers that entirely concealed the orchestra which played during the afternoon. Underfoot were rich oriental rugs and screens were used to shut off the emptiness of the corners.

Twenty tables played at bridge during the afternoon and to those who won honors were given beautiful big bouquets of roses. Mrs. Frank B. Hayes captured the first honors, Mrs. Henry W. Collins won second and the consolation prize fell to Mrs. George Clark. Special guests at the party were Mrs. G. H. Wiley of Earville, Ill., a sister of Mrs. Honney, and Mrs. Frank Korte of Spokane, who is visiting Mrs. Moore.

Late in the afternoon fully thirty more ladies called in to partake of the very delightful refreshments which the hostesses had prepared. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. Charles Hamilton, Mrs. James S. Johns, Mrs. Henry W. Collins, Mrs. Roy Alexander, Mrs. Charles M. Stype, Miss Eleanor Vincent and Miss Edna Thompson.

There is a probability that Pendleton will again hear weekly band concerts during the summer season. Though the Round-up band was disbanded last fall, most of the musicians are still in the city and already they are planning to reorganize. The principal difficulty will be in getting a suitable place for the holding of concerts. Last year they were held on the federal square but the fact that the new building will be under way this summer will prevent that vacant lot from being used this year. The "Happy Canyon" pavilion has been suggested by some and may be chosen.

Complimenting Miss Claire Raley, who is home from the University of Oregon for the spring holidays, Miss Mildred Berkeley entertained with a supper last evening at her home on Thompson street.

Miss Harriett Barbour arrived back in Pendleton yesterday from San Francisco where she visited the Panama-Pacific fair.

Mrs. George A. Hamblen of this city, supervisor of the Royal Neighbors in Idaho and Montana, left yesterday for Missoula and other Montana points in the interest of her work.

Mr. and Mrs. James Johns, Jr., had as a dinner guest yesterday Dr. James Gilbert of the University of Oregon department of economics who is touring eastern Oregon to deliver addresses. He went out to Adams yesterday afternoon.

The Current Literature Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. F. Robinson with Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Mary Dacway as hostesses.

Rhys Pryce Not Killed. LOS ANGELES, April 14.—C. Rhys Pryce, the British soldier of fortune who led a revolt four years ago in Lower California, and recently reported to have been killed on the battlefield in Flanders, sent a letter from England to Edmund Mitchell, president of the British-American League, to deny reports of his death.

Pryce said he had seen a paragraph in an American paper reporting his death on the battlefield. "But it is not the first time I have read my obituary," he added, "and although I expect to get my quietus once we are at the front, we have not gone there yet."

Rheumatic Pains Relieved. Why suffer from rheumatism when relief may be had at so small a cost? Mrs. Elmer Hatch, Peru, Ind., writes, "I have been subject to attacks of rheumatism for years. Chamberlain's Liniment always relieves me immediately, and I take pleasure in recommending it to others." 25 and 50 cent bottles. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.
