TICKETS FOR CELILO CANAL EXCURSION ARE GRABBED UP AT HELIX

TWO MEMBERS OF COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS MAKE TRIP YESTERDAY.

Ten Tickets Are Left to Be Disposed of and Indications Are That Another Batch Will Have to Be Sent Out—Enthusiasm Shown Throughout County Over Excursion.

Tickets for the Umatilla county Celilo canal excursion were taken out to Helix yesterday afternoon by Chairman J. F. Robinson and Sam R. Thompson of the committee on arrangements and, though they remained only 20 minutes, two of the ten tickets were sold before they departed. The tickets were left at the store of J. S. Norvell & Co. and Mr. Norvell was supplied with information relative to the trip from Pendleton to Umatilla to The Dalles by boat.

Hardly had the window cards been put up than an order came in to Mr. Norvell to reserve two. Only ten were left and Mr. Norvell felt confident that he would have to send for another bunch. In fact, one resident of Helix was positive that at least 25 would go from that community. The trip to Helix was made in the Thompson auto, Messrs. Thompson and Robinson being accompanied by C. S. Jerard and M. R. Chessman.

Reports reach the local committee that the tickets are being purchased readily all over the county. H. N. Dryer yesterday wrote Mr. Robinson that Umatilla has sold out her allotment and would draw on Hermiston for more. Mr. Dryer stated that he had also received an order for three tickets from Milton. Not only the importance of the excursion and the moderate cost of the excursion and the promise of rare enjoyment are making a big appeal to people and the Umatilla county undoubtedly let the country know that she is on the map and appreciates the great waterway that is being thrown open.

MUTTON MARKET REACHES RECORD

(Courtesy Wednesday's Journal.)

PORTLAND, Ore.—Mutton and lamb prices were advanced 5c in the North Portland market today, values reaching the high point for the season today with top lambs at $5.50 and yearlings at $3.50.

There was only a small offering of supplies in the mutton division at North Portland. Buyers were keener than ever before to secure the limited stocks and the advance was therefore easily forced.

North Portland has really just begun to fight for the mutton and lamb trade. It has made a success of the cattle and hog trade and today is being carefully watched by competitive markets all over the country. The trade here has at last realized that it must bid higher for its requirements of mutton and must maintain a better net value to shippers that competitive markets are paying. This condition is fast being reached and a general campaign to capture the entire western mutton and lamb trade is about to begin.

General utton trade range:

Old wethers	$ 5.00
Best ewes	5.50
Best yearlings	3.25 @ 3.50
Valley light lambs	3.75 @ 4.00
Heavy lambs	3.00 @ 3.25
Spring lambs	1.00

Cattle Market Is Quiet.

With only limited arrivals in that division of the North Portland yards overnight, cattle were rather quiet for the day. Generally speaking there was no change in the price from that shown the first two days.

General cattle market range:

Select steers	$7.50 @ 7.75
Best hay fed steers	7.25 @ 7.50
Good to choice	7.00 @ 7.15
Ordinary to fair	6.50 @ 6.75
Best cows	6.00 @ 6.25
Good to prime	5.75 @ 6.00
Ordinary	4.90 @ 5.50
Select calves	7.50 @ 8.00
Fancy bulls	5.50 @ 6.00
Ordinary	4.00 @ 5.00

Hog Market Is Steady.

While leading killers were not offering above $7.50 for what stuff came forward to the North Portland yards today, market for hogs was considered steady, with a small amount of trade available as high as $7.55 if extreme quality was in sight.

There was only a very limited run of swine in the local yards over night and these generally were of only fair quality.

General hog market range:

Best light	7.55
Medium light	7.50
Good to heavy	7.30 @ 7.40
Rough and heavy	7.25

Livestock Shippers.

Hogs—Frank Flegoe, Willbridge, 1 load.

Cattle—George Dixon, Terrebonne, 2 loads.

Sheep—C. W. Gibson, Halsey, 2 loads; W. C. Bridges, Oakland, 2 loads.

Mixed stuff—W. H. McMahan, Halsey, 1 load cattle, calves, hogs and sheep.

Holland Denies Rumors.

THE HAGUE, April 14.—The closest inquiries made in diplomatic, ministerial and military circles failed to discover the reason for the alarming rumors printed in London newspapers relative to the possibility of hostilities between Holland and Germany, or for the charging of high insurance premiums.

FLOUR MARKET EXTREMELY DULL

(Wednesday's Market.)

PORTLAND, Ore.—With oriental business out of the question and Australian situation very mixed, together with the extreme slackness in the demand for patent, there is not much doing in the flour market at the moment.

The Australian government still imposes a very heavy duty on flour imports while at the same time it is purchasing wheat in the United States and selling it to millers of the colonies at an actual loss.

Demand of wheat, oats and barley from Australia continues the dominating factor in the trade, in fact is the only bullish sign on the trade horizon.

While there has been more or less talk in some quarters of a probable reduction in the price of patent flour here, leading millers assert that not only is there no decline of quotation in sight, but prevailing values are actually low in comparison with the price of the grain.

Flour—Selling price: Patent, $6.80; Willamette valley, $6.80; local straight, $6.30; makers, $6.30; export, $5.50 @ 5.75.

May—New crop, buying price: Willamette valley timothy, fancy, $12.50 @ 13; eastern Oregon-Idaho fancy timothy, $15; alfalfa, $13 @ 13.50; vetch and oats, $11; clover, $8 @ 9 per ton.

Grain sacks—1915, nominal; No. 1 Calcutta, $ 2-4c.

Milkstuffs—Selling price: Bran, $26.50; shorts, $28.50.

Rolls Barley—Selling price: $30 @ 31 per ton.

Corn—Whole, $35.50; cracked, $28.50 per ton.

With the exception of red flint, which was 1-2c off, and red Russian which was unchanged, spot wheat prices were 1c a bushel higher on the Portland Merchants' Exchange for the day. Sales included: 5000 bushels May bluestem, $1.32 1-2; 5000

JULY WHEAT IS 6 CTS HIGHER

(Wednesday's Market.)

CHICAGO.—Wheat showed a net gain of 6c for July at the closing with May 3 1-4c and September 7 3-8c above yesterday.

Liberal export business caused a higher opening in wheat prices today. May wheat was 1 1-4c higher at the outset, July was up 5-8c and September 1-2c. The Liverpool market was higher.

Wheat. May—Open, $1.58; high, $1.63; low, $1.57; close, $1.60 1-2. July—Open, $1.24 1-8; high, $1.33; low, $1.23 5-8; close, $1.29 1-2. Sept.—Open, $1.11 1-8; high, $1.13 1-2; low, $1.10 5-8; close, 1.15.
