"Sunday a German submarine torpedoed and sank the trawler Vanilla. The trawler Fermo endeavored to rescue the crew, but was fired at and driven off.

Stagnant Blood Given A Quick Impulse

Wonderful Activity Imparted by a Famous Remedy.

The appearance of pimples, boils, skin eruptions and all evidence of impure blood, calls for S. S. S., the famous blood purifier. Cathartics, purges, bowel movers and laxatives won't do.

No amount of bile will destroy certain germs which cause blood and skin eruptions. They are away down deep in the tissues, perhaps in the very marrow of the bones. And such a condition calls for the searching influence of S. S. S. It is indeed a remarkable remedy, since it is taken up by the blood stream and never loses its medicinal influence. On and on it goes, through and through the entire system and always with the same definite action to dislodge germs, destroy their activity and stimulate the liver, lungs, kidneys, bowels and skin to throw them out completely.

It stimulates stagnant blood, provides a rational exhilaration to the nerve centers and thereby the natural functions of the body are aroused to cast out intruders, no matter how strongly entrenched they may be. It refutes the ancient theory that to destroy within us the germs that eat into our vital cells for drugs that destroy our very existence. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today at any drugist and for special advice on severe blood disorders write at once to the Medical Adviser, The Swift Specific Co., 103 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not accept a substitute. Insist upon what you ask for.

Death Betrays Swindler.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Ignatius J. Chileski, lawyer and private banker, who in 1911 fled from Chicago with clients and depositors clamoring for more than $100,000 of their money, which he declared he had lost in gambling, died in the tuberculosis ward of the county hospital, a charity patient under an assumed name.

When Chileski became involved he fled to South America from there to Africa and later visited Asia. He returned to Chicago a few months ago hopelessly ill and without funds. Just before he died at the hospital he revealed his identity to a nurse and whispered:

"Tell my old friends that I paid for my folly with my life. Gambling did it all."

Kaiser's Gift is Ready.

BERLIN, April 21.—Among the items given out by the Overseas News Agency was the following:

The picture is surrounded by the American and German coats of arms and also bears a picture of the Emperor. Because of the danger of capture by a hostile ship only an inexpensive duplicate has been sent to the United States and the original of the gift will not be sent until peace is concluded."
