SALE of WOMENS SUITS

That the women of Pendleton know a real bonifide sale when they see it has been forcefully demonstrated here at our women's suit sale today.

We sold a lot of suits today. More than we thought possible. Of course every suit is a bargain of merit, and every woman who is foresighted enough to buy a suit at this sale saves anywhere from $5.00 to $25.00. Just about one half, and in some cases more than one half, the regular price of the suit.

Why shouldn't you buy. It's your chance of the season.

If you didn't visit this sale today be sure and come this evening or Monday. You positively can't afford to miss it.

Have You Visited Our Bargain Basement?

It's the greatest bargain headquarters you ever saw. Wholesale cost has absolutely nothing to do with the selling prices of goods in this basement—they are put there to be sold and the price that is put on them will sell them. Don't wait. Come just as soon and just as often as you can. New goods are being put into this department every day, and the more often you visit it the more you can save.

FARMER AND SOLDIER STRANGELY MIX UPON GREAT BATTLEFIELDS

GREAT AREAS ARE SOWN TO CROPS WITHIN THE WAR ZONE IN FRANCE.

Trenches Regard Grain Fields As Sacred and to Trample Them Down Is An Offense That Must Be Explained to English Headquarters — Every Space Is Sown to Crops.

(By William G. Shepherd, United Press Staff Correspondent.)
(Copyright 1915 by the United Press. Copyrighted in Great Britain.)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN NORTHERN FRANCE, April 17.—(By Mail to New York.)—Spring has come. The complexion of war is changing. The flying men come down with the news that every day the grass is getting greener in the No Man's land between the trenches; no one dares to go out to tramp it down.

Trees that were landmarks with their bare branches in the winter time are changing shape as their buds become leaves and the officers find themselves daily becoming more and more strangers to the landscape.

Ploughing in France has apparently been as extensive as ever before. In the fields old men and boys plough while women do the sowing. Unploughed fields are rarely seen. Ploughing and planting is going on up to within a mile of the English trenches and the French farms are scenes of agricultural activity three and four miles within the zone of shellfire.

Crops Are Sown.

Around the English headquarters all of the soil in crop and General French has arranged that none of his army shall encroach in any way on farm land, except under the most urgent necessity. To trample ploughed land is an offense which must be explained to the English headquarters to the satisfaction of the commander-in-chief. The cavalry, including the Indians, find a small piece of meadow here and there on which they exercise their horses, but the French farmer is to be paid for any damage that may be done to his crop of hay.

Wheat Crops Sacred.

There is no place within many miles of headquarters where space can be found for collecting large forces of men for review purposes. General French recently reviewed part of the force which had participated in the battle of Neuve Chapelle, traveled to several different spots within a radius of a dozen miles where the men were drawn up in comparatively small bodies.

"I can ride around and meet them," he said. "I'd rather do that than spoil a wheat crop on some big farm."

In the vicinity of headquarters it looks as if agriculture was crowding the army out of the neighborhood. It is only when one approaches the periphery in the curious conflict between the aged French farmer and the rifle-bearing English soldier.

The wise guy and the fool's money are soon married.

YALE MAN SUE FOR DIVORCE SAYS HIS WIFE BET ON RACES

Refreshment punch was served between dances in one corner of the hall while in the alcove off the hall beer and cakes were served by six attractive girls, Madeline Burgess, Thelma Thompson, Catherine Thompson, Margaret Phelps, Genevieve Phelps and Helen Thompson.

Among the out-of-town guests present were the Misses Cora Roulstone, Mildred Baker and Grace Pratt of Walla Walla, Miss Martha Skewins of Tacoma, Mrs. William Noon of Noon and Mrs. Frank Rechin of La Grande.

MRS. GORDON CASE

NEW YORK, May 1.—Gordon Case, Yale graduate, has been sued for divorce by Mrs. Edith I. Case. In his answer to the divorce complaint, Case asserts his wife is overfond of club life and paid more attention to outside affairs than to her home. He also accused her of betting on races and of taking a trip to Europe without consulting him. He also says she maintained a cottage on the Connecticut shore without letting him know about it.

A SPRING TONIC

Old Reliable Hood's Sarsaparilla is Pleasant and Effective.

In the spring your blood is impure and weak, eruptions appear on your face and body, you lack vitality, strength and animation, your appetite is poor and you feel all tired out. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla from any druggist. It combines just the roots, herbs and other substances that you need.

It purifies and strengthens the blood—makes the rich red blood that you must have to feel well, look well, eat and sleep well. This is confirmed by thousands of letters from people in all parts of the country.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best spring medicine, but is not simply a spring medicine—it is an all-the-year-round blood purifier and tonic. Remember it has stood the test of forty years. Be sure to get Hood's, and get it today.

Yesterday afternoon the ladies of the Amoma Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. G. W. Leaf on West Court street and a very enjoyable time was had in social conversation and music. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Clarence Penland and Mrs. Will Evans were hostesses on Thursday afternoon at a thimble party at the home of Mrs. Penland on South Main street. During the afternoon vocal numbers were rendered by Mrs. J. R. Dickson and piano selections were played by Mrs. Frank Boyden. The guests of the occasion included Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. J. E. Snyder, Mrs. Horace Mann, Mrs. Boyden, Mrs. L. E. Penland, Mrs. W. A. Storie, Mrs. R. D. Sayres, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. G. W. Phelps, Mrs. S. R. Thompson, Mrs. Fred Earl, Mrs. C. S. Jerard, Mrs. J. W. Maloney, Mrs. E. L. Power, Mrs. C. F. Colesworthy and Miss Martha Skewins.

This evening quite a number of Pendleton ladies and men will be entertained at the assembly room of the Eastern Oregon State Hospital by Dr. and Mrs. W. D. McNary and Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Tamlesie.

The members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church last evening enjoyed a "hard times" social. All who came had to be dressed in the very oldest of clothes. Mrs. Geary Kimbrell won the prize for the worst costume and was awarded the prize of a cake of soap. For refreshments, mush and milk were served.

The week's social festivities reached their climax last evening in the dancing party given in the Eagle-Woodman hall by Mrs. Frederiek E. Judd, Mrs. Gilbert W. Phelps, Mrs. Sam R. Thompson, Mrs. F. Willard Bond, Miss Edna Zimmerman and Miss Edna Thompson. It was one of the prettiest parties of the year and the many couples present saw the hours before midnight flit happily by.

Spring flowers added their fragrance and beauty to the scene, floral decorations having been used almost exclusively in transforming the auditorium into a bower fit for the celebration of the dance. Great hanging baskets filled with big bunches of lupin were suspended from extension beams built out from the balcony, and the same flower was banded along the stage from where issued the sweet orchestral music that enticed the dancers on the floor.

Refreshment punch was served between dances in one corner of the hall while in the alcove off the hall beer and cakes were served by six attractive girls, Madeline Burgess, Thelma Thompson, Catherine Thompson, Margaret Phelps, Genevieve Phelps and Helen Thompson.

Among the out-of-town guests present were the Misses Cora Roulstone, Mildred Baker and Grace Pratt of Walla Walla, Miss Martha Skewins of Tacoma, Mrs. William Noon of Noon and Mrs. Frank Rechin of La Grande.

Yesterday afternoon the ladies of the Current Literature Club and several other guests spent a very interesting afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arle C. Hampton on High street, the subject for study and discussion being "Contemporary American Literature." Mrs. C. F. Colesworthy opened the program with a paper on "Historical Novels and Stories of Political and Public Life." Mrs. James A. Fee gave a sketch of Margaret Deland and a reading from "Old Chester Tales." Mrs. James Johns, Jr., read a paper on "Short Story Writers of Today; O Henry and the Four Million," and also read "The Unfinished Tale," and Mrs. Charles Bonney concluded the program with a paper on "Contemporary American Literature; Historical Writers, Essayists and Others." Light refreshments were served after the program.

Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Parkes on East Alta street, a sewing party was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Effie Parkes, announcing her engagement to Ross E. Wimer. At the arrival of the guests, Miss Shirley Hamm, the little three year old niece of the bride-elect, distributed napkins.

THE GREATEST EXPOSITION

The Panama Exposition, now open, is said to be the greatest project of its kind yet undertaken. In magnitude and cost it certainly surpasses all others. It is two miles long and a half mile wide and represents an investment of over $50,000,000.

Persons who have a weak stomach and suffer from poor appetite, belching, indigestion, liver and bowel trouble can have the assurance that if they will only give Hostetter's Stomach Bitters a fair trial it will help Nature wonderfully in restoring their organs to a normal condition. Try it.

Mothers Tell of Mother's Friend

Experience is or should be our best teacher. Women who have obeyed the highest and noblest of all sacrifices, the struggle for the life of others, should have a better idea of helpful influence than those who theorize from observation.

At any rate when a prospective grandmother urges her daughter to do as she did—to use "Mother's Friend," there is ample reason to believe it the right kind of advice.

Its purpose is to furnish pliancy to the muscles, to take away the strain on the cords and ligaments, to relieve the tension of nerves and tendons so apt to provoke or aggravate nausea, morning sickness, twitchings of the limbs and so on. It is applied externally.

Although, in the nature of things, a woman would use "Mother's Friend" but rarely, yet so effective has it been found that this splendid remedy is on sale in most drug stores throughout the United States. It has been prepared by Bradford Regulator Co., 204 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and advertised by us for over twenty years. Ask at the drug store for a bottle of "Mother's Friend." It is worth while.

One day "Old Abe" saw a soldier carrying one of the big eggs to the colonel's tent. The eagle flew at him and would have driven him from the camp if others had not come to his rescue. It is now common talk that if proper treatment had been accorded "Old Abe" during those four years "he" would have populated the south with Wisconsin bald eagles.

MARY PICKFORD SUE FOR BUNGALOW RENT

LOS ANGELES, May 1.—Mary Pickford, motion picture star, appeared in court as defendant in a suit filed by Mrs. Florence S. Porter, to collect $111.14, which she alleges is due her for rent of a bungalow and damages to the house during its occupancy by Miss Pickford. The film star herself was called to the witness stand soon after the case was called.

No Aches or Pains

Peruna Did It for Me.

"I find Peruna an excellent spring and summer medicine and am glad to call the attention of my friends to it. I know by experience that Peruna is a good medicine, and always recommend it whenever I have an opportunity. I can truthfully say that I have no traces of my old complaint, and have neither ache nor pain, and enjoy life. Words cannot express my appreciation for the good Peruna has done me."

PERUNA THE SPRING AND SUMMER MEDICINE.

"I used to get cramps in my stomach. I had sick headaches. My stomach nearly killed me. My family physician only gave me temporary relief. I got out of patience and had given up all hopes of recovery. I then wrote to Dr. Hartman and he advised me to take Peruna. I got a bottle of Peruna and commenced using it. Soon got better and am now entirely cured and feel like a new woman. Peruna is my comfort. I will never be without it." Mrs. Thomas M. Morgan, R. F. D. 2, Wadsworth, Ohio.
