COMING OF SUMMER DOES NOT DETER THE GOTHAM FIGHT BUGS

INDOOR WINTER SPORT IS STILL CLAIMING SHARE OF ATTENTION.

Everywhere There is An Undercurrent of Talk About Big Fighters—Question Now Is Who Will Willard Next Mix It With?—Of More Interest Than Anything Else.

BY HAL SHERIDAN, (Written for the United Press) NEW YORK, May 21.—The advance signs of coming summer seem not to deter the fight bugs. Straw hats are as common as flies in August along Broadway now but the indoor winter sport is claiming more than its share of attention. Everywhere there is an undercurrent of talk about the big fighters, and finally the discussion always leads around to the question: When and who will Jess Willard mix it with? That seems to be of more interest to the Broadway fight sports than anything on the calendar just now.

And Billy Gibson's request for $10,000 for Jim Coffey's end in a match with Charley Weinert has stirred the unsettled waters anew. Jack Bulger, Weinert's manager, replied he was willing to split that figure. But Gibson can hold out for Coffey is worth all he can get and would prove a mighty good drawing card in such a match. Of course, the talk of his meeting Willard right soon is a little premature, but Coffey ought to be able to hold his own with Weinert.

But the big idea in Gibson's mind is that Coffey is in training for a match with Willard—sometime. The date is not of much importance for the big champion is not anxious to display his wares in the roped ring just yet; but when he is prepared to come out into the ring against Jim Coffey expects to be sitting inside the ropes waiting for Jess.

So Gibson wants Coffey to meet all comers until the big time arrives, when his fighter will be in condition to stand up to the champ. Billy Gibson is a crafty manager but it will take some clever work to force the big Kansas cowboy champ into the ring before he wants to.

However, unless Gibson and Bulger come to terms there is not much chance of Coffey meeting Weinert. The Broadway Sporting Club wanted the match as Coffey is a favorite of the New York fight "bugs" just now.

A regular vanload of trouble has been wished on McGraw and he cannot seem to dump it. Fred Snodgrass is sorely missed by the New York team, for outfielders who can both field and hit are at a premium just now. Fred's sore hand must be practically well, and he should be back in the game soon. But picking out the Giants' troubles is small work these days. They are so plentiful they jump right up in your face. In fact, the old time stars are neck deep in a sea of misfortune.

The recent winning of the Modified Marathon in New York by Hannes Kolehmainen seems not to discourage local runners. Almost nightly a score of white pants and bare legs can be seen running around New York's well known parks. What these promising athletes are training for is unknown.

Perhaps they are preparing for next year's marathon.

MONTREAL, Can., May 21.—Ted "Kid" Lewis, the English lightweight meets Freddie Welsh in a ten round bout at the Canadian A. C. tonight.

BOSTON, Mass., May 21.—The New England Intercollegiate Athletic track meet begins here today on the Massachusetts Institute of Technology field. The preliminaries will be held today and the finals tomorrow.

Teams from all of the New England colleges will compete and the most successful track and field championship ever held is expected. The new athletic field will be christened by today's events.

KIDNAPS GIRL WHO LOOKS LIKE HIS OWN MURDERED DAUGHTER

DENVER, COLO., May 20.—So like his murdered daughter, Steven Puskas, 25, has kidnaped ten year old Rosa Nagy, according to the police who have instituted a state wide search for the missing pair.

Seven years ago Puskas was a coal miner in Holden, W. Va. One day he came home from work to find the bodies of his wife and little daughter hideously hacked and carved by a robber who had stolen Puskas' life savings of $2200. Puskas, unable to endure the scene of his sorrow, came to Colorado. He placed two sons in an institution in Detroit.

John Nagy, father of the missing girl, heard this story from Puskas' own lips. Puskas often told his friend John that little Rosa strongly reminded him of his murdered daughter. A strong attachment grew up between Puskas and Rosa. Recently he told another Nagy child: Rosa is going to stay with me. We are going a long way. They disappeared that night.

WOCIFER

The Thursday Afternoon Club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. John Vert on College street, Mrs. Vert being the hostess. The topic of "Pendleton of Today" was most interesting. Reminiscences of old times were indulged in and old time anecdotes told. Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt's copies of Pendleton papers published in 1874 and 1876 added much to this as the well known names of pioneers were read. The deed or grant to the land where Pendleton now stands was also shown. Mrs. J. R. Dickson sang two numbers which were greatly enjoyed.

The following is the program rendered. "Pendleton's Origin and the Character of Its Early Settlers," Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt; "Our City Government, Its Form of Organization and Its Powers," Mrs. G. I. La Dow; vocal (a) "My Rose of Tresteren," Marie Hlich, (b) "Invictus" Bruno Huhn; Mrs. J. R. Dickson; "The Health of Our City, Street Sanitation, Methods, Cost, Efficiency, Sewer System, Water System," Mrs. C. F. Coleworthy; "Our Public Buildings," Mrs. A. L. Schaefer; "Industries and Needs of Our City," Mrs. Roy Blahop.

A social hour followed, during which refreshments were served.

Miss Hazel Wyrick, popular high school senior, arrived home this morning from Eugene where she attended the Junior weekend festivities. She was a guest at the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority house.

Mrs. Henry Struve and Miss Evelyn Struve of this city are at Hot Lake where Mrs. Struve is taking a course of baths and treatment.

Mrs. James A. Fee is entertaining the Current Literature Club this afternoon.

Mrs. George Hanson of this city is a guest of Mrs. Pete Biever in La Grande.

The German Ladies' Club held a very enjoyable social meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Sievers. The society holds these meetings every two weeks.

Last evening Mrs. A. J. Owen and Mrs. J. S. Landers were hostesses to the Methodist church choir at the Landers home on Jackson street. Following the regular choir practice a social hour was enjoyed during which games and a program constituted the entertainment. Dainty refreshments were served and a souvenir of the evening in the form of a postcard picture of the choir, taken from the church steps, was presented to each. The following members of the choir were present: Mr. and Mrs. Mowry, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Geary Kimbrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Landers, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Owen, Miss Gladys Hamley, Miss Grace Oliver, Miss Helen Whipple, Miss Evelyn Kinman, Miss Fannie Wylie, Mrs. D. B. Waffle, Miss Flossie Kimbrell, Miss Edna Wisdom, Mrs. D. Belts and Miss Hazel Jenkins. Other guests were Charles Mowry, Walter Owen, Esther Jenkins and Daphne Belts.

PENDLETON MEN VISIT AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 21.—(Special) Among the delegates to the Odd Fellow and Rebecca convention which meets this week at Newport, who stopped at the Agricultural College for a brief visit of inspection, were Pendleton's pioneer merchant, R. Alexander, Ben Wells, Mrs. T. J. Tweedy, and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Morrison. There were about 100 delegates, and this number was augmented by students, faculty and citizens of Corvallis, who came to extend a welcome to the distinguished guests, so that the big campus was crowded during the tour. The visitors detained at the Madison street entrance and after inspecting the cadets' drills passed on up the central walk to mechanical hall, passing the mines, M. C. A., dairy, and home economics buildings, agricultural and Waldo halls, going within a block of the men's gymnasium and ending the tour at the armory. They expressed themselves as well pleased with the fine grounds and buildings and with the hearty welcome and assistance rendered by the college people in escorting them over the grounds.

BOND BROTHERS PENDLETON'S LEADING CLOTHIERS

Clean Up in Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 20.—Various gentlemen of good repute who are said to own property there for immoral resorts, but who have so far avoided any publicity in this regard, are trembling in their boots this week.

The Church Federation of Indianapolis is unlimbering a large-caliber weapon in the form of a new law that churchmen say will put the red light business on the blink.

The new rule law is very similar to the one in effect in the District of Columbia and in several states. It allows any citizen or the county proctor to begin injunction proceedings. These proceedings are directed at the owner of the property. "Pitiless publicity" that will cause the owners of hawky houses to run to cover in case they are sailing under false colors is expected to follow when the churchmen get down to work.

The Town Creed

By NELS DARLING

I BELIEVE IN MY TOWN. I believe in her people, in her boys and in her girls. I will make myself a committee of one to make of this a good place in which to live and a mighty hard place to leave.

I BELIEVE IN MY TOWN. I believe in her institutions, in her schools, in her churches and in her stores. I believe in the street broom and street sweeper and in the paint pot. I believe in ne'er an empty can on vacant lot or plot, but many a full one in the ladder. Never again will I throw waste paper or rubbish in the street or alley.

I BELIEVE IN MY TOWN. I believe in trees, God's first temple; grass instead of ash heaps and flowers instead of weeds. May God bless the toogie that gives honest praise and commendation, and may he doubly bless the ear that is deaf to scandal and gossip. If I cannot speak good of my neighbor I will hold my peace. When it costs me nothing, at least, I will spend my money here and by so doing leave a part of the purchase price to circulate in the channels where its equivalent in wealth was originally created, to do good among the folk who are a part of the community of which I am a part, in the place that I call home, sweet home.

I BELIEVE IN MY TOWN.

The renting of property in the flourishing tenderloin here has been a profitable business for years, poorly constructed houses drawing big monthly rental.

Terre Haute, which is said to have the largest redlight district in the world for a city of its size, is facing much the same proposition.

Night-riding Probe Coming. RAYMOND, Wash., May 21.—The grand jury, impaneled in the North River night-riding cases, the review of several arrests and acquittals for the burning of Mrs. Margaret Ross' cabin and the forcible eviction of her and her two sons from the community also was requested by the court.

A feature of the testimony before the grand jury will be the report of the special agent sent to the North River country to investigate the attorney-general's office. The report was not made public, but is said to be sensational. Assistant Attorney-General Wilson will conduct the investigation of these cases before the grand jury.

2 CENT PASSENGER LAW TESTED IN MICHIGAN

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 21.—Suits to test the constitutionality of Michigan's two cent passenger fare law was started here today before Judge Loyal E. Knappen and Arthur Dennison, of the circuit court of appeals, Cincinnati, and Judge Sessions of the United States district court, Grand Rapids. The bill of complaint was entered by the Ann Arbor railroad company, a Michigan corporation.

The railroad seeks an injunction from the United States court to restrain the Michigan railroad commission and the attorney general from enforcing the provisions of the two cent fare law, which was enacted by the legislature of 1907. Practically every railroad system in the state has joined its case with that of the Ann Arbor in seeking to have the low rate law knocked out.

The court action follows the failure of the railroad interests to obtain the repeal of the act by the last legislature.

HOW TO CLEAR AWAY PIMPLES

Bathe your face for several minutes with resinol soap and hot water, then apply a little resinol ointment very gently. Let this stay on ten minutes, and wash off with resinol soap and more hot water, finishing with a dash of cold water to close the pores. Do this once or twice a day, and you will be astonished to find how quickly the healing resinol medication soothes and cleanses the pores, removes pimples and blackheads, and leaves the complexion clear and velvety.

Resinol ointment and resinol soap stop itching instantly and speedily heal skin humors, sores, burns, wounds and chafing. Sold by all druggists.

SOAP FOR BABY'S TENDER SKIN

The regular use of resinol soap is usually enough to prevent those distressing rashes and chafings to which most babies are subject. This is so, first, because resinol soap is absolutely pure and free from harsh alkali, and second, because it contains the resinol medication, on which so many physicians rely for skin troubles.
