To Confirm Local Class.

Rev. Charles J. O'Reilly, bishop of eastern Oregon for the Catholic church, will be in Pendleton on May 20 to confirm a large class at St. Mary's church and on June 4 is scheduled to visit St. Andrew's mission on the reservation. He left Baker yesterday for Prineville.

Cello Pictures Booked.

James McClellan, who has the J. N. Test set of films of the Cello canal celebration, arrived in Pendleton this morning en route to Pasco with his films. While here he booked his films at the Pastime theater for next Monday. Mr. McClellan was the only movie photographer to get the scenes at Umatilla. He caught the incoming and outgoing boats and the festivities around the dancing pavilion. The pictures he took of the attack upon old Fort Umatilla proved to be too dark in spite of the bright lights which were burned for his benefit. He sold 200 feet of his films to Pathé Freres for their weekly.

Ukiah Couple to Wed.

A marriage license was issued today to John Herbert Smith and Max J. Trainer, a Ukiah couple.

E. J. Wilbur, well known sawmill proprietor, has brought suit in the local court to foreclose a lien given by Rebecca Zenor and Frank Zenor to secure him for materials furnished for the building of a house. Carter & Smythe are attorneys for plaintiff.

Land Board Would Foreclose.

The State Land Board yesterday afternoon, through Attorney C. H. Carter, brought suit against Frederick Steiner, administrator of the estate of the late C. C. Hendricks, to foreclose a mortgage on the south 32 1-2 feet of lot 7, Pendleton property given to secure a note for $5000.

The Christian baseball team will journey to the reservation Saturday afternoon where they will play a game with the Indians. The reservation boys have quite a team and a fast and close game is expected. The truck which is to take the team, and any one else who wishes to go, will leave Main and Webb at 2 o'clock sharp.

F. B. Hayes, who is directing the chorus which is preparing to present the "Holy City" next week, recently appointed the following committee to perfect the organization. Mrs. G. W. Rugg, Mrs. Carl Power, Miss Venice Callison, Walter Rose and Winard Bond.

Return from Convocation.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Quinney returned home this morning after attending the convocation of the district of eastern Oregon which met at The Dalles the past three days. The reports submitted by the clergy delegates from the various parishes and Missions show progress all along the line, and indications are that with new work opening up greater efforts will be made for more means to meet the demand. Four lady delegates to the House of Churchwomen attended the convocation. Mrs. Lina H. Sturgis, Mrs. Norborne Berkeley, Mrs. J. B. Perry and Miss Jenny Perry. All report having had a delightful time.

He did not return and when the proprietor tried to collect from the other two, they promptly declared they had been invited in by the third member. The oriental, however, called the police and soon all three were in custody. This morning they were given five days in jail. They gave the names of Charles Cobb, Mike Eagan and Herbert Peters. Three other vags and three drunks completed the police court docket this morning.

The presentation of "The Holy City" by a choir which has been practicing for several weeks under the direction of F. B. Hayes and under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of the Christian church, is scheduled for Thursday evening of next week instead of tonight as first announced. $125 JUDGMENT AWARDED AGAINST REV. E. J. BULGIN

PORTLAND ARCHITECT WINS IN SUIT INVOLVING PLANS FOR DWELLING.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 21.—Judgment for $125 against Rev. E. J. Bulgin, noted revivalist, was awarded recently to J. B. Chambers, an architect, by District Judge Dayton. The bill was for plans and specifications for a $15,000 residence which the evangelist said he was going to build in Laurelhurst. The trial developed the fact that Rev. Mr. Bulgin had ordered Mr. Chambers to draw up plans for a somewhat elaborate residence which he intended to build in Laurelhurst. The house was to contain a billiard room, tiled floors and was to be finished throughout in Circassian walnut. Mr. Chambers estimated that it would cost more than $15,000. When the plans were completed Mr. Bulgin had changed his mind about building the house, and refused to pay Chambers. Judge Dayton awarded the architect the full amount of his claim, and court costs besides.

U. S. Submarines Crippled. WASHINGTON, May 21.—Two of the submarines engaged in the Atlantic fleet's war game off the coast were disabled and were taken in tow for Newport to be repaired.

GERMANY WILL MEET AMERICA HALF WAY

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The president and his cabinet considered confidential reports from Ambassador Gerard regarding America's note. It is understood the reports of the ambassador are comparatively optimistic in showing that Germany desires to meet the United States more than half way.

Germany Revokes Pact.

LONDON, May 21.—Correspondence between the British Minister at the Vatican and the foreign office discloses the fact that Germany has revoked the agreement made at the request of the pope for the exchange of British and German civilians and incapacitated prisoners independently of the question of military age. The Prussian minister at the Vatican has explained that the action was taken because Great Britain was not treating German submarine prisoners as ordinary prisoners of war.

New Mortars Are Tested. BOSTON, May 21.—Several new mortars recently mounted at Fort Andrews, and capable of hurling projectiles weighing half a ton eight and a half miles, were tested. They are said to be the most powerful weapons on the coast.

The projectiles are not explosive, being designed to sink a vessel by tearing a hole through her by the force of their fall from great weight.

Minister Formerly a Conductor. BADGER, Minn., May 21.—Rev. Calle E. Saunders, "conductor" of the Methodist Episcopal church here--and said by his district superintendent to be one of the most promising ministers of the district, was a former railroad conductor. For years he made couplings of cars in flying switches. Now he's making couplings of humans, but more quietly and the only thing upon which he gets to throw a switch is as he says it "to throw a switch to place some human on the track of virtue."

'The Clemenceau Case'

IN SIX ACTS
By Alexandre Dumas

No more powerful sermon was ever preached. No more vivid, pulsating drama was ever written than "The Clemenceau Case." No more wonderful photoplay than "The Clemenceau Case," and starring Theda Bara, "The Vampire Woman," has ever been beheld upon the screen. These statements are made without reservation. Like a mighty river the story of the drama rushes strong and swift to its cataclysmic climax. Passions flare and wills clash throughout the production in a way that grips the spectator, holding him breathless in his chair till the last great scene is reached and the well-nigh overwhelming story of "The Clemenceau Case" is brought to its tremendous end.

"THE CLEMENCEAU CASE"—By Alexandre Dumas—Direction Herbert Brenon.

In the Clemenceau Case Dumas has attained the capstone of his towering genius. Of Iza, the pantherish heroine of this deathless drama, he himself wrote: "I shall never create another such character though I scribble till doomsday."

Iza's sinister beauty and its fatal effect on the lives of two noble men form the main plot of "The Clemenceau Case." Pierre, her husband, whom she casts off for Constantin Ritz, she leaves with his career as a talented sculptor blasted forever. In turn she toys with the infatuated Ritz, shattering his hopes, ambitions and home life.

But Pierre saves Ritz against himself. With heroic self-sacrifice he allows himself, apparently, to fall once more under Iza's spell. He meets her in her oriental boudoir. As she presses her false lips to Pierre's, he stabs her to the heart just as Ritz enters.

"I have saved you for your wife," says Pierre calmly as he telephones for the police. "As for me, Iza killed my heart years ago."
