To Make Lecture Tour.
Rev. J. E. Snyder of the local Presbyterian church has been delegated by the Oregon Social Hygiene Society to make a series of lectures on social hygiene east of this city. He will leave on June 7 and will be gone a week, speaking at Huntington, Ontario, Sumpter and Pocatello. Rev. Snyder is a member of the executive board of the society and has been very prominently identified with its work since its organization.

Jail Doesn't Cure Thirst.
Several days ago Lizzie Rothrock, a mixed blood woman of unsavory repute, appeared in police court and pleaded guilty to being drunk. So often had she been in a similar predicament that Judge Fitz Gerald made her sentence heavier than usual, fixing it at 25 fine or 12 1-2 days in jail. After serving a few days, she was liberated by the police yesterday upon payment of $10 and promising to leave Pendleton. Instead of departing, however, she proceeded to celebrate and was again arrested in an intoxicated condition. This morning Acting Judge Halley doubled the previous penalty and she is back in jail again to serve 25 days unless she pays a $50 fine.

Fined for Striking Boy.
Julius Wicks was convicted this afternoon in police court of striking Walter E. Eggerth, a boy, and was fined $20.

Pleasures of the Deep.
R. B. Stanfield of Echo has an Evinrude attachment he uses on a rowboat he maintains on the Cold Springs reservoir and each Sunday devotes a portion of the day to navigating the big government pond. Through the attachment the boat is converted into a motor boat which provides speedy travel on the reservoir.

Mrs. Temple Critically Ill.
Dr. C. J. Smith of Portland, formerly of this city, arrived this morning and was one of a number of physicians who operated upon Mrs. I. U. Temple, wife of Dr. Temple, who has been seriously ill for the past few weeks with bronchitis and pneumonia. While the operation was as successful as could be hoped for, the condition of Mrs. Temple this afternoon is said to be critical.

Oklahoma Wants Laborers.
Postmaster Tweedy this morning received notification from the department of labor that the state of Oklahoma will need between 10,000 and 15,000 harvest hands in the near future. Harvest begins about June 5. The farmers prefer English speaking men and aliens, who want to work are requested first to write to W. G. Ashton, Oklahoma City, the state labor commissioner. All laborers will be expected to pay their transportation to the scene of work.

Making Depot Driveway.
In connection with the improvement of the vacant block by the depot O. W. R. & N. workmen are now busy building a driveway to the station. The drive way starts at the intersection of Garden and Railroad streets and runs diagonally across to the depot then parallels the track for the length of the depot. The driveway will be made of river gravel with a crushed rock top. The drive will be well rolled. After its completion autos and truckmen will be required to use the driveway and keep off the remainder of the block which will be put into grass.
