

"The Business o' bein' Contented"

Gets better when you help your neighbor, 'cause you know he's helpin' you. Helpin' your community aint no different. If the farmer helps your business you oughta help his by buyin' what he raises. Them "PEMECCO" MEATS is grown in Umatilla county and prepared in Pendleton. If you aint ridin' on the Home Industry wagon your fare costs too much. The State Inspector knows a thing or two and he didn't hesitate about puttin' the O. K. on the "Pemecco" Plant.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 10.—Portland today paid homage to the Queen of Flowers when more than 6,000,000 roses were seen in a grand floral review.

The occasion was the decorated automobile and vehicle parade, held in connection with the Rose Festival.

The parade was the greatest of the kind ever held in the country. Hundreds of automobiles and vehicles of all kinds, motorcycles, and members of the Portland fire apparatus, all rose bedecked, produced a beautiful spectacle.

COMPOSER SPURNS PRIMA-DONNA FRIEND

Later, when Mr. Bryan's statement appeared, comment in high official quarters was still friendly toward Mr. Bryan personally, but sharp issue was taken with his interpretation of what the note to Germany actually contained.

"I believe you are wrong and that I can convince you of it," Mr. Bryan is quoted as having said with a smile in his farewell interview with the president. He told Mr. Wilson he believed he could be of service in the country by securing an expression of the peaceful desires of the nation and help to prevent war.

It is the repetition of attacks on American vessels or lives which the president believes must be prevented by an assertion of the rights of the United States and the attainment of Germany's acquiescence in that point of view before diplomatic negotiations on the subject can continue.

The note cabled to Germany, it was said authoritatively leaves room in many respects for a friendly reply, but contains firm insistence on the principles expressed in the American notes of February 10 and May 13. The president has requested that detailed forecasts of the note be not printed in advance of the publication of the official text.

Bryan's Interpretation Questioned.

He told Mr. Wilson he believed he could be of service in the country by securing an expression of the peaceful desires of the nation and help to prevent war.

It was declared by some of those officials familiar with the contents of the document that it would not necessarily lead to war and that such a contingency could arise only if there were a repetition of attacks on American lives and vessels.

It was indicated that failure to secure reparation for the Lusitania might mean severance of diplomatic relations, but that hostilities would be precipitated only by warlike acts on the part of Germany.

PATHE COMEDY

He Takes Well at Parties

THE CLUTCHING HAND —In— THE DEVIL WORSHIPERS

NEW YORK, June 4.—When the transatlantic liner "Rochembeau" had warped into her dock four dignified men came down the gangplank. A handsomely dressed woman rushed up, with arms extended. "Maestro," she cried, "I am so happy to see you; so very happy."

"Ah, Kutschera, Kutschera," cried one man and allowed her to put her arms about him. But then suddenly he pushed her away and shouted "No, No, No. You are a German. Away, away." And turning to his companions he beckoned them and left the deck without another look at the grief-stricken woman.

Such was the greeting of Camille Saint Saens, the far-famed French composer, to Mme. Elise Kutschera, the Wagnerian lieder singer, friend of royalty and for the past fifteen years associated with Saint Saens in professional work.

Truly this war has engendered deep and lasting hatred.
