ITALIAN BERSAGLIERI CYCLIST.

The Bersagliero, Italian light infantry, are the fastest footed soldiers in the world. The usual march-step is what is known to ours and other armies as the "quick step" and the amount of ground they can cover in a day and still be in good condition at the day's end is said to be almost incredible when considered with the distances other armies can cover.

This speed effect, however, is not sufficient for the advance scouts, who have specially constructed bicycles and equipment such as shown in the picture.

CATTLE TRADE SHOWS WEAKNESS

(Courtesy Tuesday's Journal.)
PORTLAND, Ore.—Following the big movement to the North Portland market yesterday there was a fair supply reported in the yards overnight. Situation in the cattle trade is inclined to show further weakness. Additional supplies of California stuff came in overnight and a further liberal movement from there is expected within the immediate future.

The general run of tops in the steer division has not been moved above $7.25 in the yards during the last 24 hours, although yesterday one load of extra good light weight Idaho stuff sold at a dime above this.

Cattle market conditions at stockyard points east of the Rockies today were steady to weak.

General cattle market range:
Select steers $7.30@7.35
Best hay fed steers 7.20@7.25
Good to choice 7.00@7.15
Ordinary to fair 6.00@6.75

Best cows 6.50
Good to prime 6.25@6.40
Select calves 7.00@7.75
Fancy bulls 5.25@5.50
Ordinary bulls 4.00@5.00

Swine Market is Weaker.

There was a slight showing of weakness in the swine trade at North Portland overnight. This was in line with conditions at most American centers for the day. Prices here were down from 5 to 10c from yesterday, but this is generally the case after a big Monday showing or after the outside buyers have secured their requirements. Bargain hunters infest the market on other days.

Swine market was fractionally weaker and down 5@10c generally in the east today.

General hog market range:
Best light 7.90
Medium light 7.80
Good to heavy 7.60@7.65
Rough and heavy 6.50@7.50

Mutton Market Steady.

Only a very small supply of mutton came forward overnight to North Portland; in fact, only one load put in appearance in addition to some in a mixed load on contract to a local slaughterer. General mutton market conditions are steady around yesterday's range.

Market for mutton and lambs was steady to weak at eastern points for the day.

General wool mutton market:
Choice spring lambs $7.50@7.75
Common spring lambs 6.00@6.50
Choice yearling wethers 6.00@6.25
Good yearling lambs 5.00@5.75
Old wethers 5.75@6.00
Choice light ewes 5.00@5.25
Good ewes 4.50@5.00
Common heavy ewes 4.00@4.25

Cattle—J. C. Mitchell Willows, Cal. 5 loads; Murphy & Co., Deer Island, 1 load; F. E. Spoor, Malpais, 1 load. Sheep—J. M. Cobb, Eugene, 1 load. Mixed stuff—C. E. Lucke, Estacade, 7 load calves, hogs and sheep on contract.

CEREAL PRICES SHARPLY SHADED

(Tuesday's Market.)
PORTLAND, Ore.—Cereal prices were generally sharply shaded today by local milling interests. Farina is down 25c, rye flour 25c, cracked wheat 25c, whole wheat 25c and graham flour 20c per barrel. No change was announced in patent flour and none is at present contemplated by the trade here, although the situation is extremely weak.

Weakness was general in the wheat trade at outside points for the day. Chicago was depressed in the early trade. There was a dull tone at unchanged prices in Paris while Liverpool spots were off 2 to 5d from yesterday.

Occasional sales between dealers are reported in the wheat trade, but no country transactions are confirmed. In fact leaders of the trade assert that there is practically no wheat offering in the country.

Owing to the fact that stocks of Manchurian corn are practically cleaned up along the Pacific coast and that no further shipments are likely this season, stronger values are generally shown here. Future supplies must come from the east during the remainder of the season.

Flour—Selling price: Patent, $6.20; Willamette valley, $6.20; local straight $5.50; bakers, local, $6.20; Montana spring wheat, $7.20; export, $4.50; whole wheat, $5.50; graham, $5.60 per barrel.

Hay—Buying price: Willamette valley timothy, $15; eastern Oregon-Idaho fancy timothy, $16; alfalfa, $12@12.50; vetch and oats, $11; clover, $8@9 per ton.

Grain Sacks—1915, nominal; No. 1 Calcutta, $ 1-2@9c.

Milbuffs—Selling price: Bran, $27@27.50; shorts, $28@29.

Rolled barley—Selling price: $25@26.50.

Corn—White, $25@26.50; cracker, $26@27.

Buyers of wheat on the Portland Merchants' Exchange were sellers today. Spot wheat bids closed unchanged to 1c below yesterday. Sales included 10,000 bushels July bluestem, $2 1-2c.

Spot oats bids on the exchange were 25c a ton higher. Sales included 100 tons July at $24.25 and 100 tons at $24.50.

Spot barley was unchanged with no sales.

CHICAGO WHEAT IS FORCED DOWN

(Today's Market.)
CHICAGO.—Wheat closed 2 5-8@ 2 1-4c lower. Fearish cables influenced the grain market at the opening today and prices were generally lower.

Wheat started 1 to 2-8c lower, while corn was down 1-2 to 2-8c. Commission houses were heavy sellers. Numerous stop orders were uncovered on the decline. Short covering was in evidence, but failed to stop a further decline. The trade in corn was moderate. The demand for cash however, was slack. The drop in the price of wheat was responsible for the decline in corn, according to the best authorities.

Oats were weak. The cash demand showed some improvement. Provisions were dull.

Bear Chews Boy's Arm.
PHILADELPHIA, June 14.—The suit of 18-year-old Willard Kyle and his father against the Zoological Society of Philadelphia for damages was not-sued recently because of the plaintiff's technical error of having sued the society and its members as an unincorporated body. The society was incorporated in 1859 and the law provides that such organizations must be sued as incorporated bodies.

The action was to recover damages for injuries sustained by the boy 10 years ago, when his arm was chewed by a Polar bear. While visiting the zoo with his classmates, in charge of "Cop" Gets Pig; $1 Reward.

ST. PAUL, June 16.—On Seventh street late one night in April dodged a lone hog. He was a big fellow, weighing nearly 200 pounds, but he made fast time. Right behind him was one of St. Paul's "finest," Patrolman P. J. Horn.

For a time it was a sensational race, spectators have said. Just as Mr. Hog decided to turn off on Locust street Patrolman Horn took a chance on a flying tackle. It was good, and perker and officer rolled over and over in the street. He retained his grip, and reinforcements, in the persons of Patrolman Murphy and Conductor Herman Miske, of the Central Station patrol, soon arrived.

Next day an express company claimed the pig, asserting he had escaped from a crate. Recently in the mail box at Central station appeared a letter for Patrolman Horn. It was from the express company, and across the outside was written, "11 for catching pig."
