

PUT ON Diamond SQUEEGEE Tires

DIAMOND TIRES ARE:

The tires that go farthest at lowest cost.

The tires that give the big mileage to hundreds of thousands of motorists on good roads and bad.

The tires with the positive non-skid Squeegee tread—vibrationless and road-gripping all the time.

The tires built to take the hard knocks with never a breakdown.

Built of rubber that will outwear steel.

Built of fabric that provides strength where you need it.

Built on the sound mechanical principle that positive traction provides increased mileage.

Built with continuous ribs which eliminate vibration.

Built as good as man and rubber can make.

You can't get more, why pay more than these "Fair-List" prices.

WIDOW OF CIVIL WAR VETERAN PASSES AWAY AT HER HOME IN ECHO

MRS. HESTER M. LEAVELL LAID TO REST THURSDAY IN I. O. O. F. CEMETERY.

Married Major John Leavell in 1864—He Died Last February—His Death Was a Blow to Her From Which She Never Recovered—Four Children Survive Her.

(Special Correspondence.)

ECHO, Ore., June 19.—The body of Mrs. Hester M. Leavell was laid to rest on Thursday at the I. O. O. F. cemetery. She was the widow of Major John Leavell, who passed away here on February 25. Mrs. Leavell, who was Miss Hester M. Gidaker, was born on November 2, 1842. On April 28, 1864, she married John Leavell, who later became a major in the civil war.

Mrs. Leavell has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Rial, on Butler creek since her husband's death, where she died on Wednesday, June 16, never having recovered from the sorrow of his passing. Four children mourn their loss, Thomas G. Leavell, Jennie M. Rial and Walter Leavell of Echo and George H. Leavell of Portland.

The C. C. Patton Carnival company has been here for the past two days with their trained animals and merry-go-round. They were engaged by the Echo firemen. The show was well patronized.

The Misses Ruth and Ella Moore, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore, whose home is seven miles southwest of Echo, arrived home last Monday morning from Boise, Idaho, where they attended high school the past nine months.

The girls, who are seventeen and eighteen years of age arrived here on the 4:30 a. m. train. Their parents did not expect them until on a later train so did not meet them. But the young ladies not at all daunted, left their baggage in town and walked out to their home in time for breakfast.

E. L. Adams and wife of Big Stone Flat, are in town from their home-stand for a few days visit.

Miss Gladys Lane of Pendleton spent a couple of days here this week with Mrs. Elena Thomson.

Mr. and Mrs. Mopdy and grown son stayed over night here Thursday while on their way to Pendleton from The Dalles in search of employment. They made the trip by walking and pushing a cart ahead of them which held their bedding and clothes.

Mrs. Ivan Dunning of Stanfield, was in Echo Friday shopping.

DANCING IN PUBLIC SQUARE POPULAR IN PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, June 18.—Followers of Terpsichore will be permitted to dance in the public squares and on the streets of this city during municipal band concerts this summer. The plan has the full approval of the council. A detailed squad of "Dance Inspectors" under Street Inspector Theodore S. Finn, will study the steps of the various dances and warn those who dance in too modern a fashion to stop. Pavements and open spaces in the public squares will be roped off wherever they are smooth enough to make dancing possible.

Get Rid of Your Rheumatism.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You can do it if you apply Chamberlain's Liniment. W. A. Lockhard, Homer City, N. Y., writes: "Last spring I suffered from rheumatism with terrible pains in my arms and shoulders. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and the first application relieved me. By using one bottle of it I was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Signor Salvatore Ciricillo

NO band leader of recent years has received greater ovations than Signor Salvatore Ciricillo, who, with his world renowned Italian concert band will make his second tour of the Pacific coast this summer. He is unquestionably the most interesting personality before the music world today and one of the most successful of all conductors, a musical genius of the highest order.

In 1906 he toured the cities of the middle west with a boys' band, which was accorded great applause. His present band is the nature fruit of that beginning, and many of his present players have been with him since boyhood.

Ciricillo began the study of music at eleven years of age in his native land, Italy. It was only a year later that the leader of the municipal band of Campobasso, his birthplace, asked Ciricillo's parents to permit the boy to play in his band. He soon afterward entered the Royal Conservatory of Music at Naples and graduated at eighteen. He came to the United States in 1902. His first tour was successful, and he has traveled extensively every season since that time.

Romantic Note Wasted.

WASHINGTON, Pa., June 19.—Mrs. Susie Jones, wife of John Jones, of this city, recently sent socks and shirts to the striving warriors of Europe. In the box she included her name and address. This week Mrs. Jones received a letter from Corporal Richards, of the Police Rest camp, stationed at Southampton, England, telling her he had received the shirts and socks.

Going on the principle that letters found in bottles have given rise to tender attachments between the sender and the finder, the corporal, in his letter, hints at a romantic sequel to the gift. Mrs. Jones says, however, he must look elsewhere for his motion-picture plot.

She Knows.

The lesson in natural history had been about the rhinoceros, and the teacher wanted to know how well the lesson had been learned.

"Now, name something," she said, "that is very dangerous to get near to and that has horns."

"I know, teacher; I know!" cried little Annie Jones.

"Well, Annie, what is it?"

"An automobile."

A HASTY MAKE-UP.
An actor once was cast as a brigand in "Ingomar," and the director told him to get a rug, throw it about his shoulders and sit by a campfire. He did so, his face being toward the audience. In a tense situation he stood up, turned around and almost broke up the show. Worked in the rug was one word.
"Welcome!"

It Wouldn't Work.
Why don't you keep a dog as a protection against thieves?
"It doesn't work that way with me. A dog is merely a temptation to some people. I've already lost three."

Grateful Mothers Tell Experiences

Mrs. T. Neureuter, Eau Claire, Wis., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound cured my boy of a very severe attack of croup after other remedies had failed. Our milkman cured the children of whooping cough. I recommend it to every one, as we know from our own experience that it is a wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, croup, and whooping cough."

Mrs. R. Gilkeson, Youngstown, O., writes: "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. I tried lots of cough remedies, but she didn't get any better. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to me. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat, and after using one bottle the cough left her."

This sterling old remedy has been in use for years and is just as efficient for adults as for children. It gives relief for irritated and tickling throat, tight and sore chest, grippe, and bronchial cough.
