AMERICA'S GREATEST CIGARETTE

Makers of the Highest Grade Turkish and Egyptian Cigarettes in the World

A TRAGIC EPISODE.

The other day a movie actor who once was a telegrapher was seated in the lobby of a hotel when his attention was attracted by a tapping on the arm of the chair next to him. A young man was telegraphing with his pen and lead pencil.

"Oh, May!" said the improvised instrument. Nothing happened and a minute or so later the young man flicked it off again. There was another slight pause and then the instrument at one of the telegraph desks asked: "Well, what is it?" A blonde girl was at the key.

"I'm sorry," the young man in the chair looked off. "Won't you forgive me?"

"I'm afraid I can't," came from the regular telegraph instrument. "No Tom, I'm through with you."

"Yes," said the young man.

"There was a slight pause and then the young man wired back: "All right. Good-by! I'm going west tomorrow."

"Good-by!" replied the girl's sounder.

The young man arose and moved slowly to the door. Suddenly the girl's instrument called frantically. "Tom! Tom! Wait!"

She was too late. He had gone out into the street.

FRIEND WILLIE.

Please, mamma, can I go over and play with Jimmie Brown?

"Why, Willie, of course you can't. We've got the mumps, and it's very catching."

"I know it. That's why I want to go over. Jimmie likes to stay home from school just as much as I do."

ATHENA-PILOT ROCK MAY CLASH TO DECIDE COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

BASEBALL HONORS NOW LIES BETWEEN THESE TWO TEAMS IN LEAGUES.

Pebbles Clinches Pennant in Blue Mountain League, While Athena Seemingly Has the East End Emblem Within Her Grasp—Athena Ready to Challenge the Rock.

The baseball championship of Umatilla county will apparently fall either to Pilot Rock or Athena. Already Pilot Rock has won the pennant of the Blue Mountain League and Athena seemingly has the East End rag within her clutch. By defeating the Milton-Freewater team Sunday in a ten inning battle, the Athena boys placed themselves two whole games ahead in the race and there are only two more games to be played. Inasmuch as the Athena team has the remaining games with the tail-end club the margin seems a safe one.

Manager Osborne of the Athena team is already preparing to hurl a challenge at the Pilot Rock Pebbles for a championship series and the Pebbles are known to be in a receptive mood. It might be possible for the games or at least one of them to be pulled off in Pendleton.

Athena turned a nice trick in the Sunday game by coming from behind in the ninth inning and tying the score only to continue the battling rally in the tenth and bat across four runs. The following is the box score for the game:

NATY YOUNG MAN WEDS WEALTHY WIDOW

Widow of "Silent" Smith.

Society in Newport, Washington, New York and Europe will be intensely interested in the news of the sudden marriage of Jean H. E. St. Cyr, a natty young society man of twenty-eight and Mrs. Annie Armstrong Smith, widow of "Silent" Smith, a New York broker, who was believed to have left something like $40,000,000 when he died some years ago.

This is the second elderly and wealthy widow the young man has married. His first venture was with Mrs. May Redfield, widow of a Hartford, Conn., banker. She died last January of pneumonia in her apartments in the Waldorf-Astoria, New York. Mrs. Redfield was about sixty years of age and her husband about twenty-five when they were married. She left him $1,000,000. Later he went to White Sulphur Springs, Va., and there he was seen often driving and riding with Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. St. Cyr, who is a sister of Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel, of the wealthy Philadelphia and London family, was Miss Annie M. Armstrong, a beauty of Baltimore society. She married William Rhinelandier Stewart of New York, one of the heirs of the rich Rhinelandier estate, in 1879, some thirty-six years ago, and there by fixed her position in New York society.

Her daughter, Anita Stewart, in 1909 married Prince Miguel of Brazanza, son of the pretender to the throne of Portugal, and the father-in-law gave her the title of Duchess of Vizeu. When the revolution came and young King Manuel was driven from the throne of Portugal, the pretender saw an opportunity to step in. Mrs. Stewart, it was declared, was asked to finance a coup. She refused, and the Portuguese republic went on its way with no more trouble with royalty.

Later came Mrs. Stewart's marriage with "Silent" Smith, William Henry Smith, who had inherited a large fortune from his uncle in England. He died while they were on their honeymoon in Japan and the fortune went to the widow.

FAIR BELGIAN VOWS TO KILL KAISER

NEW YORK, June 22.—Mme. Jeanne Perichon, the only woman who has won the Order of Leopold, now in this country with Countess de Homptin Hemptine to raise funds to rehabilitate the lace industry in Belgium, has sworn to slay the kaiser of Germany.

"I will kill him; with my own hands I will kill him, if not during the war, then after it. Who would blame me?" said Mme. Perichon in discussing atrocities committed by the Germans, which she says, she saw with her own eyes. The order of Leopold was pinned on her by King Albert for five months "supreme gallantry" in attending wounded under fire in the trenches.

Engine Plant to Reopen.

PITTSBURG, June 22.—After two years of practical idleness, the American Locomotive company works on the North Side are being overhauled and plans are being made for a complete resumption. It will take fully four months to complete the work, but in the meantime officials of the company say more men will be gradually added to the force as the work proceeds. By the middle of August it is believed the force of about 1000 men will be at work. Nearly all are skilled mechanics.

The new business this plant has been assigned by the parent corporation is not for export but is wholly domestic business in filling orders for locomotives for American railroads. Officers of the company look for long continued operation once the start is made.

G. Harold Powell Tells Advertising Men About Citrus Fruits.

CHICAGO, June 22.—G. Harold Powell of Los Angeles addressed a gathering of seventy-five representatives of the leading newspapers of the country today in the offices of Lord & Thomas on the subject of the marketing methods and business aims of the great California Fruit Growers Exchange of which he is general manager.

Mr. Powell explained the operations of the Exchange, which does a business of approximately $60,000,000 a year without capital and without profit, and pointed out the advantages of the Exchange principle to both the grower and the consumer of California oranges and lemons.

As a result of the extreme care and scientific methods of handling the fruit by the 6500 grower-members of the Exchange California citrus fruits reaches the eastern housewife's table as fresh and perfect in every way as when picked from the trees in the golden state, the grower profiting in his turn because the fruit is salable and because economical handling prevents excessive selling costs.

"One thing, we believe is misunderstood by the average consumer," said Mr. Powell, "and that is the California orange purchased during the summer months is not a winter orange which has been held in cold storage but is a fresh picked summer orange. The orange known as the Valencia variety begins to ripen on the trees about May 1st and is picked and shipped fresh from the trees every day thereafter until about November 1st, when the Navel variety comes into the market. It is, therefore, possible to have fresh picked California oranges every day of the year round."

"The Exchange is carrying on an extensive advertising campaign for the purpose of increasing the consumption of oranges and lemons and we feel that this campaign is having a beneficial effect on the public health generally for certainly everyone from babies to old people is better for the more frequent use of these fruits. We are not trying to switch people from one kind of orange or lemon to another, for that would merely divert business. To get the best results for both grower and consumer alike we must make people eat more of all kinds of oranges and lemons. That is the main aim in all our publicity."
