

MEXICAN CATTLE ENTERING TRADE

(Courtesy Monday's Journal.)
 PORTLAND, Ore.—Mexican cattle are coming to Portland because of the fact that this market is the best on the coast, quality considered. The Hearst estate has 10 loads in from Lathrop, Cal., where they were fed en route from Mexico.

While the local market for cattle has been somewhat depressed of late, the trend of the trade here has been even better than at competitive centers, especially for ordinary quality offerings.

Total run of cattle in the North Portland yards over Sunday was somewhat less than last week, the aggregate being 789 head compared with 1207 last Monday and 1176 head for this same day a year ago.

It was only the smaller supply than expected that kept the market from showing losses for the day.

Cattle market conditions in the eastern trade are beginning to show returning strength and at some points advances were forced in value.

General cattle market range:
 Select steers ..... $7.15 @ 7.25
 Best hay fed steers ..... 7.00 @ 7.10
 Good to choice ..... 6.50 @ 6.75
 Ordinary to fair ..... 6.00 @ 6.25
 Best cows ..... 6.25 @ 6.50
 Good to choice ..... 6.25 @ 6.39
 Select calves ..... 7.00 @ 7.75
 Fancy bulls ..... 5.25 @ 5.50
 Ordinary bulls ..... 4.00 @ 5.00

Market for hogs was under pressure from the opening of the week's trade at North Portland this morning. First of all there was a rather liberal supply, although the run was not quite as heavy as last Monday. Totals over Sunday were 2611 head compared with 2520 last Monday and 1932 head this same day a year ago.

Killers were inclined to sit tight on the price bid at the opening of the trade and were offering around $7.75 for good stuff.

Strength was shown for hogs at eastern points today and price advances were general.

General hog market range:
 Best light ..... $7.75 @ 7.80
 Medium light ..... 7.70 @ 7.75
 Good to heavy ..... 7.50 @ 7.60
 Rough to heavy ..... 6.50 @ 7.25

There was a disappointing run of sheep and lambs in the yards at North Portland over Sunday. Trade conditions were fractionally weaker all around.

Eastern mutton and lamb prices were held steady to higher for the day.

General shorn mutton market:
 Choice spring lambs ..... $7.00 @ 7.20
 Common spring lambs ..... 6.00 @ 6.50
 Choice yearling wethers ..... 5.50 @ 5.75
 Good yearlings ..... 5.25 @ 5.35
 Old wethers ..... 5.25 @ 5.35
 Choice light ewes ..... 4.75 @ 5.00
 Good ewes ..... 4.50
 Common heavy ewes ..... 4.00 @ 4.25

The picture shows the sinking of the American steamer Gulflight by a German submarine. The merchantman was torpedoed without warning, causing the death of her captain and two of her crew. This is one of the acts for which President Wilson has asked reparation from Germany. The insert is of Captain Gunter, who lost his life.

CHICAGO WHEAT FEW CENTS DOWN

CHICAGO.—Wheat closed 1-2 @ 4 1-8c lower.

Prices in the pit at the opening today received a set-back, due to a general selling movement.

Wheat values opened 1-2c to 1-5c lower, while corn started with a decline of 1-8 to 5-8c. Oats were down at the outset, as were provisions.

The early decline was checked midway in the trading on liberal buying of July and September wheat. At noon the advance was lost.

The trading was largely domestic. The importing countries are showing no great amount of interest in the new American wheat options. This has been the controlling influence in American wheat markets.

Indications are for more settled weather over the corn belt. The decline this morning was due to this factor and the pressing of the Argentine offerings. Oats were dull. Provisions were weak.

Stories From the War Zone

BY WILBUR S. FORREST
 (United Press Staff Correspondent.)
 LONDON, June 11.—(By Mail to New York.)—That the German authorities have hoodwinked the various neutral commissions that have made generally favorable reports on the treatment and feeding of prisoners of war in Germany is charged by three Belgian non-commissioned officers who recently escaped from the prison camp at Bergenhus.

Questioned singly and then together by the Belgian minister at Copenhagen, their stories, which have been forwarded to the Belgian legation in London, coincided. All agreed that conditions in the larger prison camps such as Parchim, where they were first confined, are considerably better than those in the smaller camps the former being under the command of superior officers. Though the rules in the larger camps are severe, they are applied with more or less equality and there is not so much arbitrary infliction of excessive toil or ill-treatment, such as prevail in the camps like Bergenhus which are under the command of sub-officers of the reserves or territorialists who run them according to their own whims and without the necessity of reporting their own violations of the rules.

"In these camps English and Russian prisoners are treated incomparably worse than the French and Belgians," said the escaped Belgians. "They are given the most revolting tasks to perform and are often brutally assaulted. Parcels for all prisoners are opened, delayed, and pilfered, in spite of the rule that they should be opened in the presence of the recipients. The medical service is lamentably insufficient, prisoners not even being examined until after they have been ill for many days. Even then no rest from work is allowed except in grave cases. The only reply to complaints is, 'You didn't come here to be ill or to rest, but to work.' The prisoners have to pay for medicines themselves, and the lot of those unable to do so is frightful.

"Both the quantity and the quality of food have been lowered in the past three months. At Bergenhus the rations were: Morning—bowl of a brew called coffee and a morsel of black bread three inches square and one and a half thick. This bread, a little less than 200 grammes, has to last all day; Midday—soup, made of water, mostly quite inedible, and some beet-root; Evening—beetroot only. Vegetables, preserves and especially meat are only distributed in special circumstances and, in infinitesimal portions. Rarely, some bones from the meat used at the table of the guard are dipped in the prisoners' soup. The waste from the German troops' kitchen is sold on contract to feed the pigs of the countryside. The Belgians at Bergenhus one day complained of the soup, whereupon the commandant replied, 'I know this soup is not fit to give to pigs—but you'll eat it all the same.'

"Commissions of the Red Cross and the neutral states have expressed themselves as being generally satisfied with the nourishment of the prisoners because they have been completely hoodwinked. For instance, when the Swedish mission visited Germany they were shown the kitchens where the meals were being prepared, not for the prisoners as they believed, but for the guards. At the

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

LOOK YOUNG! BRINGS BACK ITS NATURAL COLOR, GLOSS AND THICKNESS.

Cosmeton garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Weyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Weyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

James Bryce.

The commission on the investigation of outrages of German troops on the Belgians, of which Viscount Bryce formerly British ambassador to the United States was the head, has made its report, and summarized its findings as follows:

1. That there were in many parts of Belgium deliberate and systematic organized massacres of the civil population, accompanied by many isolated murders and other outrages.

2. That in the conduct of the war generally innocent civilians, both men and women, were murdered in large numbers, women violated and children murdered.

3. That looting, house burning and the wanton destruction of property were ordered and countenanced by the officers of the German army, that deliberate provision had been made for systematic incendiarism at the very outbreak of the war, and that the burnings and destruction were frequent where no military necessity could be alleged, being indeed part of a system of general terrorism.

4. That the rules and usages of war were frequently broken, particularly by the using of civilians, including women and children, as a shield for advancing forces exposed to fire, to a less degree by killing the wounded and prisoners and in the frequent abuse of the Red Cross and the white flag.

contains the prices charged prisoners are far beyond market prices, while the non-commissioned officers of the German guard pay nothing.

"Only a strong constitution can enable a man to emerge with his health from one of these camps. Some Belgians have already died of hunger."

AMSTERDAM, June 7.—(By Mail to New York.)—The Kaiser's health is being safeguarded these days with characteristic German thoroughness, according to information reaching here from Berlin.

The most elaborate precautions are taken to prevent his even catching a cold. Whenever he goes to either of the fronts he is accompanied by a small army of physicians and nurses whose first duty is to ascertain whether there is any epidemic prevalent in the district, whether the air is suitable for his majesty's lungs, and whether the humidity is such as might cause rheumatic pains. If, in spite of all precautionary measures the Kaiser catches a cold, he is immediately put to bed, all visitors are refused admission, he is swathed in all sorts of poultices, takes an enormous quantity of pills and powders, and exacts a thousand and one cures.

Meanwhile special sanitation work is pursued. His temporary home is disinfected, both inside and outside, a score of times daily. The room where he reposes is constantly sprayed with special chemical preparations, and those of his suite who cough, or have been ill even some time before, or who use a handkerchief too frequently are not permitted within halting distance of the room.

MELANCHOLY WOMEN.
 Women should understand that melancholy, commonly called the "Blues," is nine times out of ten a pure symptom of some organic derangement which should have attention. For nearly forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for such conditions, as proved by many testimonials which we are constantly publishing from women who have been restored to health by its use.—Adv.

Bill Hits Tipping Trust.
 SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 21.—By a vote of 36 to 9 the Illinois senate passed the Merritt bill prohibiting the sale of tipping privileges. The measure is aimed at the so-called tipping trust and prohibits the division of gratuities between employer and employee.

MILLERS REFUSE TO LOWER PRICE

(Monday's Market)
 PORTLAND, Ore.—While some of the grain exporters with high priced ships on their hands have endeavored to force the price of wheat down to normal new crop basis, millers are not following their declines by placing the price of flour on the same basis.

This would indicate at the moment that millers are generally taking little stock in the desires of the speculative exporters to bring the wheat price to the lowest level. Then there is another real good reason why millers are not inclined to be hasty about putting flour down. Practically all their product now on hand cost them on the basis of better than $1 a bushel for wheat.

Strenuous efforts are being made on the part of bag interests to force artificial strength into the situation. With practically all the required bags en route to the coast, importers are trying to scare growers into paying more money by alleging the shipments will be too late for early harvest. This is considered improbable at the moment.

Flour—Selling price: Patent, $6.20; Willamette valley, $6.20; local straight $5.80; bakers, local, $6.20; Montana spring wheat $7.20; exports, $4.50; whole wheat, $5.60; graham, $5.00 per bushel.

Hay—Buying price: Willamette valley timothy, fancy, $13; eastern Oregon-Idaho fancy timothy, $16; alfalfa, $13 @ 13.50; vetch and oats, $11; clover, $8 @ 9 per ton.

Grain Sacks—1915, nominal No. 1 Calcutta, $ 1-2 @ 9c.

Millstuffs—Selling price: Bran, $27 @ 27.50; shorts, $25 @ 29.

Rolled Barley—Selling price: $25 @ 26.50.

Corn—White, $35 @ 35.50; cracked, $36 @ 37.

Wheat bids for spot delivery on the Portland Merchants' Exchange were lifted 2 to 3c a bushel today over those in effect on Saturday. It is stated that one prominent exporter has been caught short for present crop delivery and holders are squeezing him to the king's taste. No sales.

Spot oats bids were stronger with an advance of $1 a ton, due to the same condition. A sale of 100 tons July was made at $25.50.

Spot barley bids showed like strength with a similar advance. No sales.
