

News Notes of Pendleton

Judgment is Entered.
Judge Phelps has given the Western Electric Co. judgment for $265.71 and attorney fees against Adam O. Noble and Wade Privett, who were formerly in the electrical business here.

Richard Travels Alone to Coast.
Richard Rice, young son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Rice, is at Seaside as a guest of young Dave Nelson, having made the trip Sunday night and Monday by himself. His younger brother, Jimmy Rice, left today for the John Crow ranch on the reservation to spend a month.

Ethel McDonald Dies.
Miss Ethel McDonald, a niece of Mrs. Fred Searcy, dropped dead in Walla Walla Wednesday and the funeral is being held in the Garden City today. Mr. and Mrs. Searcy are attending the service and will then go to Seaside. Miss McDonald lived with the Searcys two years ago.

Two Garages Building.
Permits to build garages were taken out yesterday by George E. Pelling, well known farmer who lives on Long street, and Ernest Allen, well known colored porter who lives on west Court. He has just purchased a car and thus becomes the first colored man in Pendleton to own an auto.

Makes Overland Motorcycle Trip.
Edward Wille of Mt. Ast, Iowa, arrived in Pendleton yesterday on his Indian motorcycle for a visit with his friend, H. W. Calfee of The Hub Store, having ridden overland from his home. He came by way of the Lincoln Highway and found the roads in fair shape. He will go on to San Francisco to attend the exposition.

Cross Depot Lawn; Arrested.
His patience with men who deliberately walk across the new parking at the depot becoming exhausted, Agent T. F. O'Brien this morning arrested V. C. Blackwell and A. J. Walker, who had offended in like manner before. They pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct this morning in police court and were fined one dollar each.

"Vag" Pulled a "Horsehead."
"Sometimes these dead-beats on the street pick the wrong man for an easy mark. 'Youse guys look like good fellows," said one of the professional type this morning, accosting three men talking on the street corner. "Can't you help a poor old tail or what can't find work." One of the three chanced to be Officer Alex Manning whose star was not showing. "What'll I do with him, chief," said the officer with a wink at one of the others and soon had the man on the way to the station. En route they passed a friend of the officer who greeted him with a "Hello, judge." "Blink, blankety blank blank," quoth the d. b. "a chief and a judge both. I am up against it." At the station when being searched, he was detected trying to slip a full bottle of grain alcohol down a pants leg.

McKee's Father Is Ill.
O. J. McKee, O. W. R. & N. yardmaster, leaves today for Wellington, Kansas, in response to news that his father is very ill.

Is Named Guardian.
W. J. Furnish has been appointed by the court guardian of James Roy and Mildred Blanche Furnish, minor heirs of the late James Furnish.

Boy to Be Sent Home.
Constable J. W. Dyke brought down from Milton this morning Lesie McGoldrich, a boy charged with delinquency. He was taken before Judge Marsh who directed that the boy be sent to his parents in Seattle.

Funeral is Held.
The funeral of Jack Marinette, who died at the state hospital a few days ago, was held at the Folsom chapel this morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Charles Quinney of the Episcopal church conducting the services. Interment was made in Olney cemetery. The home of the deceased was in Canyon City.

Henderson Estate Probated.
The late Addison C. Henderson left an estate in his own name worth $1677.64 and a partnership interest with his sons worth $4850, according to the petition filed with the county clerk. He left no will and his only heirs are his widow and two sons, Caz C. and Lloyd V. Henderson. They have been appointed joint administrators and Geo. Hartman, Jr., William Blakely and H. G. Casteel have been named appraisers of the estate.

Fixing Lehman Roads.
George Darveau, proprietor of the Hotel St. George, is back from a trip to Lehman Springs and reports that Manager Frank L. McNeil has a force of men at work improving the roads to that resort. He is also building a new mud bath house for the benefit of those patrons who like this treatment. Mr. Darveau himself found great relief from his illness in the Lehman mud baths last year.

Two Grass Fires.
Two grass fires yesterday called the fire department out. At 4:50 an alarm was turned in from East Court and the firemen found the hill above St. Anthony's hospital ablaze as a result of a small boy playing with matches. The chemicals were used to put the fire out. At 10:15 last evening another alarm was turned in, this time from West Court. A grass fire had started this side of the skating rink and was extinguished by the firemen with water.

Claim O. W. Injured Sheep.
T. F. Boylen and H. L. Stephens, doing business in this county under the name of Boylen-Stephens Sheep Commission, today filed suit against the O. W. R. & N. Co. for damages amounting to $433 for alleged injuries to a shipment of sheep and for $25.45 special damages for expenses to which they were put by the alleged negligence of the company's agents. On Sept. 11, 1914, they loaded 435 sheep at Haines for shipment to Portland. The cars, they allege, were filthy and not provided with bedding. The sheep were held four hours at La Grande, they allege, without bedding so that their wool became damp and dirty. Also they allege the sheep became frightened, trampling each other so that 12 died and all of the others were injured. The sheep were worth $5 a head, it is alleged, and those not dying were damaged to the extent of one dollar each. Their condition became so bad on the train, it is alleged, that they were unloaded at Echo and fed and rested. Fee & Poe represent the plaintiffs.

Sonora Demands Huerta.
WASHINGTON, July 2.—Formal request for the extradition of General Huerta on various criminal charges has been presented to Governor Ferguson, of Texas, by the Villa government of Chihuahua state.

Bear to Get Bread Card.
BERLIN, July 2.—The authorities of Elberfeld are confronted with the most puzzling problem they have had to solve since the bread card became an institution in Germany—and all because of a show bear that is so funny about his food that he will eat nothing but bread.
The owner of the animal recently was haled before the lower court and fined and sentenced because he had shared his weekly portion of bread with the animal. With two months' incarceration staring him in the face, he appealed, alleging that the bear was his only means of support. A kind-hearted judge changed the sentence to a fine of 100 marks and advised the owner to apply to the president of the government in which Elberfeld lies to issue Bruin a bread card, just like any regular human being.

♦ PRESIDENT WILL SPEND ANOTHER WEEK AWAY
♦ WINDSOR, Vermont, July 2.
♦ —President Wilson plants to extend his vacation at the Harlanden house over another week. He worked several hours on state matters today but it was announced they were not connected with the sinking of the Armenian or the proposed note to England regarding interference with American commerce.

LAUREL PATTERN
in 1835
R. WALLACE
Silver Plate that resists wear

Sometimes a single stroke of the brush expresses more than an hour's labor. The plain, simple Laurel seems to set off this service—gives the pattern an unusual freshness—creates a study in simple art. We would like to have you see it.

CAN'T BE IDEAL HOMES
SAYS MISS RUBY GOODNOW

RUBY ROSS GOODNOW

NEW YORK, July 1.—There can be no ideal homes, there can be no homes of individuality and distinction, says Miss Ruby Ross Goodnow. "A home and its decoration are dependent on so many contingencies that no two houses can be alike if they are to be ideal in any way," she says. "One cannot devise a model, ideal house for first and foremost one must consider the personality of the tenant. I do not think a person can have more than one real home. If I had a beautiful home in the country I should put my prized effects there, my city home would be merely a makeshift, a place to stay."
Miss Goodnow believes that a dining room is not an essential. Instead she advocates a large living room and dining in it.

May Move Huerta.
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 2.—Efforts may be made to get General Huerta and General Orozco away from the Mexican border. This was indicated when federal authorities intimated new charges might be filed against them here that they may be removed from El Paso.

'HELP WANTED'

ASSISTED BY A FAMOUS CAST.

This picture handles in a striking way the startling fact that many employers who would be on their best behavior in a girl's home, for some reason regard her as fair prey when she enters an office as an employe. It is a drama of the humiliations that lie in wait FOR ANYBODY'S SISTER, and shows that the little working girl who needs protection is not always the one who receives it.

Come and see it; we have a cool house, wide aisles, comfortable seats, and the best pictures. What more could be desired.

SUNDAY—HAZEL DAWN in "NIOLO," a Good Comedy.
