Wife Locates Fugitive.

PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—After being a fugitive from this city for four years, and $1296 in arrears on a court order for the support of his wife and children, Albert F. Chase was arrested by Chief Deputy Sheriff Ward and Deputy Sheriff Conners, within the shadow of the court that made the order.

Chase has been missing since April, 1911, when quarter sessions court directed that he pay his wife $6 a week for the support of herself and his two children. Since that time a constant search has been maintained for Chase, but each time when he was found he disappeared before he could be arrested.

The last time Chase dodged the detectives he was found in New Castle, Del., but when the officers went to get him he had again disappeared.

The other day his wife, Clara V. Chase, was passing an office building in South Penn square, when she saw her husband enter the building in working clothes. She hurried across to the city hall and notified the sheriff's office and the arrest followed. Chase had been employed in the building as an electrician.

DEADLOCK BROKEN.

should have been and would have been a shutout had not a most unexpected and a most untimely circumstance injected itself into the sixth inning. The first two men up had been retired and Brooks had been fanned for the third out when Albrecht let the third strike pass through him, something he doesn't do very often. Brooks reached first on the play and without any hesitation dashed for second on the next ball. Then Lieuallen drew the only pass Harlan issued during the game and promptly stole second. With two down and two on, Williams smote the pill for a clean hit, scoring both men and tying up the game.

Tuerck's prettiest piece of pitching came in the eighth when Pilot Rock got men on second and third by errors with only one down. Pickett and Harlan, both good hitters, were up and the college flogger dashed their hopes by administering the knockout dose.

After Gilbert and Albrecht had struck out in the last of the ninth, the crowd settled down to watch an extra inning battle. They figured, however, without considering Clock and Royer. The former had been indulging in a kidding duel with the Athens pitcher during the game and had already picked a two-sacker and a walk off him. This time he chose a fat one and sent it into the canyon beyond left field. With his crippled foot, however, he could only turn second before Lieuallen had pegged the ball back into play. Royer's stick finished the undoing of Athens.

The game was a clean one throughout, both teams fielding fast and going through the innings without questioning the decisions of Cox and Shhrp who alternated on the bases and behind the bat. A big crowd saw the game, many autos from Athens and Pendleton swelling the attendance.

Sixth Inning.

Athens—Grindell out, Harlan to Clock, Coshow out at first, Clock to Pickett, Clock fielding the ball and Pickett covering the bag. Brooks fanned but Albrecht let third strike through him and Brooks reached first. He stole second and took third when Albrecht made bad peg to second. Lieuallen drew a walk and stole second. E. Williams drove out a single, scoring Brooks and Lieuallen and tying score. Williams took second on throw, Tuerck fanned. Two runs, one hit.

Pilot Rock—Westgate fled out to Tuerck, Pickett, safe on Brooks' error. Pickett drew throw to first from Tuerck, got between ball and first baseman and was struck in back. He took second on play but Umpire Cox called him out for interfering with the first baseman, Harlan struck out. No runs, no hits.

Seventh Inning.

Athens—Karmien singled through second, King flew out to Westgate, Stone hit by pitched ball, Grindell popped out to Gilbert and Coshow struck out. No runs, one hit.

Eighth Inning.

Athens—Brooks popped out to Harlan, Lieuallen singled to right, Williams hit into fat double play, Royer to Pickett to Clock. No runs, one hit.
Pilot Rock—Hayes safe on E. Williams' error, his throw to first drawn in Karmien off bag. Smith sacrificed the putout, Westgate bunted and was safe when Tuerck's throw pulled Karmien off bag. Westgate stole second. Pickett and Harlan struck out. No runs, no hits.

Ninth Inning.

Athens—Tuerck flew out to Royer, Karmien ditto. King popped out to Grindell. No runs, no hits.
Pilot Rock—Gilbert and Albrecht struck out, Clock made long hit to left field that might have been homer but for runner's lameness. Good for two bags. Royer scored him with single, winning game.

SENATOR BEVERIDGE AND DR. SUDEKUM PHOTOGRAPHED AT TETLOW

NEW YORK, July 12.—Former Senator Albert J. Beveridge, who was on both the German and French battlefronts in Europe, in a speech here asserted the war is not a conflict brought on by rulers and against the will of the people. "It is a war of peoples," he said. "I tried everywhere to find a socialist who was averse to carrying on the war but they were all for it, emphatically. They are making wonderful strides in democracy in the war ridden countries of Europe, and as a result it seems as though they must outstrip the United States." The photo shows the senator and Dr. Sudekum of Tetlow, Germany.
