NEW WEATHER INFORMATION AVAILABLE
Observation of Relative Humidity in Middle of the Day Added to Present Service.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—The relative humidity in the middle of the day will hereafter be included in the weather reports furnished daily by the weather bureau to the newspapers. At present observations of the relative humidity are taken at 8 o'clock in the morning and 8 o'clock in the evening, but at these times the temperature is likely to be much lower and the relative humidity much higher than in the middle of the day. An extra observation of the relative humidity will therefore be taken, probably at 2 p. m.

This additional information is expected to be not only of general interest to the public at large, but of practical value in certain branches of manufacturing. The humidity of the atmosphere plays, for example, an important part in cotton spinning, and in many textile mills it is necessary to increase it by artificial means. An observation of the relative humidity at 2 p. m. will indicate much more accurately actual working conditions than figures obtained at the beginning or end of the day.

THIS KITTEN SAILED FOR TWO YEARS ALONE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—They tell this story in shipping circles here and say it's true: When the British ship Dalgomar was abandoned off the coast of Chile in October, 1912, a black cat aboard the vessel refused to leave with the crew. The abandoned hulk drifted nearly 2000 miles and was recently sighted by a schooner off the island of Maui after almost two years buffeting by the seas. The schooner took off the cat along with Dalgomar's bell and other relics, but insurance was never collected on the vessel because it was claimed that owing to the presence of the cat, it was never entirely abandoned. The cat is said to have almost reached the end of its rat rations when rescued.

A big slump in production, about 40 per cent of hay less than last year, is reported.

Snow Hats in Juneau.
JUNEAU, Alaska, July 20.—Although clouds gathered over the city and rain threatened, Juneau's citizens refused to discard the muslins and straw hats which they have been wearing for weeks, owing to an on-ward of hot spell. The sun was shining brightly again in the afternoon. Dismal forest fires are feared.

MRS. DUKE'S SISTER HELPED TOBACCO MAN GET DIVORCE

MRS. LILLIAN DUKE

NEW YORK, July 20.—Mrs. Louise M. Ball, sister of Mrs. Lillian N. Duke, gave valuable information to James B. Duke, the tobacco millionaire, through which he obtained a divorce in 1905. It is alleged in a suit by Mrs. Ball to recover $200,000, the amount Duke is said to have agreed to pay her for the information. The action revealing this state of affairs came up in a suit started by Mrs. Ball against her one-time lawyer, W. F. Severance.

TRAVELING SALESMAN IS NOW A PREACHER

CHICAGO, July 20.—Human beings can neither be high horsed nor strong armed into heaven, according to the Rev. Archibald R. Wright, who, several weeks ago, was merely Archibald R. Wright, traveling salesman for a tea and coffee house. Rev. Wright was installed as minister of the Endeavor Presbyterian church July 4. In occupying his pulpit he declared his business training worth $100,000 as a preparation for the ministry.

"Ten thousand dollars," said Rev. Wright today, "is for the knowledge of men that I gained in hotel lobbies and passenger trains, business offices and barrooms. The other $90,000 I got for the wife I got on my travels. 'I never drink myself, but I've taken my pay for goods many a time across the bar in a combination store. To be at all successful in my business I had to acquire the faculty of getting a man's number right off the bat. Believe me, I learned to do it. My five years on the road were five years of the real thing. I learned to take men as they are with their clothes of hypocrisy off. 'Incidentally,' continued Rev. Wright, 'I learned that the day of having drinks to stand in with the trade is past and gone. I made the biggest hits with buyers to whom I said, when they hinted to me to stand treat, 'Nothing doing. My firm doesn't provide expenses for drinks. They put the money into the stuff I'm selling. That's the reason it's better and cheaper.'"

"All this means I can get at a man or a woman from his real side. There are a lot of preachers too spiritual to do this."

Austria Apologizes to U. S.
VIENNA, July 20.—Austria apologized to American Ambassador Penfield because the Neues Wiener Tagblatt printed an attack on President Wilson and the United States because of America's protest against the diver warfare of the Teutonic allies. The apology was forthcoming after the Penfield inquired whether the newspaper voiced the opinion of the Austrian government.

SIXTEEN SCIENTISTS TO WORK WITH EDISON

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Sixteen American scientists, to form with Thomas A. Edison as chairman, the advisory board for the proposed bureau of invention in the navy department, will be selected by leading scientific societies of the country. Secretary Daniels announced today he had written to the presidents of eight societies asking that two members be selected by each organization to become members of the board.

Following are the societies addressed: American Chemical Society, President Charles H. Herty, Chapel Hill, N. C.; American Institute of Electrical Engineers, President Paul M. Lincoln, Pittsburg; American Institute of Mining Engineers, President Benjamin B. Thayer, New York City; American Mathematical Society, President E. W. Brown, Yale University; American Society of Civil Engineers, President Hunter Magdonald, Nashville, Tenn.; American Society of Mechanical Engineers, President James Hartness, Springfield, Vt.; American Aeronautical Society, Acting President Frederick W. Barker, New York City; Inventors' Guild, President Edward Weston, Newark, N. J.

"After consulting eminent men in the navy and civilian life," said Mr. Daniels, in announcing his plan, "I have decided to ask eight societies having large memberships, each to select two members who will make the advisory committee. In this way I feel sure that he will have the hearty co-operation of thousands of trained experts who make up their membership. The members of these societies will naturally see to it that their eminent representatives are chosen. We will therefore obtain for the navy the direct advice of those selected to serve on the committee and also the interest of all the members of the societies who make the selection."

Mr. Daniels explained that the selection of the eight societies did not exclude other organizations of the same character which it might be found advisable to call on later, as there is no final limitation on the

Make it Easier For Baby in Summer

MANY OF THE HOT WEATHER TROUBLES CAN EASILY BE AVOIDED.

If the mother will see to it that the bowels are kept regular, much of the illness to which children are most susceptible during hot weather can be prevented.

A mild laxative, administered at regular intervals, will prove an excellent preventive of summer complaints that are caused by inactive bowels. The combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is excellent for children, being pleasant to the taste, gentle yet positive in action, and free from opiate or narcotic drug of any description. It acts naturally, without griping or other discomfort, and is altogether dependable. The cleansing of the bowels will most effectively check an attack of diarrhoea by expelling the foreign matter and poisons that irritate and inflame the tissues.

In every home a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should be on hand, ready for use when occasion requires. It costs only fifty cents a bottle and is sold in drug stores everywhere. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, well, 452 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.
