

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Back From Missouri.

Mac Foster has arrived back in Pendleton after spending four months in Missouri.

Has New Office Location.

Douglas W. Bailey, who has had law offices over the Taylor Hardware Store for some years, has moved into rooms 7, 8 and 9 in the Despain Block.

Through Sleeper Put On.

A through sleeper has been put on the run through this city between Boise and Walla Walla. It will be a big accommodation to traveling men.

Blancetts Leave in Car.

In their Cadillac auto, Dell and Bertha Blancett left today for Endicott, Washington, to visit a sister of the famous cowboy. They will also visit in Garfield and other points.

Attending Le Cornu Funeral.

Chief of Police John Kearney and wife are in Walla Walla today to attend the funeral of the late Rev. John Le Cornu who was an uncle of Mrs. Kearney. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock this morning.

Was Old School Mate.

T. F. Howard, local architect, recalls that in 1863 and 70 he was a schoolmate in Walla Walla of Robert Mays, who was killed recently near Elgin. They attended the Maxon school together.

Band Leader Here.

W. F. Beyer, leader of Beyer's cornet band of Boring, Ore., near Portland, has been here consulting with the Round-up board hoping to secure a contract to play during the Round-up. The band is to play at the Gresham fair.

Supt. Young is Back.

County Superintendent I. E. Young arrived home yesterday from Salem where he spent several weeks as a member of the state examining board. While gone he had the pleasure of hearing an address by P. P. Claxton, U. S. commissioner of education.

Will Return to the Soil.

Edgar W. Smith, state manager for the Equitable Life Assurance Society, came up this morning from Portland and will go out to his ranch at Vansycle to spend a week or ten days during harvest. His ranch is leased to George Strand and Mr. Smith expects a big yield.

Funeral this P. M.

The funeral of Howard Wilkes was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wilkes, at 415 Lillooth street. Rev. Charles Quinney of the Church of the Redeemer conducted the services. Interment was made in Olney cemetery.

Funeral This Morning.

The funeral of Gus Peterson, Coombs Canyon farmer who died at the local hospital, was held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Baker chapel, the services being conducted by Rev. Charles Quinney of the Church of the Redeemer. Interment was made in Olney cemetery.

Shriner Party Here.

An auto party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Zeigler, Mrs. Grace Becker, Guy B. Groff and Fred Stratton, all of Spokane, spent last night at the Hotel Pendleton. They had been attending the Shriners' convention in Seattle and motored home by way of Portland and Pendleton.

Body Taken to Walla Walla.

The body of little Jane Dyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Dyer, was taken this morning by auto to Walla Walla for interment. Funeral services were held at 9 o'clock this morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam R. Thompson on North Main street. Rev. Charles Quinney of the Episcopal church officiating. Quite a number of friends in autos accompanied the body to Walla Walla.

Bad Boze Make Bad Injun.

Aaron Minthorn, well known Indian who has always been counted respectable, took his first taste of "fire-water" yesterday and it acted upon him much the same as it acted upon his primitive ancestors. It transformed him into a "heap bad Injun." His wife reported his condition at police headquarters last evening and, the police being on the street, Mayor John Dyer and Street Commissioner John Heathman with two assistants, responded to the call. It took all four of them to subdue the inebriated redman who used teeth, feet, claws and fists. The street commissioner came out of the melee with a bitten finger and several others received bruises. The Indian was properly sober this morning.

Assaulted Chinaman, Alleged.

A warrant was sworn out yesterday in the justice court against Art Mansfield charging him with assault with intent to rob. The complaining witness is Eng Louie, well known Chinese proprietor of the noodle parlors in the State Hotel building. Mansfield was arrested by the police on Sunday night after the alleged offense and is now serving five days in the city jail on a disorderly conduct charge.

Hearing for Extradition.

Attorney D. W. Bailey is at Salem today presenting to Governor Withycombe the defendant's side of the case for which Walla Walla officials want to extradite W. W. Smart. Sheriff Lee Barnes has just returned to Walla Walla from an unsuccessful attempt to secure the papers from the governor. Smart is wanted in Walla Walla to answer to a charge of abandonment of a child and hopes by his attorney's presentation of his case to the governor to escape extradition.

SUPREME COURT IS FRIENDLY TO DOGS

DECISION TODAY OBEYS RULES SALEM ANTI-DOG ORDINANCE; LAWYER DISBARRED.

SALEM, Ore., July 20.—The supreme court has held unconstitutional an ordinance passed by the city council of Salem which provided dogs should not be allowed to run at large and should be killed if the owner failed to redeem them within three days. The court decreed the ordinance deprived a person of property without due process of law.

The right of Portland to levy a three per cent license tax upon the gross receipts of the Portland Gas & Coke company was upheld by the supreme court.

The court disbarred Attorney Charles W. Garland, of Portland for alleged willful deceit and misconduct. It is alleged Garland failed to account for $128.27 belonging to the state.

Former Pastor is Killed.

WEISER, Idaho, July 20.—W. H. Henderson, a former Methodist minister, was killed at his ranch in Oregon south of here, by falling from a scaffold. His neck was broken and he lived nearly an hour. He was at work on a new barn and standing on the scaffold, when he slipped and fell his feet to the ground, striking on his head and shoulders.

He was 55 years old and leaves four children, who were with him, besides a number of relatives in Portland, Ennis and other Oregon towns.

BELIEVED GOVERNMENT WILL SEND NEW PROTEST

BLANKET COMPLAINT TO BE MADE TO GREAT BRITAIN; WILL COVER COTTON.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—A conference between Senator Bankhead and President Wilson is taken as "further indication of the intention of the administration to make a blanket protest to Great Britain regarding interference with neutral commerce. This would cover interference with shipments of cotton as well as meats upon which a protest has already been decided on.

Ex-Councilman Arrested.

BAKER, Ore., July 20.—Charged with lending to themselves money which belonged to the town of Granite, I. N. Ford, Elmer Thornburg, Charles Alexander and Benjamin Austin ex-councilmen of Granite, 14 miles west of Sumpter, have been arrested and held before the Grant county court at Canyon City. The transaction is said to have occurred several months ago, and the men have never denied that they made the loan as alleged. The case probably will be taken up by the Grant county court next month.

Are you thinking of changing business? Want results. Ask Zartoons, Pastime tonight.

IF YOU HAVE FREQUENT HEAD-ACHES WHICH MEDICINES DO NOT CURE; if you see distant objects more (or less) clearly, or need to hold printed matter nearer to or further from the eyes than formerly; or need more light. If you have observed any of these things, your sight needs the aid of correctly adopted glasses to assist as well as preserve it.

Accurately fitted glasses are only possible when the sight has been scientifically tested.

We have every facility for doing this and exercise the greatest care so that you may receive the utmost benefit from wearing glasses.

A thorough examination and explanation of your condition will cost you nothing.
