Peace Body Lacks Cash.
BALTIMORE, Md., July 21.—Unless the Neutrality League of American women gets more funds for publicity work its posters, which have caused so much agitation in other cities and so little in Baltimore, will come down July 1, but please make it clear that the fight has nothing to do with it. We only had enough money to keep them on the billboards until July 1 and they would have been torn down now but for the kindness of the billposters. One of the men said he thought it would be a good plan to keep them up until the Fourth, when many people would read them and that he would try to let a few of

COMMON LABOR SCARCE BECAUSE OF THE WAR

CHICAGO, July 21.—The European war has caused a dearth of common labor in the United States, said Richard Knight, state superintendent of employment agencies in Illinois, today.

Men employed as track workers are preparing to leave to join their regiments as quickly as possible. Mr. Knight said. Thousands of Italians, Austrians and men from the Balkan states have given up railroad work within the last few weeks.

Reports indicate that private agencies are finding it extremely difficult to get common labor for big improvement jobs.

TO PRESENT CASE OF OPPRESSED FINLAND

NEW YORK, July 21.—Mme. Aino Malmborg has arrived here from Finland to lay her case before the tribunal of the United States, alleging that Russia under cover of the present war has suppressed the press and begun new persecutions of the little country. She served a prison sentence in Petrograd because her views are distasteful to the Russian authorities, and now she will plead with American women to interest themselves in her country, as well as in Belgium, Serbia and France.

More Reason To Push Harder

SPEAKING of business conditions recently, John Wanamaker said:

"People to-day are buying only three things—automobiles, wearing apparel and shoes.

"They are buying the first because they are cheap and shoes and clothing because they must be replaced."

Then he made the telling point that if manufacturers of other lines are to meet this condition they must push harder.

They must follow the aggressive methods of the large stores' They must advertise!
