Bill Out of Hospital.

Ben F. Hill, formerly of this city, recently underwent an operation for gall stones in Walla Walla and yesterday was able to leave the hospital and return home.

Creditors Name Trustee.

The creditors of Walter R. Bitney, adjudicated a bankrupt met yesterday in the office of Referee Fitz Gerald and named E. J. Davis of Free-water as trustee. His bonds were fixed at $500.

Opens New Photo Studio.

The White Studio is to be the name of a new photo studio to be conducted here in room 4 of the Association block. Charles Schmidt, proprietor, is now here, accompanied by his family and will have the studio open for patronage next Wednesday.

To Put in Clear Factory.

J. H. Martin last evening applied to the city council for permission to partition off the old Doc Evans cigar store on Main street in order that he might put in a small cigar factory. The application was granted. An application to deepen the doorway in the Oregon theater building to permit of a boothblack stand was also granted.

Supr Arne Is Here.

R. E. Arne, superintendent of the Boys & Girls' Aid Society of Portland has been here today on a business trip. He brought a child here to meet a man from Walla Walla county where the child will have a home. In the city this morning Mr. Arne visited the natorium and was very much interested in the institution. He warmly praises the pool and the spirit in which it has been established.

Thorn Hollow Bridge In.

Good news for autoists is contained in the message telephoned down from Bingham Springs this morning that the bridge over the river at Thorn Hollow has been completed. This will permit autos and other vehicles going to the springs to make the trip via the Thorn Hollow grade. Heretofore, most of the parties have crossed the river at Cayuse though a few have run the risk of fording at Thorn Hollow.

Journal Plans for Specials.

"We have already taken the matter up with the O.-W. R. & N. company of the Journal's special trains," writes A. L. Fleck, business manager of the Journal in a letter received by the Round-up this morning. "The railroad company advises that they are going to try to outdo their efforts in the past, and we hope to bring to Pendleton some up-to-the-minute specials." Only yesterday Secretary Marsh received an order for 300 grandstand tickets on each of the last two days of the 1915 Round-up from the Journal.

17 Year Old Scrip Comes In.

City scrip seventeen years old was presented to the city council last evening by J. T. Lambirth of the First National Bank with the explanation that it has been found in the strong box of a customer of the bank after lying there all these years. The scrip, dated July 1, 1898, called for $75 on the face but was registered for interest. However, Mr. Lambirth stated that the claim for interest would be waived. The scrip was made out to C. E. Wale, former cashier of the bank, but does not belong to him now. Mr. Lambirth stated, Recorder Fitz Gerald stated that his remembrance was that the city called in that issue of scrip in 1898 and there was some question as to whether the obligation was legal. The matter was referred to the city attorney and the finance committee. Some county scrip was found in the same box and, having been registered, was paid by the county court.

Son Is Born.

A baby boy was born on Tuesday at St. Anthony's hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duff.

Mule Cuts Leg.

A mule belonging to one of Pendleton Bros. delivery teams, this morning kicked over the single trees and ripped its leg open for a considerable distance, making a sound that will disable it for some time.

Wifebeater Gets Thirty Days.

Justice of the Peace Joe H. Parkes this morning sentenced Alfred L. Sherman to 30 days in the county jail, following his plea of guilty to assaulting his wife.

Combine Turned Over.

Report comes in from the Elmer McCormack ranch north of town that the combined harvester turned over yesterday on a sidehill when the lever refused to work. The machinery was damaged to quite an extent.

Suit to Collect.

An attachment suit was filed today against the J. A. Schmidt Mercantile Co., by J. H. Fisher to whom Mason, Ehrman & Co., of Portland had assigned a claim of $67 George W. Caldwell is plaintiff's attorney.

Adams Baby Dies Here.

Erma Des Voigne, four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Des Voigne of Adams died at 11 o'clock last night at St. Anthony's hospital where it had been brought for treatment. Inflammatory rheumatism with complications proved fatal to the child. The body will be taken to Athena for burial.

First Natatorium Accident.

While in bathing at the public natatorium this morning Lester Hurst, of the Tullis dairy, sustained a painful wound when he caught his foot on a bolt on the spring board. A gash was cut on top of the foot and several stitches were necessary to close it. The offending bolt was cut down at once to prevent any further accidents from the same source.

Teddy Has New Gun.

Teddy Hauswirth, veteran deer-slayer of the city and fox of all winged game, is preparing himself for a big kill. This morning he received a made to order gun which his friends declares outwits the kaiser's Krupp. It is ornately mounted and engraved and is calculated to so dazzle the beasts of the field and the birds of the air that they will be easy prey.

Administrator Is Named.

C. A. Johnson has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late John A. Peterson, Coombs Canyon farmer who died on the 19th. The estate consists of 150 acres of land valued at about $550, according to the petition. Deceased left no known relatives though before death he stated that 20 years ago he had a sister living in Denver but had not heard from her since.

Mrs. Williamson Is Dead.

Mrs. W. P. Williamson, wife of W. P. Williamson who has the street sprinkling contract, died at 1 o'clock this afternoon at her home, 221 Mission street, of tuberculosis. She has been quite ill for the past month and death was not unexpected. She is survived by her husband, four sons, Guy of Pasadena, Calif., George of Prosser, Wn., Ed and Harold of this city and one daughter, Mrs. Orville Williams of this city. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Cooler Weather Arrives.

The weather prophet in Portland was correct yesterday when he predicted cooler weather for Pendleton today. The 104 altitude record of yesterday, the maximum this afternoon being 86. The drop has been quite perceptible all day. Last night proved cooler than the night before, too, the minimum reached being 56 whereas the night before it was 64. Reports from the west end of the county have it that out on the sagebrush land the thermometer went up to about 120. At Milton 100 was the high mark.

Wool Exhibit Is Forwarded.

Today the Umatilla county wool exhibit, which E. E. Cleaver and Secretary Cranston of the Commercial association have been collecting with the aid of sheepmen and the Pendleton Woolen Mills, was boxed and made ready for shipment to San Francisco where it will become a part of the eastern Oregon exhibit. There are seventeen fleeces in the grease, each one done up separately, a package of scoured wool and a package of wool in the various stages of manufacture. This last was furnished by the Pendleton Woolen Mills. A shipment of grains is also being prepared and will be ready for forwarding soon. Messrs. Cleaver and Cranston made a big swing south of Pendleton yesterday and secured some good samples.

Many Go to Malheur.

A Pendleton colony is being established in the northern part of Malheur county as local residents turn homesteaders and file on land in that section of the state. Several families have already settled there and others are now preparing to leave. The land which is principally grazing land and all dry, lies between Hrogan and Malheur City. Some time ago Dr. Thos. C. Ohmart filed upon land there and during the spring moved his family on to H. L. D. Lyvade and family moved to the same vicinity about a month ago and at the same time Harry Wheelock resumed his position at the postoffice to turn homesteader. T. F. Wheelock, another employe of the postoffice, is now taking his vacation and tomorrow will take his family to the home-stand in the same vicinity to establish them there. He will return to Pendleton at the expiration of his vacation. Grover Pound of the Taylor Hardware Co. is also moving his family there and will build him a cabin during his vacation. A number of other local families have taken land in the same locality.

FARMERS WANT GRAIN MARKET BROADENED

WALLA WALLA, July 22.—The farmers' union today endorsed the state-wide movement to ask the railroads to reduce freight charges on wheat to eastern and middle western points in order to open up and broaden the wheat market. The local union appointed a committee to revise its constitution.

Harvest was resumed at many places in the valley today, most of the grain drying soon after the rain ceased. In some districts, however, crews will not start till Monday.

What Girl Bathers Must Not Wear.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Modesty is now the watchword for the Coney Island bathing beaches. Captain Glidden, in charge of sleuths who have been patrolling the beach with measuring sticks and binoculars, has specified the sort of suits women will not wear hereafter. He has given scores of warnings and declared arrests would be made in the future. Here is what Blidden banishes from the beach:

- One-piece suits. Knitted jerseys with open sleeves. Skirts that do not reach the knees. Garments without a bathing suit over them. The "bathing sock," which shows the bather's dimpled knees.

YOU Mr. Laboring Man, That Knows the Value of Every Dollar You Earn.

Those dollars come mighty hard and go mighty easy. Let us reason together and get acquainted with our modern business methods.

Buying immense quantities of high grade merchandise to supply 83 big busy stores (and it takes lots of it to go around), paying cash on the spot, we secure lower prices, besides larger cash discounts, than any one store merchant can possibly hope for.

Selling for cash only, and keeping our operating expense down to the lowest possible mark, enables us to sell you goods at prices that have no competition. BETTER LOOK INTO THIS.
