Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Matlock to Alaska.
Wesley N. Matlock left last night for Portland and will go on to Alaska to look after property interests there.

Another Grass Fire.
Another grass fire on the south hill between Tustin and Bluff streets called out the fire department yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. No damage was done.

Taken to Sanitorium.
Mrs. Charles Baxter, Jr., formerly Miss Hazel Nolen of this city, has been taken to the Open Air Sanitorium near Portland for treatment, according to word received by her friends here.

Takes Prisoners to Portland.
U. S. Deputy Marshal Dave Fuller left on No. 17 today with Jack Joyce and Joe Parsons for Portland, the two men being held to the federal grand jury on a charge of introducing liquor on the reservation.

Lowell to Repair House.
Judge S. A. Lowell has taken out a permit to repair and remodel the old Lowell home on Johnson street. The building will be raised and a new concrete foundation put under it. The cost of the repairs will be about $1,500.

Sturtevant Case Again Adjourned.
With the conclusion of testimony yesterday in the Sturtevant will contest, the case was again adjourned. It will be resumed again just as soon as certain witnesses can be located and brought in.

Recorder Gets Leave of Absence.
The council last evening granted Recorder Thom Fitz Gerald a two weeks' leave of absence to begin August 1. He will join his wife at Lehman Springs. During his absence John Hadley, Jr., will act as recorder and police judge.

Chicago Wants a Round-up.
The Round-up association within the past few days has received a letter and a telegram from Chicago parties stating that they want to put on a wild west show in that town and asking the local association to put them in touch with some one who can stage it for them.

Pearce Is Reappointed.
Local Knights of Columbus have been notified that J. H. Pearce of La Grande, has again been appointed district deputy of the Knights of Columbus for eastern Oregon. This makes the fourth successive appointment Mr. Pearce has received. The district comprises all of the state east of The Dalles.

Dogs Develop Rabies; Killed.
Some time ago three dogs on the farm of Herbert Thompson on the reservation fought with a coyote which evidently was afflicted with the rabies. All three of the dogs developed symptoms of hydrophobia, having been bitten by the coyote, and have been killed, the last two within the past few days.

Left $15,000 Estate.
Carl Hoeft, well known farmer who died in this city July 2, left an estate valued at $15,000 approximately, according to the petition filed today by his widow. The estate consists of 720 acres of farm land valued at $7200 and something over $7000 in money and bank certificates. He died without leaving a will. His heirs are his widow and nine children.

Deserted; Wants Divorce.
Alleging that her husband, William R. Said, deserted her on April 28, 1913, at Hermiston, Lela L. Said today filed suit for divorce in the circuit court through her attorney, W. J. Warner of Hermiston. She also asks for the custody of their two minor daughters, ages 14 and 9. The couple were married in Platte City, Mo., on June 25, 1899.

Morrison Funeral Held.
The funeral of the late Charles Morrison was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Folsom chapel, Rev. Charles Quinney of the Church of the Redeemer conducting the services. Many of the friends which he had made during a 15 year residence in Pendleton were present. Interment was made in Diney cemetery. Deceased was born in Ohio on April 24, 1869. Besides his wife he is survived by a mother, two brothers, a half-brother and a half-sister, all living in Illinois.

Start on Paving Contract.
Supt. C. P. A. Lonergan of the Warren Construction Co., has started work upon the contract for the paving of West Alta, Chestnut, Garden, Willow, Webb and Water streets. The gutters and curbs are now being put in and, just as soon as the water commission puts in its new mains on the streets, the paving plant now in Walla Walla will be moved over and the laying of the gravel bitumithic commenced. The Alta street pavement will be laid first in order that it may be finished before the Round-up.

He Who Laughs Last, Etc.
Jack Robinson, who lost his shoes yesterday afternoon while reclining in a barber chair, figures he has the last laugh on his side. After learning that the perpetrator of the joke was T. F. O'Brien, he sent a messenger boy to Mr. O'Brien's house to secure a pair of the O. W. agent's shoes. The messenger was successful and Robinson pawned the "kicks" for a dollar and sent the pawn check to the owner of the shoes. O'Brien now swears he will replevin the shoes by court process and the pawnbroker will have to look to the laundryman for his dollar. The shoes, he says, are not worth a dollar anyway as his wife, suspicious of a joke had given the messenger boy a worn-out pair.
