

CAN I DO IT?

Gen. G. O. Farther

DO WHAT? Reduce the stocks of The Peoples Warehouse to normal condition in the next two weeks, sell thousands of dollars worth of the best merchandise ever offered to the people of this vicinity.

HOW AM I GOING TO DO IT?

By co-operating with The Peoples Warehouse in giving unusual values and telling the buying public about it in a very frank way.

I believe there are so many thrifty men and women in Pendleton and vicinity that will appreciate an opportunity to make their money go farther in the purchase of wearables that the time stated will be sufficient for The Peoples Warehouse to get their stocks, which are far too big for this time of year, down to the level.

Will you stretch the purchasing power of your money? If your purchases continue for the two weeks in proportion to what they were Saturday I will have more than accomplished my purpose.

FIRE CAUSES GARY PLAN TO BE TAKEN UP AT TROY, N. Y.

NEW SYSTEM OF EDUCATIONAL WORK IS GIVEN HIGH PRAISE BY EXPERTS.

Idea is to Make School Buildings and Equipment Serve the Children all the Time—Old Time Restrictions as to Noise are Removed—Develops Initiative.

TROY, N. Y., July 31.—It seems that what the city school system of Troy needed was a fire. Since the fire that destroyed one of the grammar schools December 23 there has been a great improvement and that not by reason of building a new and better building, either, but by reorganizing the school work of the city on the Gary plan.

The day before the fire, William Wirt, head of the Gary schools, had been one of a group of distinguished educators conferring with Supt. Eldred and Dr. William Chandler Smith, vocational education director of the Troy schools. He was on his way home but Eldred and Smith wired for him to come back. He said, under the Gary plan, he could make room for the 500 children of the burned grammar school in the big central school building—already thought to be used to capacity.

"When the term opened," said Dr. Smith, "we had in the Central school, not 800 regular pupils and a few hundred part time and evening students, but nearly 1400 day students. Moreover, under the Wirt dual system we found we had room for 1800 to 2,000 children, giving them all a full program of work, study and play.

"The wonderful thing about it was the instant economy achieved, the per capita cost of operating was cut almost in two.

"The auditorium, for example, one of the most expensive rooms in the building, had formerly been in use for about thirty minutes a day. The rest of the time it was empty, unproductive, earning nothing. Now it was a hive of industry all day long. Before the shops and the domestic science rooms were used only a few hours a day; now they were in constant use.

"It was the same with the gymnasium and the playground, all other departments, before working half time, now earning their living every minute of the day. Talk of efficiency, that building speaks itself. It is an object lesson to the town.

"We employ no more teachers than before, nor do we work them any harder than before. We transferred several of the classroom teachers to auditorium and gymnasium service, and we assigned other teachers to special classes."

"How did the teachers like the new plan? Coming so suddenly, it would not be strange if some of them found it difficult to adjust themselves."

Dr. Smith smiled. "They thought it was going to be difficult," he replied. "You know what the regents examinations are, and how teachers begin to brace themselves for it along the first of the year. For a few days after the change was made I used to hear teachers exclaiming, 'What shall we do about the examination? I shall never get my children ready; in all this confusion I know they'll all fail.'"

"Well, curiously enough, when the examinations were over it was found that more children had passed than had passed before in those two schools. It was a remarkable record they made. Hardly anybody failed. The fact is, the children were so stimulated by the new life of the school, they were so inspired by the richness of the new system of administration, that they found it easy to study."

"They didn't find freedom demoralizing then?"

"Demoralizing? That depends on what you call demoralization. Sometimes teachers visiting the school express horror at the noise in the halls between classes. But I say to them that there is nothing improper in a certain amount of noise in a school building, provided the noise is made at the right time.

"Just now, I tell them, there is no school here. For five minutes the business of the children is to change classes. While they are doing that I want them to relax. I want them to talk. I want them to stop on their way, and I have bulletins of every sort pinned to the walls at intervals to catch their attention. That kind of thing quickens the intelligence, frees the mind and creates initiative.

"We hope, at least, that we can make all our school buildings serve the children, not a few hours a day, nine months in the year, but all the time. The children deserve this much. I am certain, that the school shall be open to their needs at any time of their waking life."

THE VILLAGE RULE.
"What are the speed regulations in this village?" asked the motorist of a small boy by the wayside.

"Cough up 10c every time you meet a man with a tin star on his chest," replied the truthful lad.

AUTO INCREASING CHURCH ATTENDANCE
OAKLAND, July 30.—"The automobile has done wonders in bringing the farmer to the house of God," said Rev. Chas. F. Chaifan of Boise, Idaho, in an address delivered before the Lord's day congress in session here.

"The gasoline car," he said, "has improved church attendance and Sabbath observance in the cow countries. The automobile has made it easy for the farmer to attend church and he has acquired the habit."

Chas. Franklin Thwing, president of Western Reserve university, Cleveland, Ohio, addressed the delegates on "The Sunday problem of the toiler" and Dr. Geo. W. Grannis, general field secretary of the Lord's day alliance, put in a plea for a country-wide Sunday rest for letter carriers.

HERE IS A NEW SONG TOMMY ATKINS SINGS TO TUNE OF "TIPPERARY"

ATLANTA, Ga., July 30.—M. Paul Giraud of this city, in receipt of a letter from his father in Calais who writes of the latest developments in the fighting around that center. M. Giraud's father states that Tommy Atkins with his unflinching humor has composed a song which goes to the tune of Tipperary, taking as its subject "Kaiser Billie."

The song which, according to M. Giraud of Calais, is a decided hit, is as follows:
"It's a long way to get to Calais;
It's a long way to go;
It's the wrong way through little Belgium.
The wrongest way we know;
Goodby Kaiser Billie,
Farewell D mein herr—
It's a long, long way to St. Helena,
But your home's right there."

VOICES

Among the Pendleton people spending the weekend at Bingham Springs were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Couzza, Mrs. E. F. Averill and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Nesmith Ankeny, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonney, Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Ingram, Dr. L. D. Idleman, Misses Edna Zimmerman and Edna Thompson, C. M. Bishop, H. D. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Murphy and family and Miss Mary Brennan.

Dr. and Mrs. Guy S. Holsington and little daughter, Marian, left Saturday for Hildaway Springs. Mrs. Holsington and daughter will spend a month there while Dr. Holsington will go to Portland to attend the convention of osteopaths.

Misses Rose and Myrtle Ross and Daphne Stewart left Saturday for the Ross ranch at Nye for an outing of a few weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. David B. Hill spent Sunday in Walla Walla.

Miss Jean Anderson and Miss Edith Daubner have returned to Pendleton after attending the summer school of the Monmouth normal. Other Umatilla county people who attended the summer school and returned last week are Miss Celia Armstrong of Milton and J. C. Bowman of Nolin.

Miss Anna Kiffe and Miss Iva Black left during the week-end for San Francisco to attend the exposition.

Miss Margaret McKenna left Saturday night for her home in Portland after spending an enjoyable fortnight as the guest of her sister, Mrs. James Johns, Jr.

The swimming craze, which has seized Pendleton since the opening of the public natatorium, found expression in a novel diversion introduced Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Lyman G. Rice at an informal sewing party at which she was hostess. It consisted of a guessing contest in which the guests were required to display their familiarity with terms used in aquatic sports. Miss Mildred Berkeley qualified as the best authority and was awarded the honors.

The guests of Mrs. Rice included the Misses Edith and Claire Baley, Leura Jerard, Mildred Berkeley, Jessie Purdy, Helen and Mary Johns, Jean Reiser, Zella Thompson, Mildred Finnell, Margaret Colquhoun, Leta Livermore, Margaret Lowell and Mrs. Omer E. Smith, Mrs. James Johns, Jr., and Mrs. Merle R. Chessman.

In honor of the fourth birthday of her little granddaughter, Vera Leek, Mrs. W. L. Bowlsby entertained about a dozen little folk Saturday afternoon on the porch of her home, 211 Auro street. The porch was beautifully decorated in red roses and other cut flowers. After enjoying games, the little people were treated to ice cream and cake. Little Miss Mayfan Vurpellet assisted the hostess.

The Delphian Club will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the council room of the city hall for the purpose of conducting a sample study lesson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vert returned yesterday from Meacham where they spent two weeks.

Mrs. G. W. Lees and small daughter Vera, left Saturday evening to spend the weekend in Walla Walla.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. McKinney and little son, Billy, returned Saturday from Meacham where they spent a vacation of two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Johns and son, Tom, returned yesterday from their farm near La Grande. They stopped at Meacham en route home.

Mrs. Dean Tatom entertained informally Saturday afternoon at her home on West Court street. On last Tuesday afternoon she was also a hostess to a number of ladies.

SHEEP BUSINESS IS THRIVING; NEW PLAN PROVES SUCCESSFUL

PRESIDENT OF STATE WOOL-GROWERS SAYS GREAT SHORTAGE EXISTS IN WALLAWA.

High Mountain Feed Promises to Be Good—Bedding Out System Found Beneficial to Sheep—Herders Agree It Is Better Than the Old Way.

In reporting the Wallawa county wool aples in the National Wool Grower, Fred W. Falconer gives the following regarding the sheep industry there:

There will be about sixty thousand coarse lambs shipped from this county this fall and while the lambs did not come off the spring ranges as fat as the sheep owners expected them to be, we hope we will still be able to make them prime in time to ship this fall.

Our high mountain feed promises to be the best we have ever had and we have inaugurated the bedding-out system in handling the sheep in this county. Those of us who tried it last year found that we could greatly improve the quality of our lambs by doing this. I mean by the bedding-out system that we do not bring the sheep to camp every evening, but allow them to camp wherever night overtakes them. Most of the herd-owners that have tried this have agreed that this is the much better way to handle them.

Wallowa county is very short of sheep. I do not think there is over sixty-five thousand sheep in this county, not counting the lambs, and I doubt very much whether they will ever exceed this number in the future, although the sheep business has been a very paying proposition to the sheepmen of this county this year, and we think the prospects are very bright for the future.

Lambs have been contracted for fall delivery in this county for five dollars and seventy-five cents per hundredweight. Some February lambs have been sold for July delivery for six and one-half cents per pound and six cents has been offered for March lambs delivered in August. There has not been any contracting for ewes so far, but the demand will be good for young ewes later on.

The Clerk Guaranteed It.

"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks, 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.
