Salem Has New Dog Law.
SALEM, Ore., Aug. 6.—The city council has passed a stringent dog ordinance and fanciers are preparing to petition for a referendum election. The ordinance is virtually the same as the one declared unconstitutional by the supreme court recently on a technicality.

The ordinance provides for the impounding of dogs found on the street that are not on leash. To recover an animal after the first impounding a fee of $2 will be charged and for subsequent ones $4 will be the charge. After a certain length of time if the animal is not redeemed it is to be killed. The ordinance declared unconstitutional contained a provision for the killing of impounded animals without notifying the owners. The supreme court, citing that dogs are regarded by law as personal property, held that the provision was faulty in that it gave the city the right to take property without due process of law.

PACKERS RAISE PRICE OF SWINE

(Courtesy Monday's Journal.)
PORTLAND, Ore.—Packers paid an advance of 15c for hogs on the open market at North Portland today with purchases as high as $7.30 for tops. While there was quite a fair run, the big totals of last Monday were not reached and this in itself was a factor of importance in forcing the price.

Seemingly there is not so much bearishness in the general swine situation through the country as some interests would indicate. The fact that prices advanced after every decline in the east indicates that the situation there is good despite all efforts of packing interests to get away with more profits.

Eastern markets were generally 5c to 10c higher for hogs this morning.

General hog market range:
Best light ..... $7.20@7.30
Medium light ..... 7.10@7.15
Good to heavy ..... 6.80@7.00
Rough to heavy ..... 5.50@6.00

Cattle Run is Better.
Somewhat better run of cattle put in appearance at North Portland over Sunday. Total movement included 1224 head compared with 752 last Monday, 1194 a year ago and 1067 head this same day two years ago.

In some portions the cattle market was soft at North Portland, when the week's trade opened. Prices were down about 2c. Killers were not in much hurry to take hold.

Eastern market for cattle were steady to weak and lower this morning.

General cattle market range:
Select steers ..... $6.50@6.75
Best hay fed steers ..... 6.25@6.50
Good to choice ..... 6.00@6.25
Ordinary to fair ..... 5.00@5.75
Best cows ..... 4.90@5.25
Good to prime ..... 4.50@4.75
Select bulls ..... 4.50@4.75
Fancy bulls ..... 4.25
Ordinary bulls ..... 2.50@3.50
Best calves ..... 7.00@7.50

Mutton Situation Quiet.
There was a very small run of mutton in the yards at North Portland overnight. Total movement was but 888 head compared with 4024 last week and 3947 head a year ago.

General mutton and lamb situation was showing a steady tone during the early day's trade.

Eastern mutton markets were steady to strong and high during the morning session.

General shorn mutton market:
Choice spring lambs ..... $6.15@6.25
Common spring lambs ..... 5.75@5.90
Choice yearling wethers ..... 5.00@5.50
Good yearlings ..... 4.75@5.00
Old wethers ..... 4.75@5.00
Choice light ewes ..... 4.50@4.60
Good ewes ..... 3.75@4.00
Rough heavy ewes ..... 3.50@3.60

Dog Leads Nurse Home.
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 7.—Wanda, the Polish nursemaid of the Mahler household, of Darby, has demonstrated to the family that, while she can speak no English and doesn't know one Darby street from another, she can think herself out of any difficulty once she gets lost.

One evening recently Wanda was instructed to take the family's product possession, Minnie, a 15-pound incubator baby, out for an airing.

Wanda was so intent on looking after baby's personal interests that she got lost. She saw names on streets, but they all looked alike, and she was equally unable to get assistance from the few persons she met.

As night fell, she decided she simply must get home, so she set her mind to work on the problem. At last a yellow dog came along.

Wanda had seen the dog around the Mahler home, and she concluded that if she followed him she would get back into the Mahler neighborhood.

She whistled to the dog and patted him and tried to explain her difficulty to him in Polish, but he didn't understand. Like all Darby dogs, however, he was willing to be sociable. He was paying a series of evening calls and he thought Wanda and the baby wanted to go around with him.

He ran this way and that, stopped at times to scrutinize the heavens, studied the trees and fences and here and there ran into a yard and paid his respects to a brother dog. Nurse and the baby followed him.

At midnight the whole town was up and hunting for the lost baby. Men with lanterns peered into dark alleys, while women waited anxiously.

Minutes seemed hours at the Mahler home. Reports were coming in from all sides that nothing had been seen or heard of the nurse girl and baby. Finally, there was a racket on the front porch made by the dog, the girl and the baby.

Women Fight Fire Alone.
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 7.—Three women, deserted by nearly all the men in the house, who scurried half-clothed into the street, fought a fire early one morning recently in an apartment at 1302 Spring Garden street, and held the flames in check until the fire engines arrived.

When the fire was under control, the police said, two of the men returned and offered their assistance. One of the three women, 17-year-old Jennie Mertha, a nursemaid, first fought her way through smoke and flames and carried her charge, Richard Bradford, 4 years old, to safety. Mrs. Matilda Bradford, his mother, fainted from terror and could not be aroused. By heroic efforts the nursemaid, Mrs. Mary E. Edwards, 55 years old, and very frail, proprietress of the house, and her assistant, Mrs. Florence Marker, kept the fire from spreading to the room where Mrs. Bradford lay unconscious. The blaze it was thought started from spontaneous combustion.

Cabinet Asked to Stay.
TOKIO, Aug. 10.—The elder statesmen have recommended to Emperor Yoshihito that the cabinet, headed by Count Okuma, as premier, be requested to remain in office unconditionally.

This decision was communicated by Prince Oyama and Field Marshal Yamagata to Count Okuma, who said he would take up with his colleagues the question of withdrawing his resignations.

Lord Kitchener and Premier Asquith on Battle Front in France

Lord Kitchener. Premier Asquith.

Lord Kitchener, who runs away from photographers in London, permitted one of them to take this picture of him and the premier of England being introduced to General Drubbel, commander of the second division of the Belgian army on the battle front in France. The Belgian is shown shaking hands with the British war minister while he is presented by General Bridges.

Pearl to America Peared.
HARRISBURG, Aug. 7.—Hudson Maxim, inventor of high explosives and war materials and advocate of the high-power gun as a means of insuring peace, told 200 members of the Chamber of Commerce here that there is a possibility that this country may be invaded by a foreign power after the close of the European war, and he urged immediate preparations. He did not say what country might make the invasion.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

USE GRANDMA'S SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR REMEDY AND NOBODY WILL KNOW.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brushing at home is messy and out of date. Now, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two it becomes beautifully dark, glossy and abundant.
