

HOG MARKET IS IN GOOD SHAPE

(Courtesy Wednesday's Journal.)
 PORTLAND, Ore.—Hog market conditions continue to reflect improvement at most American stockyard centers. Only a handful of stuff arrived on the local market today, therefore values were not even tested. However the sales at the recent advances indicate a continuance of the improved feeling here.

Eastern markets generally showed a fractional advance for swine at the opening of the market this morning.

General hog market range:
 Best light $7.50@7.80
 Medium light 7.10@7.15
 Good to heavy 6.80@7.00
 Rough to heavy 5.50@6.00

Sheep Market.
 While a fair tone continues for steers of top quality at North Portland, the market for cows is rather weak and dull and somewhat out of line with steer prices.

There was a small run of cattle reported in the market overnight but buying did not start brisk, although general trade conditions showed no change.

Cattle market was considered steady at most eastern stockyard points this morning.

General cattle market range:
 Select steers $6.50@6.75
 Best hay fed steers 6.25@6.35
 Good to choice 6.00@6.25
 Best cows 4.50@5.25
 Select bulls 4.50@4.75
 Fancy bulls 4.25
 Ordinary bulls 2.50@3.50
 Best calves 7.00@7.50

No Mutton Arrives.
 Aside from the nominal offerings of yesterday, there have been no mutton or lamb supplies reported in the North Portland yards since Monday.

General mutton and lamb trade conditions are considered steady.

At eastern points mutton and lamb

 THE DALLIES, Ore., Aug. 12.—N. J. Shuman, representative in congress for the second congressional district, departed from The Dailies on an automobile tour of every one of the 17 counties in his district. His object is to view all mail routes, irrigation projects, etc., and get first-hand information from the homesteader.

Because the railroads do not touch all parts of the district, the representative bought an automobile in which to make this tour of inspection. The central part of the state will be toured first, Sherman, Crook, Jefferson and Lake being the counties to be visited first, and then Mr. Shuman will go to the southern counties.

The Clerk Guaranteed It.
 "A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks, 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Ohio Village Sacrificed.
 DAYTON, O., Aug. 12.—In line with the plans for prevention of future floods, such as wrought disaster to this city and the Miami valley in March, 1913, the entire village of Osborn, Greene county, with its population of more than 1000, will be wiped from the face of the earth, to make room for a reservoir.

The flood conservation commission has perfected plans for acquiring all the property of the village at a cost of approximately $1,500,000. Property owners have agreed to the terms.

Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
 "I never hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Sol Williams merchant, Jesse, Tenn. "I sell more of it than of any other preparation of like character. I have used it myself and found it gave me more relief than anything else I have ever tried for the same purpose." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Postoffice Will Exhibit.
 VANCOUVER, Wash., Aug. 12.—The Vancouver postoffice will have an interesting exhibit at the Columbia river interstate fair this year. The exhibit will show the public how to use the parcel post system, how to wrap and address packages, giving the different rates, and showing the wonderful possibilities of the system.

There is a possibility that a postoffice substation will be established on the grounds and all mail handled for the fair during fair week, September 6-12, there.

Despondency Due to Indigestion.
 "About three months ago when I was suffering from indigestion which caused headache and dizziness and made me feel tired and despondent, I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Geo. Horn, Macedon, N. Y. "This medicine proved to be the very thing I needed, as one day's treatment relieved me greatly. I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they rid me of this trouble." EUROPE'S WOMEN MUST BE DEMOCRATIC TO BUILD UP COUNTRY AFTER WAR

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Miss Betty Lee, grandniece of General Robert E. Lee, and a cousin of Patrick Henry of oratorical fame, believes that the women of Europe can take a lesson from the women of the confederacy after the civil war. Being a southerner and a relative of the southern idol Miss Lee of course had to draw an analogy to the civil war. She says that the mistake which the women of the south made, and a mistake which all but ruined the country was the lack of democracy and incentive to work. To rehabilitate a country after a war, in her opinion requires the forgetting of all social distinction and the buckling down to real hard work. True democracy and work is Miss Lee's recipe. She herself has plenty of social position, but is inclined to work. "I couldn't live on Uncle Robert's reputation," she said. "So I came to New York and looked for work."

She is now an entertainer in society and is spending her time this summer amusing the society colony at Newport. Later on she intends to go into musical comedy.

"I like the pep and go of the northerners," she said. "Our girls down south are beginning to absorb the northern idea. They no longer are willing to sit around and have the men make love to them. They want to get out and work. do things. That will be the salvation of Europe. Many women who never did a useful thing in their lives are working now over there, and they will continue to work even after peace is declared."

A PENDLETON INTERVIEW.
 Mr. Knight Tells His Experience.
 The following brief account of an interview with a Pendleton man four years ago and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

G. W. Knight, retired farmer, 513 Franklin street, Pendleton, says: "For eight or ten years I was troubled by pains through my back and kidneys and sometimes in my sides. I had to get up several times at night to pass the kidney secretions and there was a great deal of sediment in them, that looked like brickdust. I tried a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon relieved the backache and regulated the action of my kidneys." (Statement given May 17, 1910.)

Over two years later Mr. Knight said: "All I said about Doan's Kidney Pills when I recommended them several years ago, holds good. You may continue to publish my statement for the benefit of other kidney sufferers."
