

BRITISH LABOR WILL HAVE SOMETHING TO SAY AFTER THE WAR

FOR THE PRESENT IT IS WORKING HAND IN HAND WITH THE GOVERNMENT.

English Nation Must be Saved and Differences Are Now Being Declared. Noted Leader of the British Socialists—But War in Future Must Be Made Impossible.

BY WILBUR S. FORRESTER.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
LONDON, Aug. 13.—(By Mail.)—"British labor is today working hand in hand with the government to save the nation. That, for the moment, is the status of British labor. But—after it is all over British labor will have something to say to the British government."

"This was today the unqualified statement to the United Press of Ramsey MacDonald, member of parliament and leader of the British socialists."

The "something" that British labor will have to say to the government after the war, according to MacDonald, is that "war is unnecessary."

and the elements that make war possible must be wiped out."

"But in the meantime," continued MacDonald, "British labor has come to the stage of realization that the government must be helped out of its difficulties and inevitable British labor must forget the past and look to the future by helping the government fight for its existence."

British trades union members and leaders are now in khaki by thousands and tens of thousands are putting in hard days in war munition factories and other government work, declared MacDonald.

"Do you mean that labor henceforth will overlook all its industrial grievances and postpone these grievances and strikes until after the war?" was asked.

"For the present labor is forced to give in. It is inevitable at this time," answered MacDonald.

Labor leaders do not object to Walter Long's national registry bill requiring all persons in England be between the ages of 15 and 65 to declare their fitness for war work, but they look upon it as something that may lead to a form of conscription, according to MacDonald.

"This will embrace the provision of compulsory registration and lays down certain penalties. I hardly think it will result in conscription but in the hands of a clever minister it can be brought around and twisted to assume practically the same form. British labor cannot object to this because its hands are tied by the penalties exacted, but the workmen of this country will violently object to absolute bald military conscription because it is unnecessary. The government has been informed of the workmen's intention, and that is to stay in the fight and help save the country. When the country is saved the workmen will say what he has to say."

He hardly attempts any national tie-up even in the event of impending military conscription but would oppose such an issue in every other possible way.

University Chicago Ball Team to Japan

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—The University of Chicago baseball team, with Coach Harlan O. Page and Associate Professor Chester Whitney Wright, of the department of political economy, left August 3 on the "Oriental Limited" for Japan, where they will take part in three international series of games.

The party is scheduled to sail on the SS "Monongah" of the Pacific Mail Line, Wednesday, August 25. A stopover of ten days will be made in the Hawaiian Islands, where a series of games will be played with the Oahu Baseball League, which is composed of Chinese, Portuguese, Hawaiian and United States service teams.

On September 10 the party will leave Honolulu on the "Shinyo Maru," arriving in Nippon about September 21. From Yokohama the team will go to Tokyo, where headquarters will be established for a month's visit.

The three international series of games to be played will be against the three leading universities of Japan—Waseda, Kelo, and Meiji. Professor Iso Abe, the father of Japanese baseball, has sent word that the first game will be played on their national holiday, Friday, September 24.

The party includes: Laureston G. Gray (capt.), Paul R. Desjardins, Edward F. Kimmiller, Fletcher A. Catron, Ernest D. Cavin, Robert N. McConnell, J. Edward Cole, Norman G. Hart, Roland H. George, David Wiedemann, Abraham H. Rudolph, and Harlan O. Page (pitcher).

Coach Page who was famous as captain of the football team and pitcher on the baseball team in his undergraduate days at the university, where he graduated in 1910, was a member of the team that visited Japan five years ago and won a remarkable series of victories. Mr. Page will return with the team in December.

Professor Chester W. Wright, who will accompany the team as a representative of the university faculty, will remain with them until they leave China on their way home. He then expects to spend a month and a half traveling through China, whence he goes to India, with possibly a short side trip to Java on the way. After three months in India, Burma and Ceylon Professor Wright may return home by the way of Egypt and the Mediterranean or across the Pacific. He expects to be back at the university for his regular work in political economy at the opening of the summer quarter in 1916.

ATTORNEY WOULD GUARD RIGHTS TO TIDE LANDS

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 13.—In answer to an inquiry from the state land board as to whether a sale of tide lands in Multnomah and Hood River counties to the O. W. R. & N. company, might not conflict in some way with fishing or other rights in the vicinity and if there were any objections to advertising the lands for sale, the company having made application for them, Attorney General Brown has addressed a letter to the board. He says that while he has no means of knowing if any fishing rights conflict, he wishes to suggest that inasmuch as it would mean the turning over of a large area to the transportation company it might be well for the state to hold tide lands below low water mark against the time when some of it will be needed for public purposes.

The attorney general says there is also some doubt if the legislature intended that the transportation companies could apply for and purchase lands not needed for rights of way or other purposes directly connected with their transportation business.

Permanent Muscular Strength cannot exist where there is not blood strength. Young men giving attention to muscular development should bear this in mind. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives blood strength and builds up the whole system.—Adv.

Auto Company in Need of Agent to Cover This County

THREE WELL KNOWN MACHINES LACK REPRESENTATIVES IN UMATILLA.

Here is a chance for some one to get the Umatilla county agency for three well known automobiles. The Daimler-Benz Auto Co. of Portland, distributors of the National, Chandler and Hupmobile, has written to the East Oregonian asking it to assist in getting an agent for this territory.

The distributors want an agent to handle the National Six and twelve cylinder cars, the Chandler light six and the Hupmobile or any one of the three declare they have a first class proposition to make a responsible man or firm.

LAFFERTY ALMOST AT BLOWS WITH AGENT

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 13.—The long smoldering feud between attorneys for the Jitney interests and the police and detectives of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company came to a head at the police headquarters building when ex-Congressman A. W. Lafferty, attorney for the Jitney Safety federation, attacked Lou Wagner, special agent for the street railway company, and later drew a knife on Wagner when the latter stopped him on the street.

Physical damage was prevented by the interference of Motorcycle Patrolman Bales, about whom, in the court room, the rumpus first started.

John Lanning, Jitney driver, was on trial, charged with reckless driving. Lafferty defended him. Deputy District Attorney Deich, a personal friend of Lanning, declined to prosecute and Bales was compelled to fight his own case.

During the trial Wagner stepped up to Bales and whispered in his ear. Lafferty, believing Wagner was prompting Bales to make the prosecution of Lanning vigorous as possible, demanded that Bales state the substance of the conversation. Bales refused to do this and was up-held. After the trial, in which Lanning was fined $10, Lafferty met Wagner in the corridor.

He shook Wagner by the shoulders and, it is said, menaced the detective with his fist. At this instant Bales stepped through the door and seized Lafferty, escorting him to the street.

Wagner set out in pursuit of Lafferty. At Third street Wagner stopped him, and in heated tones demanded an explanation. Then, according to witnesses, Lafferty drew the pen knife from a hip pocket, opened it and threatened Wagner. Then he started off up Oak street, Wagner abandoning the pursuit.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

IT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE TO HAIR.

That beautiful, even shade of dark glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggy, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.
