Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Waterman Estate Probated.

The estate of the late Hanley A.
Waterman of Hermiston, county commissioner, was probated today. His widow, Rena Waterman, is appointed administrator. The real property, consisting of land on the Umatilla project, is valued at $2250 and the personal property at $1850. He left no will. His widow and five children are his heirs. Raley & Raley are attorneys for the estate.

Fourth Cutting of Alfalfa.
The present warm weather is ideal for the alfalfa lands of the west and according to Henry Sommerer, well known project farmer, and he declares the fourth crop is already knee high. This season has been the best he has known, he says. Mr. Som-merer while here is putting in a boost for George A. Crossy, who has been mentioned as a possible successor for the late Commissioner Waterman.

Swimming Pool is Ready.
The swimming pool is again ready for use after being empty for three days. Owing to an unanticipated delay in installing the pump, no attempt was made to fill the pool last evening.
The pump was started at 10 this morning and early this afternoon there was enough water to permit of bathing. It was expected that the pool would be full by 4 o'clock. The water is reported to be very warm.

FARM AND RANGE

Raised Many Peaches—Shipment of peaches in car lots is finished for this season, the last car going out yesterday. The first car went Thursday of last week. During the eight days eight cars were sent out and the growers are feeling good to think there were so many the first year. In addition to car lots, during the same time at least another car was sent in local shipments to Pendleton, Baker, La Grande and other points.—Hermiston Herald.

Car of Watermelons—A car of fourteen tons of watermelons which left Thursday was the first car shipment for this season. Others will follow rapidly now, as the melons are ripening fast these days and there is a big acreage.
Thursday's car went to La Grande.
