NEWS FROM THE FARM AND RANGE

Wheat News of Duluth—Writing from Duluth to the local Farmers Union Grain Agency W. W. Harrah gives some interesting information. He don't think it possible to sell any northwest wheat there this year. On August 19 there was a spread of 50 cents a bushel between the spot and September prices owing to the fact the crop is late and the flour mills had orders to fill. Crops are good in that country, but late says Mr. Harrah. The corn crop is a failure owing to too much rain. On the night of August 19 there was frost in Duluth. Oregon barley is better than the Minnesota variety and might be sold there. Northwest farmers have spoiled the Minneapolis market by sending in poor and mixed lots of sacked wheat. They cannot handle sacked wheat there and charge one cent a bushel for bulking sacked wheat at any time.

Using The Grain Bags—An indication that the wheat yield here has been generally better than was expected a month ago is found in the fact that farmers who had grain bag orders with the Farmers Union Grain Agency have generally taken all the bags they had contracted for. The orders for bags were placed a year ago and in most cases farmers ordered what they thought they would need. In the Helix country most all who had ordered bags took their full supply.

Shipping Many Lambs—Smythe Bros will ship another trainload of lambs to Chicago tomorrow, the shipment this time going from Lytle, Wash. This makes the third trainload of lambs shipped by this firm to Chicago in the last month.

Stanfield Sold Cattle—A report from Kansas City, Mo., yesterday shows that R. N. Stanfield sold six carloads of cattle in that market. For steers he received a price of $1.90 and for cows $1.25 and $1.65.

TITANIC WIDOW TO WED AGAIN

Newport, Aug. 24.—Society is much interested in the forthcoming announcement of an engagement which will be one of the surprises of the summer. It is that of Mrs. George D. Widener, whose husband was lost on the Titanic, to Dr. Hamilton Rice, the American explorer, who has been in Newport for several weeks and has been much entertained.

The formal announcement will probably be made at the ball on Friday night, given by Mrs. Widener at her villa here, and it is said on good authority that the wedding will take place on August 28.

Dr. Rice is well known in this country and in England for his explorations in South America. He is 46 years old.

On the return of ex-President Roosevelt's exploration party from South America last year, Dr. Rice, then in London, declared that the colonel's claim of having discovered a new river was "unintelligible." He asserted that there was no such river as the colonel described.

A month later, however, he wrote to Col. Roosevelt and apologized for the "unpleasantness of his comments" and declared that the colonel's "fair, lucid and interesting narrative dispels completely the topographical points in dispute."

Mrs. Widener was also a passenger on the Titanic when she lost her husband and one of her sons. Her husband was the son of Peter A. B. Widener of Philadelphia and besides their son Harry E., who died with his father, she has two children, George D. Jr., and Eleanor.

Before marriage she was Eleanor Elkins, daughter of the late William A. Elkins, who was associated with P. A. B. Widener in many financial interests. She is tall, a brunette and noted for her beauty. She is said to possess one of the finest collections of jewels in the world. One string of pearls which Mr. Widener gave her for a Christmas present in 1899 was said to have cost $750,000 and another rope of pearls which she owns is worth $250,000.

BOSTON SINGER TELLS OF WAR NURSE EXPERIENCE

BEATRICE BARTLETT

LONDON, Aug. 24.—Sister Beatrice (Beatrice Bartlett) of Boston, Mass., is one of the leaders of war nursing for the allies. She is a well known American singer. Her activities have been remarkably extensive. "Great strides have been made in getting wounded soldiers to a fully equipped hospital," said Sister Beatrice to an International News Service Correspondent, in describing her experiences. "At the commencement of the war it sometimes took several days. Now it is accomplished in 24 hours and sometimes sooner."

She has crossed the English channel forty-nine times and will soon make her fiftieth crossing. She has collected funds from the British public with which to equip hospitals at Limoges, Dieppe and Evreux. She has the title of Director and Chief Hospital Inspecting Work, and much of her time is spent in making addresses to the thousands of workers in munition factories. She recently addressed the workers in Elleswell, Armstrong's great gun and ammunition headquarters.

"It just needs every man and woman to come forward and help out and not rest on their oars until peace is signed," she said.

She concluded:

"There are mountains of work yet to be done. I am going to the north of England a day or two, and later I shall return to France and help where possible in seeing that all that is possible is done for the brave sufferers, irrespective of their rank or nationality."
