LOCAL MAN LOSES SIGHT IN ONE EYE PECULIAR WAY
BILLY WELCH SUFFERS MISFORTUNE WHICH ENDS IN REMOVAL OF OPTIC.
 "Billy" Welch, well known resident of Pendleton for many years and proprietor of a feed yard on West Webb street, will go through the rest of his life seeing only from one eye. In a sudden and inexplicable manner, he lost the sight in one eye nearly a month ago, was under the necessity of having it removed altogether and will leave soon for Portland to have a glass eye substituted.
 By a singular coincidence, the loss of Mr. Welch's sight in one eye was almost exactly the time of the restoration of sight to one of the eyes of Carl Gulott. In the case of Mr. Gulott, physicians explained the return of sight by stating that an opaque lens, which had been drawn across the pupil, had fallen. In the case of Mr. Welch, they stated that an opaque lens had fallen across the pupil, preventing the visualized object from being thrown upon the retina.

Picture Not Objectional
 Although there may be reason enough to censor many of the so-called Vampire pictures which are appearing on the moving picture screen in order to keep beneficial influences from the young mind, as now the yellowbacked dime novel has received a blow in favor of a better literature for youths and maidens, no one who saw the "Cup of Chance" at a local theater yesterday afternoon of evening should have been able to find a reason for its being prohibited.
 In scene this picture deals with a theory which has become quite the dominating theme on the legitimate stage and while it may be an exaggeration of actual life nevertheless it is said to carry a moral—3-2-1, moreover, preaches a sermon—that every child should have the right to be well-born and well-reared among influences that should work for its welfare. This "Cup of Chance" was passed by the National board of censors and has their official seal. Except for one or two silly scenes which add nothing to the story, the picture is as good as thousands of others which are being shown every day and with which the general public and many individuals who confess to being critics of the movie screen, are apparently well pleased.

HE TAKES PLACE OF "BIG JIM" SULLIVAN
 The many friends of Miss Anita Slater of Portland will be pleased to hear of her appointment to a place on the faculty of the Pendleton high school. The appointment was made yesterday by the board to fill vacancy made by the resignation of Miss Faye Clark. Miss Slater formerly lived in this city, being a daughter of the late Robert Slater, and is returning to teach in the high school from which she graduated. She recently completed a course at the University of Oregon.
 The following account of the wedding of Homer Jamieson, well known here, and Miss Jean Allison, formerly a teacher in the Milton high school, is from the Portland Oregonian:
 A church wedding, charming in its simplicity, was solemnized in the White Temple at 5 o'clock last night when Miss Jean Katherine Allison became the bride of Homer B. Jamieson. The wedding march was played by Miss Fay Ball of Astoria, who presided at the organ. Rev. E. M. Gilles, of Berkeley, Cal. an old friend of the family, officiated at the ceremony. The church was decorated beautifully with golden glow and other yellow blossoms combined with palms and ferns and wild asparagus. Miss Mildred Simpson attended as maid of honor and Raymond B. Early, of Hood River, was best man. Sam Robinson had charge of the ushering. The young men are Sigma Chi fraternity brothers of the school.
 The bride wore a smart blue tailored suit and chic fall hat of black velvet. Her corsage bouquet was of Coeli Brunner roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Simpson wore blue serge, strictly tailored and hat to correspond. Her bouquet was of pink roses.
 The couple will pass their honeymoon in San Francisco. Mr. Jamieson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. M. Jamieson.
 At the University of Oregon, of which institution Mr. Jamieson is a graduate, he was regarded as a star athlete. He is now a member of the faculty high school and is coach of the football, basketball and baseball teams of the school. At college he was captain of the baseball and basketball teams. Both Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson graduated in the 1912 class.
 As a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority, the bride was one of the most popular girls of her set and is possessed of a charm of personality that has endeared her to all who know her. She is the daughter of Mrs. Katherine Allison.
