

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Takes Interest in Drug Store.

Roscoe Doane, who has been in the Hill drug store at La Grande for a number of years and who has been very prominent and popular among the young men of that city, arrived today to make Pendleton his home, having purchased an interest in the Pendleton Drug Co. Mr. Doane's mother and sister will live with him here and they have taken the Knight residence on Franklin street.

Insulted Indian Women.

Indian women have as much right to walk the streets of Pendleton without insult as white women and, when James Murphy was brought in to police court this morning on a charge of making offensive proposals to Lizzie Minthorn and Mrs. Peter Corbett, both Indian women, he was given seven days in jail by Judge Pitts Gerald. Other charges may be placed against him.

Indian Raiders Wanted.

Major Lee Moorhouse has received a letter from Mark Woodruff of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, asking as to the feasibility of using a dozen local Indians in an entertainment feature to be pulled off there Sept. 27. A great of prominence is to be in the city and the plan is to stage an Indian raid and capture at a favorable place, presumably on the Columbia highway. Indians desiring to make the trip are asked to consult with Major Moorhouse.

"To Helmet Der Kaiser."

Prof. E. E. Geiss, recently elected principal of the Washington school, has a souvenir of the recent Strainers' convention in Seattle in the form of an iron cross such as Kaiser Wilhelm uses in decorating his soldiers for bravery. At the top is the word "To" just below is the figure of a helmet, and below that the words "Der Kaiser." When translated, the inscription is calculated to make a hit with the friends of the allox. Prof. Geiss states that these were distributed among the Scottish bagpipers from Canada at the convention.

Undeveloped Operation.

Mrs. Bessie Wright, one of the maids at the Hotel Pendleton, this morning underwent an abdominal operation at St. Anthony's hospital.

No Trace of Fugitives.

The four escaped prisoners from the Umatilla county jail were still at large at last reports, no word having been received to indicate the direction they have taken. Sheriff Taylor and Deputy J. H. Estes are still scouting around in an endeavor to pick up their trail.

Sturtevant Case Concluded.

The taking of testimony in the Sturtevant will contest, which has strung out through the summer, was concluded yesterday save a few depositions of Portland witnesses. As soon as these are in Judge Marsh will make his decision and an appeal will probably be taken to the circuit court which ever it is decided.

Cooler Weather Arrives.

Today, the last day in the month of August, is the first day of the month that the maximum temperature has been under 90. The official thermometer gives 81 as the high mark today while last night the mercury sank to 46. The moderation in the weather has been right welcome to all residents.

Molstrom is Delegate.

Abe Molstrom has been named by County Judge C. H. Marsh as delegate to the international irrigation congress to be held at San Francisco and to the Pan-American road congress to be held in Oakland. He left Saturday night for California and will be gone three weeks during which time he will personally attend the above named gatherings.

To Fix John Day Road.

In answer to complaints made that the John Day grade, beyond Ukiah, is in bad condition, County Judge Marsh has written to Supervisor Huston of that district to do some extra work so as to place the road in improved condition. The grade had become filled with rocks from storms and the passing of stock over the road.

Pay Your Subscription.

Members of the natatorium committee, responsible for the construction of the fine swimming pool, state that approximately 190 subscribers to the fund have not yet paid up. Inasmuch as the money is needed to pay construction bills with it is desired, to have payments made as quickly as possible. Subscribers may pay at either of the local banks or at the Commercial club rooms.

Seat Sale Tomorrow.

The Round-up grandstand seats will go on sale tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock and there is as much eagerness manifested as in former years to get the pick. Whether this eagerness will lead some to sleep in the streets in front of the ticket booth, as for the past two years, remains to be seen. Numbers will be given out in the order in which people arrive, and no one person will be permitted to buy more than 12 tickets a day. The booth will be located in the usual place on West Court street opposite the Oregon Motor Garage.

They'd Heard of Pendleton.

Yesterday an easterner was in the First National Bank of this city and in conversation with George Hartman, cashier, told of a compliment he heard for Pendleton and the Round-up. He was visiting in a West Virginia town recently and a friend there asked him regarding the Round-up. He had been reading considerable about the Round-up and Pendleton and wished to know if Pendleton or Portland had the greater population. The incident shows the manner in which the name of Pendleton has been advertised by the holding of the Round-up here.

Livingston, head of the science department of the high school and athletic coach as well, has returned to Pendleton from Heppner where he spent the summer and will be joined in a few days by his wife and small son. ### Jitney, Jitney Whose Got the Jitney

Whomsoever has a Jitney has the key to my Jitney Club.

Don't carry a tin clock in your pocket, somebody may see you with it.

Once Mark Twain wrote a letter recommending a young man for a good position: "He's alright," he wrote, "he carries a Howard watch."

If Mark Twain were alive today he might say, "They're alright, they belong to the Jitney Club."

If you apply for a good position don't let your prospective "boss" see your tin clock; hide it in your hip pocket or leave it at home; or you may not secure the job.

I am making it easy for every man, woman or child in Pendleton to own a watch on the Jitney plan.

Two clubs:
Jitney Watch Club, 25 members.
Juvenile Jitney Club, 15 members.
