Dont Envy a Well Dressed Man--- Be One

You can—and easily. All it requires is a visit to this store. We're "Ward-Robe Masters" to good dressers. We don't show styles or patterns that are not in good taste. We're mighty jealous of our reputation on that score. But we don't take all the credit for our reputation. A good share of it belongs to the Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes we sell. They are priced from $20.00 to $30.00. We have others from $10.00 to $20.00.

Library News

New books on the shelves of the public library.

Brookway—Fifty years of prison service. "A distinct contribution to the literature of prison reform, being a detailed account of the author's fifty-two years of undeviating devotion to the work of reformation and rehabilitation of prisoners. Twenty-six which were spent in bringing the Elmira Reformatory to a high degree of efficiency. A host of illustrations and anecdotes, used to give point to the principles for which the author stood, add to its interest."

Clark—Charm of Scandinavia. "In writing this travel book the two authors entered on a task of friendly rivalry, one of them upholding the charms of Norway and Denmark, the other declaring for the superior attractions of Sweden and Finland. Their impressions of the countries of their choice were sent home in the form of letters to one Judicia who was to act as judge. No decision is given and the reader is left free to decide for himself, if any decision is needed where attractions are so many and varied can be offered on both sides. Many well selected illustrations add to the book's beauty, and an index to its usefulness."

Fortier—Use of water in irrigation. "The book treats of the use of irrigation water after it reaches the farm. It is, therefore, essentially a book for irrigation farmers, actual and prospective, and for elementary students of agriculture and engineering who expect to deal with irrigation farming. Mr. Fortier takes up in succession the irrigated farm, equipment and structures, methods of preparing land and applying water, water waste, measurement, delivery and duty, and the irrigation of staple crops."

Herrick—Rural credits, land and cooperative. "Specially interesting at this time on account of the farmer's loan privileges under the federal reserve act. Particularly useful in agricultural states and communities. Covers rural credit customs and laws in operation in other countries, and gives a full account of the land-bank situation in America."

Hilber—Child training. "For parents who wish to give their children under school age the advantages of systematic educational training at home. The course outlined includes habit drills, manual work, physical training, teaching common courtesies and everyday facts, and first lessons in reading. Contains much up-to-date suggestion, and a large amount of concrete material, such as familiar games and rhymes, for intelligent parents, or teachers with limited facilities for reference."

Mills—Rocky Mountain wonderland. "His book is not merely a guide for the traveler, although it gives the geographical data that are desirable and necessary, but, further than that, Mr. Mills, through narratives of his personal experience in the mountain region, stimulates the reader's interest and whets his curiosity. In short, he provides through his book a delightful form of introduction to the very genius of the Colorado mountains. What John Muir was to the Sierra, Enos Mills is to the Rockies."

Tarbell—Business of being a woman. "A sane and earnest plea for the realization of the unique social and economic opportunity of the woman in the home, as educator, enlightener, consumer, center of social life, arbiter of the dress and servant questions and protector of friendless children. The uneasy woman of today is to large degree the result of the belittlement of her natural task and her chief need is to dignify, make scientific and professionalize that task."

Taylor—Man behind the bars. "A tenderly sympathetic account of the friendships formed between convicts in the Joliet penitentiary and the woman who has spent her life in trying to help them. Miss Taylor speaks from long experience and intimate knowledge of her subject. Her sympathies are keen and her genuine humanity abundantly manifested. Yet she does not advocate such drastic reforms as our present system, as does Mr. Hawthorne who would abolish prisons entirely as useless and cruel anachronisms. Miss Taylor writes enthusiastically of the new honor system of Colorado and Illinois prisons."

Wright—What the mother of a deaf child ought to know. "Definite ways in which the mother can utilize the heretofore wasted years before school age, beginning with the child of two; how she can test the child's hearing, get in touch with him and start him on the road toward his formal education and normal living. Mothers like the book very much."

Chesterton—Appetite of tyranny. Crawshaw—Furniture design for schools and shops. Drummond—Poems. Edwards—A thousand miles up the Nile. Fletcher—Introduction to the history of England. Galworthy—Moods, songs and doggerels. Hill—Teaching of civics. Huneker—Overtones, a book of temperaments. Jenks—Citizenship and the schools. Kaye—Readings in civil government. Longfellow—Oute Mer. McElfresh—Training of Sunday school teachers and officers. Markham—Poems. Mathews—Field book of American trees and shrubs. Fitch—Modern English books of power. Mathews—Messages of hope. Miller—Poems. Van Dyke—Story of the other wise man. Walsh—Heroes and heroines of fiction. Warner—American charities.

Tell your friends about the Round-up, Sept. 23-24-25.

HUNDREDS IN PERIL IN FLOODS IN KANSAS

FORT SCOTT, Kan., Sept. 9.—Water from the Marmaton river, which rose 20 feet in a few hours flooding wholesale and residence sections of Fort Scott and imperiling the lives of hundreds of persons, was receding last night and fears of loss of life and further property damage had passed.

Although scores of persons were rescued from trees and house-tops, and many smaller structures were swept away by the flood, no one was killed, as far as is known. The property damage is estimated at $200,000.

Six Divide Honors as Heroes.

An unnamed telephone operator at Unlontown, 14 miles away, and four cab drivers employed by George A. Konantz, an undertaker, share with Konantz the hero roles. Unlontown experienced a six-inch rain last night. The Unlontown operator, realizing the impending danger to North Fort Scott, the residence section here, telephoned to Konantz.

The undertaker quickly aroused the four cab drivers in his employ. Horses were harnessed and in a few minutes were driving to the imperiled section of the city. Once into the residence section, the cabmen began to shout.

Midnight Warning Heeded. "Get out, the flood's coming," they cried as they drove through the streets.

Twenty-five hundred persons reside in the district. Fifteen hundred, it is estimated, heeded the midnight warning from the cabmen, left their homes and sought safety across the river in Fort Scott. Everyone was warned and those who remained took refuge in second story rooms. Before morning the waters of the river, mounting from the six-inch rain that prevailed over the entire watershed, had swept into North Fort Scott and destroyed many of the banded homes.

ROOSEVELT DECLARES HIMSELF FOR ALLIES

QUEBEC, Sept. 10.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt declared himself emphatically on the side of the allies before leaving here for a 10 days' hunting trip to Lake Edward. He expressed the greatest admiration for the patriotism of the Canadian people.

Decline to Debate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—R. P. Schwerin of the Pacific Mail and Robert Dollar of the Dollar Line refused to take up the gauntlet thrown down to them by Andrew Furuseth of the sailors' union, who offers to meet them in public debate on the seamen's law. Furuseth produced statistics which he asserted proved that the law will not drive ship-owners out of business.

Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I.
PROVIDENCE, R. I.—"For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and I overworked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend and when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine."—Mrs. S. T. RICHMOND, 84 Progress Avenue, Providence, R. I.

From Mrs. Maria Irwin, Peru, N.Y.
PERU, N.Y.—"Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was very irregular and had much pain. I had lost three children, and felt worn out all the time. This splendid medicine helped me as nothing else had done, and I am thankful every day that I took it."—Mrs. MARIA IRWIN, R.F.D. 1, Peru, N.Y.

From Mrs. Jane D. Duncan, W. Quincy, Mass.
SOUTH QUINCY, MASS.—"The doctor said that I had organic trouble and he doctored me for a long time and I did not get any relief. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued taking it all through middle life and am now a strong, healthy woman and earn my own living."—Mrs. JANE D. DUNCAN, Forest Avenue, West Quincy, Mass.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
