Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Thermometer at 35.
September has brought cool nights to Pendleton and last night was the coolest for several months, the mercury dropping to 35.

Little Baby Dies.
The little baby, born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Maack a few days ago and which weighed only two and a half pounds at birth, died last night and the funeral is being held this afternoon.

Teachers Meet in Morning.
A meeting of all of the teachers of the public schools has been called for tomorrow morning in the city hall at 10 by Acting Superintendent A. C. Hampton for the purpose of organizing and outlining the year's work.

200 sacks Short.
Yesterday in mentioning the pouring of the third floor of the new wing at the state hospital, it was stated that 1154 sacks of cement were used. This was 300 sacks short, according to Edward D. Nell, the full amount having been 1484.

Fire Was Threatened.
A fire alarm was turned in this morning from Box 15 when the insulation on an electric wire caught fire at the home of Mrs. George Chamberlain, 407 West Alta street. The wires were cut and the danger of the fire spreading removed. No damage was done.

Buyers Interest in Company.
Through a deal completed here yesterday N. P. McLean has purchased the interest of W. J. Burns in the City Auto Co. and henceforth that business will be known by the name of the N. P. McLean Co. With Mr. McLean there will be associated Bert Peterson, who has been a partner with Mr. Burns in the City Auto Co. The new company will have entire charge of the business as D. H. Nelson, who was trustee for the old partnership, has turned the entire business over to the new owners. The company will have the Pendleton agency for the Overland car and anticipates a thriving business.

Were 8th Grade Students.
The list of names printed the other day were the successful students passing the 8th grade examinations instead of those taking teachers' examinations.

W. C. T. U. Meetings.
The county convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union is being held today in the local Baptist church and there is a large attendance of Pendleton ladies and delegates from out of town.

Mrs. Orton Given Divorce.
The Orton divorce case, which promised to be a hard contested one, was practically settled out of court yesterday when Mrs. Orton and her husband compromised and settled their property rights by stipulation. Mrs. Orton was then granted a divorce.

Caldwell Wins Another Saddle.
Lee Caldwell, Pendleton boy who has qualified repeatedly as one of the champion riders of the country, won the prize saddle at a meet held in Reno, Nevada. A telegram was received from him this morning stating that he had won the saddle and was leaving for home this morning. He will enter the Round-up bucking contest in which he took second money last year.

Two Divorce Suits Filed.
Nellie Irene Killgore of Weston today brought suit against her husband, James Albert Killgore, asking for a divorce. They have three grown children, none of whom needs a guardian, she states in her complaint. She charges that her husband has always been lazy, is addicted to drink and has frequently abused her. W. M. Peterson is her attorney. Another divorce suit was filed today, Anna A. Coburn being the plaintiff and Albert J. Coburn the defendant. Cruel and inhuman treatment is alleged. L. A. Esteb of Echo is attorney for the plaintiff.

Notice of Change in Firm.
Notice is given that N. P. McLean has purchased the interest of W. J. Burns in the City Auto Co. of Pendleton and after this date the firm will be known as N. P. McLean & Co. and will be conducted by N. P. McLean and Bert Peterson at the same location. D. H. Nelson, trustee, has turned over the entire business to the new company and the said N. P. McLean & Co. assume all obligations and will collect all outstanding accounts of the former City Auto Co.

Invitations were this morning received by local friends to the wedding of Miss Phoebe Helen Snyder of Walla Walla and William E. Lowell of Boise, which is to be celebrated in Walla Walla on Wednesday evening, September twenty-second, at the home of the bride's mother, 505 Catherine street. Miss Snyder is a popular and attractive young lady of Walla Walla and is the daughter of Mrs. John M. P. Snyder. She has many friends in Pendleton, having visited here on several occasions at the home of her aunt, Mrs. James A. Fee. Mr. Lowell is the only son of Judge and Mrs. Stephen A. Lowell of this city and spent his youth here. Since his graduation from the University of Oregon he has been in the newspaper business and is now on the staff of the Boise Statesman.

Miss Neva Lane, one of the teachers in the Pendleton schools, arrived home last evening from a six weeks' stay in Portland and San Francisco. In the latter city she availed herself of the opportunity to study the methods of Madame Montessori, the famous Italian educator who has a class of children meeting daily in the Palace of Education. Mrs. Mary J. Lane, her mother, will return home Sunday.

Mrs. H. H. Kimball, who has been visiting with her niece, Mrs. H. H. Hattery, will leave today for the east. Mrs. Hattery will accompany her as far as Virden, Ill., where they will visit with Mrs. Kimball's son, who is postmaster at that city. Mrs. Kimball will go from there to New York and other Atlantic cities on an extended trip and Mrs. Hattery will return home, after visiting friends and relatives in Springfield, Ill.

FIRE AT THE DALLES DOES MUCH DAMAGE

THE DALLES, Sept. 10.—Fire, which started in the J. R. Docherty Upholstering establishment, totally destroyed the Edward C. Pease hay and grain warehouse, the Flinn and Wallace paint shop, and partly destroyed Docherty's shop. By good work of the fire department many surrounding frame buildings were saved.

The loss is estimated at $5000.

Marshal Elmer Albee of Helix, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

E. L. Longmeier, Mrs. Longmeier and their daughter, arrived here this morning from Cunningham, Wash.
