

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Bagged a Black Bear.
 Whorle Baker, well known resident of the Willow Springs section, is in Pendleton today. He reports bagging a black bear near his home a few days ago.

Loses Saddle Horse.
 Earl Tulloch, well known farmer who lives north of the city, awoke yesterday morning to find his saddle horse and saddle missing. He believes they were stolen during the night and has reported the matter to the officers.

Weston Hunters After Bear.
 A party of Weston hunters, consisting of Walter Williams, Charles Van Hoy, Rudolph Proebstel and Robert Reynolds, passed through Thursday en route to the John Day country where they expect to hunt deer and bear for a month.

Comes Early for Round-up Seat.
 A man whose name we did not learn, passed through Heppner this week in an Oakland roadster, on his way to Pendleton. This man had traveled all the way from California and he told us that he was going early in order that he could get a good seat for the "Let 'er Buck" show—Heppner Gazette-Times.

Sending Girls to Round-up.
 The Haines Record is another newspaper in the northwest that is running a contest for the purpose of sending two popular young ladies to the Pendleton Round-up. The contest is now in full swing and the winners will be decided soon. The young ladies will be guests of the Round-up when they arrive.

Buffalo Vernon Wins Roping.
 In the steer roping contest held at Vancouver Thursday, Buffalo Vernon, well known Roundup performer, won first money, beating such ropers as Beeho Gray, Sammy Garrett and Tommy Grimes.

Only 116 Registered.
 Voters in Pendleton are registering slowly with Registration Clerk John Bailey at the city hall. Up until this morning only 116 had inscribed their names on the books.

in for Selling "Booze."
 A. Vawter, who pleaded guilty to selling a bottle of alcohol to Charley Bennett, an Indian, was this morning given a sentence of 30 or 20 days. His friends are attempting to raise the money.

First Rain in 40 Days.
 The first rain Pendleton has received in forty some odd days descended on the city last night in a small shower. Only .05 of an inch fell, according to the weather observer, but it freshened up the atmosphere perceptibly.

Tryouts of Buckers Next Week.
 Next Week will practically begin the Round-up festivities for the trying out of the bucking stock will begin. Livestock Director Thompson will bring the buckers in Sunday and Monday and will not only give all of them a thorough testing but will try out a number of new buckers as well.

Leave For Big Barbeque.
 Most of the members of the Wehaha Club left this afternoon by auto for the John Crow ranch near Meacham where a big barbeque will be arranged tomorrow for their pleasure. This is the second annual event of this nature and one that is highly popular with the club members.

Gilliam Gets Two Deer.
 Walter Gilliam, well known Pearson creek resident, bagged two deer at once the other day, according to a story brought in by Deputy Game Warden Tonkin. He encountered a whole bunch of bucks in a clearing and shot two in succession. While he was dressing them, a two year old buck stood and watched him but he refused to shoot it.

McIntyre vs. McIntyre.
 A. H. McIntyre this morning filed suit for divorce in the circuit court against his wife, Cora Ann McIntyre, charging cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple were married in Pendleton in November, 1904, and have two children. Plaintiff charges unfaithfulness on the part of his wife, declared that in July of this year she transferred her affections to another man and told him she meant to marry him. Fee and Fee are his attorneys.

Squaw to Sing on Streets.
 Tomorrow evening a full blood Sioux Indian woman, known to the show world as "White Cloud," but in everyday life as Miss Willard, will sing several popular selections from the balcony above the French restaurant. Miss Willard is one of the latest attractions secured by the Campbell Carnival Co. which begins a week's engagement here Monday, and Mayor Dyer has given the company permission to have her sing tomorrow evening.

Mascott Signed to Meet Bennett.
 Promoter Billy Farrell this morning received a letter from Bobby Evans, who is managing Billy Mascott, the bantam fighter, in which the terms offered for a return bout with Jockey Bennett were accepted. The two bantams will meet here on Nov. 21 and will weigh in at 115 pounds at 4 o'clock. They will go 20 rounds. Promoter Farrell also received a wire from George Ingle accepting the terms for a bout with Jack Carpenter here on the Friday night of Round-up week.

Indian Water Rights.
 The arguments in the dispute between the government and the Byers Milling Co. over the water rights of the Indians of the Umatilla reservation will be heard by Judge Phelps on Sept. 22 as one phase of the adjudication hearings. Judge Fee will represent the milling company and Deputy U. S. Attorney Rankin will appear for the government. Judge Phelps this week heard the arguments of the Western Land & Irrigation Co., the U. S. reclamation service and the Furnish Ditch Company.

Nearly Lost Stack of Hay.
 William Baker, former Pendletonian who is now ranching in the Meadow creek country, almost lost a 40-ton stack of hay in a fire that broke out in the forest near his place a few days ago, according to C. C. Scott who was in from that vicinity yesterday. The fire, started presumably by a carelessly tossed cigar stub, spread to within ten feet of the hay-stack before it was put out. There have been several fires in that vicinity this summer but thanks to the vigilance of Lou Case, deputy fire warden, have not done much damage.

A New Kind of Handcuff.
 When Parole Officer Joe F. Keller left for Salem today with R. B. Draper, a parole violator whom Chief Kearney picked up here, he had his prisoner handcuffed in a way that would make escape difficult and yet would not attract any attention to the man. To a cuff which was fastened well up on the forearm, was suspended a chain at the other end of which was an imitation handgrip, made of metal. To the casual observer the man appeared to be an ordinary passenger carrying his grip. Mr. Keller, who was formerly a prominent Portland detective, expects to be back for the Round-up.
