

Ladies New Suits

(Received By Express)
THIS MORNING

Some of the most attractive suits we have seen this Fall were unpacked in our suit department this morning. Having arrived at this opportune time there is no doubt that we have just the suit you have been waiting for.

In the collection are some new boxy models, some fur trimmed and some neatly set off with military braid.

The materials are broadcloth, gaberdine, poplin and serge, in black, navy blue, African brown and Russian green. The prices are most reasonable and range from

$25.00 to $55.00

NOTICES

Mrs. Hazel Nellin Baxter, formerly of this city, arrived this morning from Portland to visit relatives during the Round-up.

Word has been received from the University of Oregon that Miss Lillian Boylen of this city, who recently entered that institution, has been pledged to the Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Many friends of Prof. and Mrs. J. S. Landers, who will leave the latter part of the week for Denver to make their home, attended the informal reception given in their honor last evening in the Methodist church. Short addresses were made by Judge Stephen A. Lowell and Rev. C. A. Hodshire and Prof. Landers responded. Mrs. J. R. Dickson sang several numbers and Miss Margaret Lowell played a violin selection during the evening. Wafer and punch were served to the guests from tables artistically decorated in flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brewer are enjoying a visit this week from Mrs. Brewer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Butler, of Portland. They will go on to North Yakima next week for a visit before returning home.

Mrs. J. A. Smith has returned from Spokane where she had been visiting for two weeks.

Mrs. Ben Pierce and son, Clarence Pierce, have returned from the Greenhorn mountains where they spent the summer. The latter, who is an invalid, is improved in health as a result of the summer in the mountains.

Mrs. H. H. Burton has as her guest during the Round-up Mrs. C. B. Brown, of Klamath Falls, her daughter.

MAN WHO PUT UP MONED FOR McFARLAND-GIBBONS

W.C. MARSHALL

William C. Marshall, the promoter of the McFarland-Gibbons bout. Mr. Marshall has never before promoted a prizefight. Although Marshall is paying $12,500 as their share in the fight and his other expenses will bring the total up to about $50,000, Marshall stands to clear about $50,000.

Silk Hose Thief Is Man.

PITMAN, N. J., Sept. 21.—For two years a number of women of this section have been missing silk stockings and other intimate apparel from their wash lines without any idea as to where they went, although complaint after complaint was made to the authorities. It has just become known that a young man, well known around here, has been making periodical raids, until a neighbor happened in his home and saw some wearing apparel that she thought belonged to a friend. Constable Bill did the rest, with the result that in a search two barrels of goods, including all kinds of female wear, silk stockings, predominating were found. The young man, whose name has not been made public, confessed, and because he promised to return every article, it has been agreed not to prosecute him. The work of returning is now in progress, and there is said to be a general mix-up, but the young man is positive he is right in his distributions.

PASTOR WAS RAISED TO BE A SOLDIER

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 21.—Rev. A. P. S. Hyde, who is a captain in the United States army, has resigned as pastor of St. Clements Episcopal church that he may give all of his time to military instruction work, for which he was sent here by the war department some time ago. His place will be filled by Dr. H. H. Gowan, professor of Oriental languages at the University of Washington. Captain Hyde was educated for the army at West Point. He studied for the ministry during spare time.

French Trade Reviving.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—Eugene Biot, president of the French commercial travelers' association, says the condition of members of the association, at times almost desperate since the war began, is rapidly improving, which means, he adds, that business in general is on the upgrade. A curious fact of this revival of trade is that the biggest orders come from the regions immediately behind the front.

Half of the 50,000 members of the commercial travelers' association were mobilized; of the remaining half a great many are still out of employment on account of temporary or permanent discontinuance of business by their employers, and it is now proposed to send them abroad to develop foreign trade.

This is somewhat new for French commercial travelers, who in the past have been rarely seen in foreign markets. The object in sending them out now is to let them get acquainted with the ways of merchants in other countries.

Fruit Packers Unionize.

NORTH YAKIMA, Sept. 21.—Efforts are being made to organize a union of fruitpackers in this valley for the purpose of resisting cuts in the schedule of wages for this class of work. The prevailing price for packing has been 5 cents a box in previous seasons.

Introduction of fruit-sizing machines, which enable faster and easier packing, has resulted in a cut to 4 cents and 3 cents where they are used. Some employers without machines have also cut the rates.

Packers, most of whom are girls and women, have no difficulty in earning $4.50 to $6 a day under the present prices.

Paraguay imported $74,516 worth of rice from Germany in 1914.

HAITIAN NATIVES SLAY AMERICANS IN BATTLE

PORT AU PRINCE, Sept. 21.—The killing of several Americans and a number of natives in a clash between American marines and Cacos at Gonaives was reported in dispatches received here. The Cacos are members of a Haitian faction which has been prominently identified with the revolutionary movement.

RUN AWAY TO BE ACTRESSES, BUT NAUGHTY POLICE WON'T LET THEM

GERTRUDE CASEY AND ADDIE McLEOD.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—If Broadway suffers a dearth of actresses this winter, no one but the New York police department will be to blame. Those horrid policemen, it was real mean of them to take charge of pretty Gertrude Casey, brunette and 15 and golden haired Addie McLeod of the same age, as they stepped off the Newport boat at the New York pier. This is the way it happened, according to the girls, Newport, where the girls live in adjoining houses, is a pretty poke place, that is unless you are in the social swim, and Gertrude and Addie were not, so they made up their minds to leave Newport flat, and come to New York, where real art would be appreciated. Of course, they had fully decided to go on the stage. Every young girl who determines to run away from home starts out to make Sarah Bernhardt look like a small time variety performer.

After buying their tickets on the steamer they had left a working capital of $4.02. Gertrude, being the taller, took charge of the $4.00 while Addie carried the two cents and a bag of crackers. Somewhere between Newport and New York the $4 mysteriously disappears from the handkerchief in which Gertrude had carefully wrapped it. Telegrams from the Newport police to the local officers sent two detectives to the pier and the girls were taken in charge when they came down the gangplank. Their parents will take them back to Newport.

Jail Criticized by Boy. CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Moulton Littlebaum, though only 11 years old, is a reformer who believes that the lot of persons confined in jails and prisons should be made happier and easier.

On a recent Saturday evening Moulton spent considerable time in visiting the police station in Evanston and was much disgusted with the conditions which he found in the cell-room, though he thought the policemen themselves were gentlemen. He is the nephew of Sergeant Enoch J. Moberg, of the Evanston force, and after his visit he made a report to his uncle, which, in his own words, is as follows:

"It seems to me that any person who is confined in your cells will never disobey the law again. He will have learned his lesson. When my teacher asks me to write themes next year, I am going to write about my visit with the Evanston police."

Mayor Buys His Coffin. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 20.—Mayor Riddle has ordered a coffin to sleep in instead of going to a Turkish bath after banquets so as to be ready for his official duties in the morning. Talking of his experiment, he said: "When a fellow gets out with the boys and kind of gets by his limit, he should have something to remind him of it next morning. I'm going to have this coffin made and placed in my apartment. When I get home after 1 o'clock in the morning from some banquet or the like, it will be my sleeping place."

A GOOD BREAKFAST PUTS YOU IN TRIM FOR THE DAY'S WORK.

When you feel lacking in energy, the chances are you are not eating the right food. Especially may this be true of the morning meal. There's nothing like a good breakfast to give you a grip on the day's work.

Too much meat is injurious. It does not supply the proper food elements, besides being hard to digest. When children or grown-ups seem lacking in energy, put them on a diet of Oatmeal and fruit for a few mornings—and watch the result. Not only will they be benefited but their breakfasts will be twice as enjoyable. But don't give them half-cooked Oatmeal. Unless Oatmeal is properly cooked, it is indigestible, and as you probably know, it takes over two hours to cook Oatmeal as it should be cooked.

H-O Oatmeal can be thoroughly cooked in twenty minutes because it is steam-cooked for more than two hours before it leaves the mill; and all excessive moisture, hulls and meal dust removed by an exclusive H-O process.

Notice the rich color of H-O Oatmeal as a result of this special process. For sale by good grocers everywhere.

Glasgow Curtains Drink.

GLASGOW, Sept. 21.—In Glasgow public houses are now permitted to sell liquor five and a half hours a day only. The places are closed in the morning when drinking would unfit a workman for the entire day. Treating and the credit system are done away with, and the practice of carrying drink away in bottles is also forbidden.

Although these new restrictions have been in force only a short time they already have resulted in a considerable decrease in the arrests for drunkenness—especially in the number of arrests of men. During the week preceding the curtailment of the hours when the houses were open all day, 325 men were arrested for drunkenness and 88 women. In the first week that the restrictions were enforced the number of men arrested for drunkenness was 210, but the number of women was 81, only four less than in the previous week.
