LAST
CALLSWINE PRICES
GO UP LITTLE

(Courtesy Monday's Journal.)
PORTLAND, Ore.—As expected, better quality offerings brought forth an advance of a dime above the recent high limits for swine at North Portland with a limited amount of business this morning at $6.75.

Another liberal run of swine made its appearance in the North Portland yards over Sunday; in fact, the totals of last week were eclipsed.

Bidding for hogs was slow in the face of the limited business at the higher price with the bulk of the arrivals showing no indication of moving above last week's closing prices.

Market for hogs is showing but little change this morning at leading eastern trade centers.

General hog market range:
Best light $6.65@6.75
Medium light $6.50@6.60
Good to heavy $6.25@6.40
Rough to heavy $6.00@6.00

Cattle Situation Steady.
Market for cattle is steady at North Portland. Decreased showing of supplies was noted in comparison with the over Sunday run of last week. Sales made during the early session indicated practically no change from the closing of last week or in fact last week's opening.

Good stuff was again in request in the cattle division with offerings of that character not overly heavy. Poor stuff showed the usual neglect, so noticeable of late, with prices correspondingly low.

Eastern markets for cattle were sharply lower as a rule this morning.

General cattle market range:
Select steers $6.50@7.00
Best hay fed steers $6.25@6.35
Good to choice $6.00@6.25
Ordinary to fair $5.00@5.75
Best cows $5.00@5.25
Good to prime $4.50@4.75
Select bulls $4.50@4.75
Fancy bulls 2.50
Ordinary bulls 4.25
Ordinary bulls 2.50@3.50
Best calves 7.50@8.00

Mutton Offerings Limited.
There was not a single full load of mutton reported in the North Portland market; a condition unusual in the local trade for Monday morning. Total supplies of mutton and lambs were extremely limited and scarcely sufficient stuff arrived to thoroughly test sentiment of the trade. General belief is that conditions are fully as strong as last week.

Eastern mutton markets also showed decreased offerings with higher prices generally ruling this morning.

General mutton market:
Choice spring lambs 7.00
Common spring lambs $5.50@6.75
Choice yearling wethers 5.75
Good yearlings $5.25@5.50
Old wethers 4.75@5.00
Choice light ewes 4.75@5.00
Good ewes 3.75@4.00
Good ewes 3.75@4.00
Rough heavy ewes 3.50@3.40

Goethals at Engineers' Meeting.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—General George W. Goethals, builder of the Panama canal and the world's most famous engineering expert, was the principal speaker at the opening of the International Engineering congress which will continue for six days. General Goethals, honorary president of the congress, described in detail the technical and physical difficulties encountered in the design and construction of the canal.

Ten thousand civil, mining, mechanical, electrical, military and naval engineers from every state in the union and from forty foreign nations, representing hundreds of engineering societies and associations, are here to attend the congress.

The congress sessions are in eleven groups, or sub-congresses, conducted under the auspices of these five national associations: The American Society of Civil Engineers; The American Institute of Mining Engineers; The American Society of Mechanical Engineers; The American Institute of Electrical Engineers; and the Naval Architects and Marine Engineers.

It is estimated that the reports of the various committees and individuals on all phases of modern engineering of all classes, will fill a dozen volumes.

Twenty-two different problems encountered in the building of the Isthmian water way, will be discussed by men who were on General Goethals' force. The general sessions will also deal with waterways and irrigation, railways, municipal engineering, naval and military engineering.
