Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Coming Back to Round-up.
Among the tickets for the Round-up ordered this morning were five for Joseph Hirschberg of Independence, Oregon, who has never missed a Round-up and who is coming back with friends. Mr. Hirschberg is the man who built the Salem, Falls City and Western railroad.

Chinaman Loses Three Teeth.
A Chinaman of the local colony, having drunk too deeply of some celestial brew, yesterday afternoon fell down the steps from the upper story of the brick building in Chinatown and lost three teeth in the fall. He also sustained several bad cuts on the scalp and face. Dr. T. M. Henderson was called and dressed the injuries.

More Applications Than Pheasants.
Deputy Game Warden Tonkin declares there have been more applications received for pheasants for liberation than there are pheasants to liberate. Recently he was notified that the state game farm had some pheasants for release in this county and many farmers have shown a willingness to put the birds on their places and protect them.

$60 Verdict Returned.
The jury in the case of Roach Bros. vs. Walter Gilman yesterday afternoon returned a verdict of $60 for the plaintiffs who had sued for $150, alleged to be the value of a cow and calf stolen by Gilman. The cow was the same one which the Roach boys had at the Round-up two years ago as a buckner and, by reason of her buckner ability, was valued more than an ordinary cow. However, the evidence to show her special qualities was not permitted to be introduced.

Cited for Contempt Again.
Glen Rust was today again cited to appear in the circuit court to show reason why he should not be punished for contempt of court in failing to pay to his wife, Cordelia Rust, the monthly expense money stipulated in a formal agreement.

Indians Coming By Hundreds.
The Indian feature of the Round-up this year promises to be better than ever before. From the Umatilla reservation hundreds are coming in and the tepees are springing up like mushrooms at Round-up Park. A good many Indians from other reservations are also coming in.

Coming From Vermont.
All the way from Windsor, Vermont, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Holmes are coming to the Pendleton Round-up. They are enroute now and a telegram was received today for seat and room reservations. This makes at least six Vermont people coming for the Round-up, four others having previously made reservations.

Baker Sending 75.
The Baker Commercial Club today increased its order for Round-up seats from 60 to 75 for the last day of the exhibition. A letter from T. G. Montgomery states that they will arrive Saturday morning and that there will be 20 ladies in the party. The Baker delegation will be taken to Round-up Park and treated to a cowboy breakfast.

Roads From La Grande Good.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson of La Grande motored to Pendleton Sunday and back Monday for the purpose of determining the condition of the roads for people wanting to drive to the Round-up. They report the roads in good condition, making the trip each way in four hours. They will return for the Round-up and others will come also. While here they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Jackson.

Dignitaries Pass Through.
Yesterday on No. 17 Governor Spry, Senator Smoot and General Wedgwood of Utah passed through Pendleton en route to Portland to attend the irrigation conference. Governor Alexander of Idaho is expected through today or tonight. On Sunday Mrs. William Thaw and Mrs. C. E. Stoner, mother and sister of Harry K. Thaw, passed through Pendleton on No. 17 en route to Portland to join Thaw and accompany him to San Francisco.

Steals Canoe.
Stealing the canoe belonging to J. T. Lambirth, paying teller at the First National Bank, a 12 year old boy giving the name of Frank Kenyon, sailing boldly forth upon the river, intending to make the trip by water to Portland. He got as far as the Furnish reservoir in safety but was stopped by the damkeeper who notified the sheriff's office. The boy and canoe are being held there for the time being. Deputy Sheriff Estes is unable to find the boy's parents.

Shot Up the Town.
John Bowman, a well known aged resident of West Court street, full of Round-up and other spirits, yesterday afternoon pulled off a little wild west stuff on his own account. Pedestrians and auto parties, en route to Round-up park for the tryouts, were sent into alarm by the appearance of the old man in front of his house with an old cap and ball horse pistol two feet long. This he discharged into the air several times and, needless to say, he was given a wide berth. Chief of Police Manning arrested him and this morning he was taken before Police Judge Fitz Gerald. Because of his advanced years, he was let off with the minimum fine of five dollars.

Sam Thompson Very Ill.
Sam R. Thompson, director of livestock for the Round-up, is seriously ill at his home on North Main street. He has been suffering from a severe cold for the past two weeks and during the past few days serious complications have developed. His fever was about 105 yesterday but today is down and his condition is reported a little improved. His illness will keep him from the Round-up but his place in the corral will be taken by Bert Whitman, who has had a good deal of experience in this department of the show. W. R. Taylor, Herbert Thompson and Will Switzer, all of whom have worked in this department before, will also assist.

Al Lodell Arrives.
Al Lodell, crack first baseman and leader of the Pendleton team which won the championship of the Western Tri-state league in 1914, arrived today for the Round-up from Forsythe, Montana, where he captained a team which beat everything in the state. Out of 26 games, his club won 22. Most of Lodell's team were former Western Tri-state players. Fitchner of the Pendleton club and Sutherland of the Baker club did the pitching. Rollo Brown of Walla Walla caught. Lowdell played first, French of Baker third, Peterson of Pendleton third and Mensor of Pendleton and Baker were one of the outfield. Lamb, former Victoria player, was at short. Lodell states he has arranged for Sutherland to go to Kansas City next season. Naughton, formerly of Pendleton, was playing third for Kansas City this season when he took sick. He was in the hospital for several weeks and came out weighing 90 pounds. He has been at his home in Sioux City since.

We Lead Others follow

With the identity of the principals cloaked in mystery, the police today are baffled in their attempt to solve the strangling of a woman known only as "Mrs. Baker" here last night in a rented room. Efforts are being made to locate an unknown man who styled himself a nephew of the murdered woman and who disappeared shortly before the crime was revealed.

His description, given by the landlady of the place, fits that of the suspected murderer of Mrs. Frances Harlow in Los Angeles in July, when the woman was robbed of diamonds worth $10,000. The theory of the police is that the suspected Los Angeles man gave the diamonds into the possession of "Mrs. Baker" and she refused to part with them.

Age 80, She Fishes Every Day.
CLEVELAND, Sept. 21.—Although she will be eighty years old in October, Mrs. M. J. Helmer, fishes every day off a pier in Edgewater park. That has been the old lady's chief amusement for the last ten years and on any pleasant afternoon she may be found where the piscatorial prizes are biting the best. Old residents say

Mrs. Helmer has caught more fish in her time than any other single fisherman or woman on the Great Lakes. Some days she lands so many fine prizes that her grand children have to help her lug them home.

Six-for-a-Quarter Fight On.
TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 21.—This city began a death grapple, before the Public Utility Commissioners, with the street railway forces to decide whether the latter have the right to discontinue selling trip tickets at the rate of six for a quarter.
