BENNETT GIVEN DECISION LAST NIGHT OVER MASCOTT

POPULAR VERDICT, HOWEVER, WOULD HAVE BEEN DRAW—PORTLANDER CLEVER.

Jockey Bennett, Pendleton's grand old hand, last night defeated Billy Mascott, the Portland boy, in a 20 round bout at the Oregon theater. That is, according to Referee Frank McFarland, he did. According to the majority of the spectators—and Jockey had more friends in the house than Billy—he did no such thing. A popular verdict would have made the go a draw, perhaps, and, if a decision had been insisted upon, there is little Series to Start Oct. 9.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 22.—August Herrmann, chairman of the National Baseball Commission, in a statement said the world series probably would start on Saturday, October 9.
Mr. Herrmann said the championship season in the east does not close until October 7, and it is the custom to give the contending teams a day to get ready for the big event.

doubt but that the Portland boy would have been declared the winner.

The battle was not as interesting as some fights that have been held in the theater recently. The style of fighting did not appeal to the fans. Jockey is a great little defensive battler, and last night showed a fondness for riding, clinching and hugging that made the match look like a wrestling bout.

For ten rounds there was not enough doing in the hitting line to keep the spectators from yawning. Occasionally one of the midgets would land a blow that would provoke a few exclamations but neither was harmed. In the thirteenth it began to liven up a bit and the last five rounds were perhaps the most entertaining of the lot.

Mascott preferred an open style of fighting but had little opportunity to execute his preference. Even when the two boys did stand off and spar, Mascott could not land many blows for Bennett is clever in blocking and ducking and his long experience stood him in good stead. It was only in the close-in fighting that Bennett landed but he did not hurt his opponent.

On points it looked like Mascott had more rounds than Jockey but the referee couldn't see it that way.

Preliminaries Best.

The preliminaries created twice as much excitement as the main bout. Earl Snyder put Curly Smith of Portland to sleep in the third round of a four round bout. Smith started after the local boy in the first round like he intended to pulverize him but Snyder showed cleverness in dodging and covering up during this short period. By the end of the first round he had the advantage and in the second had the Portland boy stumped. In the third he hit him several hard blows and, when Smith started another wild lunge, caught him on the jaw with a sleep-producer. Smith took the count.

Joe Farrell had not the least trouble in the world disposing of the "dark horse from Spokane." The Spokane boy would have done well to remain in the dark for he didn't look well in the light. After Farrell had chopped him for two rounds, he fell through the ropes and Referee Stevens stopped the fight.

Wrights Here Today.

Billy Wright, who will meet Jack Carpenter in a 20 round bout on Friday evening, arrived from Seattle this morning and will work out this afternoon and tomorrow in the Commercial gymnasium. Wright is an A1 fighter and promises to mix it lively with Carpenter.

SPORT DOPE.

Columbia Begins Practice.
NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Football practice began today at Columbia university, where school begins tomorrow. After the seemingly long absence of the sport the students were more interested in its revival than in the opening of school itself. For five years Columbia schedule will not contain the names of any of the Big Five colleges, though West Point and Dartmouth are included in the plans for the next few years.

Mrs McFarland Says Packey Will Fight no More

MRS. PACKEY MCFARLAND & LOIS THIERY.

Mrs. Packey McFarland, wife of the boxer, at the left, and Lois Thiery, daughter of his manager at the right.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Packey McFarland may not know it, but his fight with Mike Gibbons is the last that the clever boxer will engage in. No less a person than his fourteen months bride is authority for the statement. Mrs. McFarland accompanied her husband east for the fight, but she has never seen him in training and will not witness the fight. She doesn't like anything connected with the prize ring and has never seen her spouse (not her lord and master, for Mrs. McFarland is very much the master in the household) in fighting togs.

The $17,500 which Packey will receive as his end of the ten round bout with Mike Gibbons has already been spent, according to the bride. Two lovely hats and one high powered automobile have been purchased by Mrs. McFarland. All that Packey will get is the glory.

Upper Snake River Idaho Lands

We have been selling Idaho lands to Pendleton and Walla Walla people for three years. Many yields were over 50 bushels per acre this year.

We have some good wheat farms in large or small tracts. Also stock ranches, and some small irrigated tracts close to town. Have three good wheat ranches to rent for a term of years. If our lands can not be bought for less than half price of lands here on an average, and if they do not produce more under thorough cultivation per acre, we will pay your expenses to see the lands. Will be at St. George Hotel, Pendleton, all this week.
