NO FRESH STOCK IN THE MARKET

(Courtesy Tuesday's Journal.)
PORTLAND, Ore.—Little stuff entered the local livestock market overnight and practically no change is shown in the general situation. While it is true that cattle sold in a very limited way as high as $6.90@7.90 yesterday at North Portland, it took "made to order" quality to bring these extremes. Good cattle were selling at a wide price range and poor stuff at a still wider range. There was little fresh stock offering this morning.

Representatives sales are as follows:

30 steers	1050	$7.00
26 steers	1120	6.85
38 steers	1097	6.05
95 steers	1144	6.40
102 cows	1083	5.00
26 cows	1130	4.85
6 cows	1023	4.75
3 cows	1093	4.50
2 bulls	1360	4.00
1 heifer	1120	6.00
10 calves	370	6.00
1 stag	1060	6.95
103 hogs	192	6.75
209 hogs	200	6.70
304 hogs	170	6.65
153 lambs	70	7.00
2 yearlings	110	6.00
10 wethers	153	5.25
35 ewes	107	5.00

Police Reward Heroic Lad.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—In recognition of his bravery in preventing the murder of a policeman, the police of the 165th precinct have given Harry Sang, 15 years old, of 88 Bristol street, East New York, a handsomely inscribed gold watch and chain. The presentation was made by Captain Isaac Frank, in the Brownsville police station, with every policeman standing at attention before Lieutenant King's desk.

On June 5 last there was a race riot among Italians and others at Chester street and Pitkin avenue.

Brownsville. Patrolman Joseph Becker sought to stop the trouble, and was attacked with an iron bar wielded by Vincenzo Delucia, of 154 Chester street.

Young Sang, was playing baseball in a neighboring field when the riot started, and armed with a baseball bat he jumped a fence near by just as the Italian knocked Policeman Becker down. The boy started to the aid of the unconscious policeman, and before Delucia could deliver a second blow Sang hit him on the head with his bat and knocked him unconscious. Other policemen arriving upon the scene, Delucia was arrested and Policeman Becker sent to a hospital with a bad wound on the head.

Captain Frank with an escort of three policemen went to Sang's house and playfully placed him under arrest. When the frightened lad got to the police station he found himself surrounded. Then Captain Frank presented the watch to the boy, with an address in which he complimented him highly for his presence of mind which had saved the life of Policeman Becker.

The watch bears the inscription, "To H. S., from members of 165th precinct, for valor displayed on June 5, 1915." The boy's agitation and surprise were too deep to permit extended remarks.

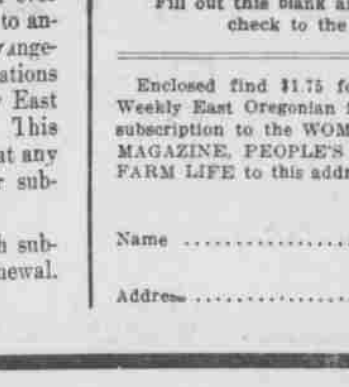

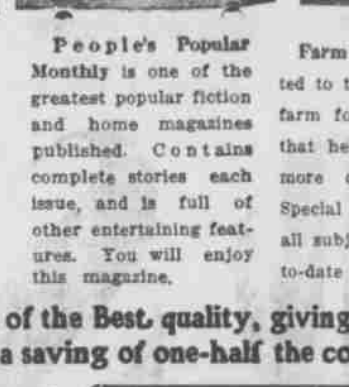

Rowboat Trip 400 Miles.

WENATCHEE, Wash., Sept. 22.—Robert L. Talbot and Earl D. Freeman, two Portland youths, aged 21 years, arrived in Wenatchee Saturday from Portland, making the 496-mile trip in a rowboat. They met disaster in Priest Rapids, when their 17-foot boat overturned, and they lost their baggage. They had planned on going to Canada by water, but they find it necessary to stop here and go to work for a while until they can reoutfit. Several boats have made the trip from Wenatchee to Portland, but so far as is known, these young men are the first to make the trip up the Columbia.

Osteopaths Demand Licenses.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 22.—The osteopathic feud that has been in swing in New Jersey for several years between two factions of the profession may be said to have reached a head here today when the state board of medical examiners was summoned before the supreme court on a rule to show cause why it should not be commanded to issue licenses to the graduates of the Passale College of Osteopathy, nearly a hundred in number.
