

GRAHAM CRACKERS

Here are shown a few pictures of the packages containing Swastika brand cakes and crackers. The packages are attractive and pleasing. You will recognize them on your dealer's shelf or counter by the blue sunburst and the golden swastika on each end of the package.

The contents are fully up to the high standard set by the package. Made right here in the Northwest, in fine, airy, sanitary bake shops, they come to you fresh and crisp, right from the ovens.

Ask for them at your dealer's. Look for the Swastika label on the ends of every package.

MUTTON GOES AT EXTREME PRICES

(Courtesy Wednesday's Journal.)
PORTLAND, Ore.—No offerings of mutton were shown on the local market today and the trend of the trade remains very firm. While $7 is still believed to be the extreme limit, it that killers are willing to offer at this time for lambs, forecasts of quotations for mutton providing the quality is right. Selected yearling weathers are in request with talk of $4 market, although no sales have been made at this price because none of this quality has been offering.

General mutton market:
Choice spring lambs 7.00
Common spring lambs 6.50@6.75
Choice yearling weathers 5.75
Good yearlings 5.50@5.75
Old weathers 4.75@5.00
Choice light ewes 4.75@5.00
Good ewes 3.75@4.00
Rough heavy ewes 3.50@3.60

Good Hogs Are Steady.
At $6.65 the market is steady for select quality hogs, but the best stuff available this morning, which was not exactly top quality, sold at $6.55.

Offerings of half fat hogs, of which the bulk of the supplies of late consisted, are neglected at various low prices.

General hog market range:
Best light $6.55@6.65
Medium light 6.45@6.50
Good to heavy 6.25@6.40
Rough to heavy 5.00@6.00

Cattle Trade Steady.
No change is shown in the cattle situation since Monday. Made-to-order quality in the steer division would still bring $6.90@7.00, but "ready-made" stuff, the average offerings of so-called toppers, are selling at a wide range according to quality. The trade requires light weights of quality but that is all.

General cattle market range:
Select steers $6.50@7.00
Best hay fed steers 6.25@6.35
Good to choice 6.00@6.25
Ordinary to fair 5.00@5.75
Best cows 5.00@5.25
Good to prime 4.50@4.75
Select bulls 4.50@4.75
Fancy bulls 4.25
Ordinary bulls 2.50@3.50
Best calves 7.50@8.00

INNOCENT SHAGGY DOG MAKES EXCELLENT SPY

LONDON, Sept. 1.—(By Mail)—How an apparently innocent shaggy coated dog proved to be a German spy was told today by wounded Canadian soldiers arriving from the front in Northern France.

Near the firing line there stood a coffee house inhabited by five persons including a little boy. On their way to the trenches the soldiers often stopped for refreshments, the occupants of the coffee house thus having excellent opportunity to collect valuable information regarding the troops in the neighborhood. Singularly the Canadians observed that their every move was known to the Germans in the opposite trenches. In one instance a regiment of Canadian troops moved unexpectedly to relieve a regiment of Scottish Cameron. Even the Scottish officers were unaware of the coming of the Canadians. No sooner, however, than the Canadians had taken their posts the Germans shouted across to them:

"Hell, Canadians; come out and fight."

The coffee house was immediately suspected. It was the only place to suspect. A raid found nothing. Later however, a Canadian soldier loitering in the neighborhood of the coffee house heard conversation in German. He quickly informed some comrades and a second raid was made. Like the first it availed nothing. Finally one of the soldiers resorted to bluff. The little boy then gave up the secret. The dog had been conveying messages to the German line. The Canadians had often seen the animal wandering about the trenches and had often patted it. An investigation proved that the animal wore a false coat of shaggy hair. Under this the messages were placed by the spies in the coffee house and the dog trotted calmly off to the German trenches, where he always found rest and food with the Germans.

The spies were arrested. Their fate has not been told.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity is Here, Backed By Pendleton Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement. Read Pendleton endorsement. Read the statements of Pendleton citizens. And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it.

J. D. Morrow, rancher and butcher, 517 Marie St., Pendleton, says: "I had pain in the small of my back for about three months. If I did any work that obliged me to stoop, sharp twinges darted through my back, just over my right kidney. The kidney action was very irregular and the kidney secretions pained when passing. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills removed all these troubles."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Morrow had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

When is Wild Duck Wild.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—"When a wild duck?"

This is the newest puzzle in the national capital. It is propounded by T. Gilbert Pearson, national authority on game birds, who came down here to tell the attorney-general there were too many illegal aigrettes in the fall millinery.

When you go into a hotel and don't care how much money you spend and look down the bill of fare to the place where it says "16," and then order "wild duck," how are you going to know it is "wild?"

That's what Washington is wondering. Pearson says one can't tell. He has got the courtmands guessing by his declaration that half the "canvas-back" ducks for which would-be epicureans are paying from $3 to $6 are merely "typographical errors" on the bill of fare. Privately he has confided to some of the bird sharks down here that most of the "wild ducks" on the hotel menus were raised in a yard and a pond with a fence around them. He positively defies anybody to tell the difference when the waiter brings them in.

Just because a wild duck is wild is no reason, Pearson says, why it should taste any better than a tame "wild" duck which has abandoned its wild ways and settled down into a plain, garden variety, businesslike duck. He says that men are making money raising "wild ducks" and that the National Audubon Society, of which he is secretary, is encouraging the industry as a means of preserving the game.

Lonie Hing Trial Renewed.

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 23.—The supreme court in an opinion by Justice Harris, reversed Circuit Judge Davis of Multnomah county, and remanded for a new trial the case of Lonie Hing, a Portland Chinese, convicted of manslaughter for the alleged killing of Lum Eong. The court held that the introduction of an un-certified paper which purported to show that Hing when arraigned gave his name as Gung Shing. Certain character testimony also was adjudged inadmissible.

Hing was indicted for murder in the second degree following the killing of Lum Eong in March, 1913. The jury returned a manslaughter verdict.

Milwaukee School Gains.

MILWAUKEE, Ore., Sept. 23.—Including students of the high school department and pupils of the grammar grades, the enrollment in the Milwaukee School is 275, which is a 20 per cent increase over the enrollment of last year. In the high school classes there are 59 pupils, many of whom come from outside districts.

The two manual training and domestic science departments are constantly increasing. In the domestic science department there are two classes in sewing, one in cooking and one in millinery. Miss Beatrice Jeffreys has charge of domestic science

Chemawa Pupils Absent.

CHEMAWA, Ore., Sept. 23.—With many of the 650 pupils of the Indian school absent at roll call school was opened for the year. The missing pupils are for the most part residents of Alaska or are employed in the fisheries there.

Canning operations have been going on by the girls' club, composed of 170 members, who have put up 2900 gallons of tomatoes under the direction of County Agricultural Chapt. Other things canned have been 2900 gallons of green corn, 3000
