The mill was erected in 1907 two miles from Marshfield by A. A. Courtney, who was then secretary of the Pacific Coast box combination.

Just at the time the mill was completed, the panic of 1907 came on and Courtney and his associates failed. Portland parties, including E. O. Samuels, purchased it and arranged to operate.

Inasmuch as the Java-China-Japan line employs Dutch crews and officers, the seamen's act, effective in November, will not affect it materially.
