Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Get Marriage License.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon by the county clerk to James Woodcock and Grace E. Doan of McKay.

Police Have Auto-Patrol.

During the Round-up the police department is keeping a night and day automobile patrol. Cecil Cole is driving his car for the officers and already it has proved a great help in covering the city.

Recruiting Officers Here.

Sergeants Elbert French and John Pyle, of the general recruiting service U. S. army, are in the city for the remainder of the week and will be glad to see any young men who are contemplating entering the cavalry, artillery, engineers and infantry.

Cuba Would Locate Here.

Cuba Crutchfield, world's champion trick and fancy roper, likes Pendleton. He likes this city so well that he would like to locate near here. Crutchfield has traveled all over America and declares Pendleton suits him better than any place. If he could find a suitable ranch, he declares he would make this city his home.

Commissioned by Lincoln.

In the list of articles placed in the box within the federal building cornerstone one historic document was overlooked. It is a commission as colonel for Col. W. L. Lathrop, a brother of Mrs. Mary Lane of this city. The commission is signed by President Lincoln. Col. Lathrop is of an historic family, his father having been in the war of 1812 and three generations of the family having served in the revolutionary army.

Edmunds Funeral.

The funeral of the late Clarence Edmunds who passed away at his home, 219 Beaugard street, on Wednesday evening, will be held at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Edmunds had been a prominent member of the Presbyterian church. Rev. J. E. Snyder will preach the funeral sermon and the Moose lodge will probably take charge of the ceremony at the graveside.

Northern Pacific Officials.

The following officials of the Northern Pacific are here today in attendance at the Round-up: H. E. Still, general western freight agent, and wife, Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Rowan, Tacoma; S. B. Calderhead, general agent, Walla Walla; L. M. Conry, traveling passenger agent, Spokane; E. L. Hopple, traveling freight agent, Spokane; G. C. Crittenden, road supervisor, Tacoma; W. T. Tyler, superintendent, Pasco; J. L. DeForce, superintendent, Spokane, and E. J. Moran, tralmaster, Pasco.

Car Found a Wreck.

The Hudson-six car of Jack Robinson which was stolen two nights ago was this morning hauled to town in a wrecked condition after having lain all day yesterday by the roadside two miles from town. The culprits evidently had traveled out in the country and on their return had broken down and abandoned the car. Mr. Robinson estimated by the amount of gasoline in the car when it was stolen that the thieves had gone about 50 miles and only left the car when it would no longer run. The lubricating oil and gasoline was used to the last drop and a catch that held the body of the car up was broken, letting the body down on the fenders. The estimated damage is about $100 and is covered by insurance. No clue has yet been obtained of the culprits.

AMERICAN PRIVATE KILLED AND 2 ARE WOUNDED IN FIGHT

MEXICANS ON THE BORDER SURPRISE SOLDIERS WHILE LATTER ARE ASLEEP.

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Sept. 24.—American Private Henry Stubblefield was killed and Captain A. P. Anderson and Private Cecil Kennedy were wounded when 30 Mexicans fired on 10 Americans sleeping in an arroyo at Progreso early today. Surprised, the soldiers left their rifles and fled. The Mexicans seized the weapons and disappeared in the grass before reinforcements arrived. The bandits crossed the river under cover of darkness, eluding the guards. The city of Mercedes is wrought up to a frenzy over the attack.

Seventy-five Mexicans are surrounded in a brush near Progreso, and troops are rushing from several points. It is believed they have no chance of escape. Bandits who tried to loot a general store at Progreso, during the excitement following news of the morning battle, were driven off with one killed and one wounded.

FIREMAN OF LOCOMOTIVE IS KILLED IN A WRECK

OMAHA, Sept. 24.—A misunderstanding of orders, according to Missouri Pacific officials, was responsible for a crash between a southbound passenger and a northbound freight at Oresapolis, Nebraska, which resulted in the death of H. C. Goodman of Kansas City, a passenger engineer. It is believed no passengers were killed, though several were hurt.

Bride Ill, Wedding Held.

LEBANON, Pa., Sept. 24.—Charles Dwight Sigbee, Jr., son of Admiral Charles D. Sigbee, U. S. N., retired, and Miss Agnes Falconer Haddock, daughter of James Haddock, of this city, were privately married here recently by Rev. Dr. T. E. Schmauck of Salem Lutheran church. The bride is seriously ill, and had urged a postponement of the ceremony, fixed some time ago, but the bridegroom insisted that there should be no delay. Mr. Sigbee is a safety engineer.

Chamberlain Likes Pendleton Round-Up

Senator George E. Chamberlain arrived this morning in the city after stopping at Hemmiston where he looked over the government project. The senator was an enthusiastic spectator at the morning exhibition of bucking, bulldozing and roping and again attended the big show this afternoon. So interested in the Round-up is he, that if possible he will remain tomorrow for the last day of the big exhibition.
