MORE THAN FIVE HUNDRED DIE IN SOUTHERN STORM

Reports Indicate Large Toll of Lives Has Been Taken in West Indian Hurricane Along Gulf.

THOUSANDS WITHOUT HOMES

Relief Boats Are Being Rushed to the Stricken Districts—Many Persons Reported Marooned in Tree-Tops—Property Damage in Southern Louisiana is $10,000,000.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 2.—More than 500 persons dead and 300 wounded stood as the appalling estimate in the recent West Indian hurricane in Louisiana and Mississippi, reports tabulated indicated. The death list at New Orleans is placed at 22. Two hundred and eight are reported dead along the Mississippi from Myrtle Grove to Barman. Hundreds still are marooned in the flooded sections along the coast. Boats have gone to their rescue. Three hundred are marooned at Empire, Louisiana. More than 150 schooners are reported ashore between Gulf Port and New Orleans. The estimate of property damage vary. Ten million dollars alone is estimated in southern Louisiana.

Four houses are reported to be the only structures left at Empire near the Doudloch canal. In these the remnants of a village of 200 are jammed, anxiously awaiting the coming of a rescue boat. From points at some distance from the city, came reports that many are marooned in tree-tops. Relief boats, loaded with food supplies, nurses and doctors have gone to aid the stricken districts in Louisiana and Mississippi. The plan, if possible, is to take care of the situation without appeal for help from outside. New Orleans is handling its own situation admirably and the work of clearing up the debris is progressing rapidly. Wire service is now practically normal with the outside world.

HUNTINGTON, Oct. 2.—To meet, love, wed and be separated from her husband just two days after the marriage ceremony, was the varied experience of Miss Evangeline Thayer, now Mrs. W. T. Patton of Huntington.

While Miss Thayer called for a physician and Patton, representing himself to be a member of the profession from Portland, responded. In pay for services he asked his patient's hand instead and his request was granted. The wedding was a week from the first meeting.

At the very outset of the honeymoon, advice were received by Marshall Hanson from the Salem penitentiary, that Patton was a parole convict and Joseph F. Banquet to Round-Up Workers Proves a Great Success

UNQUALIFIED SUPPORT IS PLEDGED TO PENDLETON'S FRONTIER SHOW.

Relucting in the great success of the Round-up and Happy Canyon entertainments last week, a hundred men of Pendleton and Umatilla county last night gathered about the banquet board in the Hotel Pendleton dining room and pledged themselves to a united effort to bring continued success and permanency to the city's great frontier festival. The banquet was given by the business men of the city and to the other men who had aided materially in making the Round-up a success.

The banquet was an elaborate affair, perfect in its appointments, details and conviviality. "Mine Host" Fred Bloch personally supervised the service. One of the features of the evening was the singing of Miss Doris Reber, the "Queen Doris of the Round-up." She sang several beautiful selections, gracefully moving among the banqueters the while, and was recalled again and again by the outbursts of applause. Finally led the famous "Tipperary" song and the whole room joined in. Bert Jernard played her accompaniment and later he and R. E. Thompson sang the official Round-up song, "Let 'er Buck."

J. Roy Raley, first president of the Round-up, acted as toastmaster and introduced more than two dozen speakers who were limited to a minute and a half each. The directors of the Round-up responded with expressions of thanks for the support of the people of Pendleton in staging their show. A number of the speakers declared that there was a great deal of pessimism in the city before the 1915 show, people believing the Round-up was on the wane. Notwithstanding this, they said, the directors staged the greatest show yet put on and drew larger crowds than a year before. The result has been, the speakers declared, a wonderful revival of spirit and enthusiasm which will be back of the directorate from now on.

The banquet lasted until 11:30 and good fellowship and jolly reigned every minute of the time. The banquet was one of the most successful affairs of its kind ever held here.

BULGARIA WILL JOIN AUSTRO-GERMANS IN ATTACK ON BALKANS

PLAN IS TO SQUEEZE SERBIA BETWEEN THREE IMMENSE ARMIES.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Within a fortnight Bulgaria will join the Austro-Germans in a combined attempt to cut through the Balkans to Constantinople, according to reliable information. The plan is to squeeze Serbia between three armies. The Austro-Germans would attack the western and the northern frontiers, while the Bulgarians would hurt their forces from the east. These could occupy Macedonia, unless the aid of allied troops to the Serbians give promise that these attempts will be repelled. The allied capitals have no further doubt of Bulgaria's intentions. They have accepted foreign Minister Gray's statement of Bulgarian aid in Bulgaria's mobilization as a certain forerunner of Bulgaria's entrance on the side of the central powers.
