for a three days' session on the 17th, 18 and 19th. County Superintendent I. E. Young is now making plans for the meetings. In order that as many delegates as possible will be able to attend, the O.-W. is going to offer rates of a fare and a third on the certificate plan, and all teachers may avail themselves of these rates to attend the institute.

La Dow here, and many local sportsmen are all prepared to go as soon as the birds flock to their favorite watering places. Among the hunters now out in the deer country are Roy and Earl Kirkpatrick.

Seeking a Location.
Ell D. Miller of Portland has written the local Commercial association saying he is looking for a site to start a furniture factory and seeks to obtain information of what Pendleton offers in advantages. He writes: "If there are no sawmills in Pendleton, there is no need of answering this letter." As this city has no sawmills, the opportunity of getting Mr. Miller's furniture factory is nil.

Didn't Get a Deer.
W. C. E. Pruitt and Col. James H. Raley returned this morning from a week's hunting trip at Bear Wallow and Old Badley Springs but all the time they were gone never got sight of a deer. They bagged plenty of grouse, however. Mr. Pruitt reports the country around that section full of deer hunters, about 15 or 20 being already camped at various points. There have been plenty of deer in that section but the hunters have them well thinned out. Mr. Pruitt and Col. Raley saw many signs of bear but having no dogs with them made no efforts to bring home a brain.

He had been in the sheep business for the last several months, buying and selling on commission, and reports that he has cleared up several thousand dollars in the business. He has done most of his buying in Union county. In the hills of that county this summer, he says, many hundred head of sheep have been lost and sheepmen have been unable to account for it. Predatory animals have killed a large number, he reports, but more mysterious is the fact that the sheep stray into the hills and, escaping predatory animals, no trace of them is ever found. Mr. Bissett and some friends are planning a hunting party soon into the country around Meacham creek where he reports bear and deer are plentiful.
