SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

A much enlarged choir of well trained voices will render the music Sunday at the Church of the Redeemer. During the week the choir has been thoroughly re-organized and now comprises twenty or more members. Its first appearance on next Sunday is sure to be much enjoyed by the congregation. Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt, former organist, again will assume her place at the organ, and the soloist will be Mrs. J. R. Dickson. The choir will in future be under the direction of Hal Bishop. During the week he has been busily engaged with rehearsals. The singers have taken up their work with much enthusiasm thus assuring the greater appreciation of the congregation of the sacred music which is so essential to the Sunday services.

Members of the Current Literature club are being entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. E. Ringo. Mrs. Roy Raley and Mrs. Ringo are hostesses.

One of the prominent women's clubs of Pendleton will be represented at the state federation of women's clubs of Oregon, which is to be held in Salem the twenty-fifth to the twenty-eighth of this month. Delegates having been chosen yesterday afternoon by the Thursday Afternoon club to attend the gatherings which will be of vast interest to the various activities of women in the state. Mrs. George Hartman, past president of the club, will be one of the delegates, and the other will be Mrs. W. D. McNary. Mrs. John Vert and Mrs. G. I. La Dow were chosen as alternates.

The Thursday Afternoon club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Thomas Thompson at her home in Monroe street. Appropriate to the season, the home decorations were carried out in Autumn leaves. There were three interesting papers read by members of the club, the first being by Mrs. George Hartman on the subject "Doctors' Wives and Mothers." Mrs. G. I. La Dow read the second paper of the afternoon, her subject being "Nursing in the Schools." At the conclusion of this interesting paper, two piano solos were given by Miss Harriett Young, who recently returned from musical studies at Berlin. The final paper of the afternoon was read by Mrs. C. F. Coleworthy upon the subject "Great Women in Medicine."

At the next regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. it is expected that an interesting report will be made by the president, Mrs. G. W. Rusk, who is now attending the national convention of the organization at Seattle. The last meeting was held Tuesday afternoon at the Baptist church but owing to the absence of Mrs. Rusk no special business came before the members.

The members of the Jolly Neighbors will be entertained Tuesday afternoon next by Mrs. Charles Murohy at her home at the Eastern Oregon State Hospital grounds. This will be the second meeting of this club for the season. Cards as usual will be enjoyed.

A. H. Peterson and family of Helix are leaving today for Long Beach, California, where they will remain during the winter.

It is announced that the Laborer entertainment that was set for the Methodist church for October 18 under the auspices of the civic club, has been postponed.

The civic club will meet at the city hall tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. It will be an interesting session as delegates are to be chosen to the state convention and other business will be up for consideration.

The degree team of the Woodmen of the World has arranged for a dance Monday evening at the Eagle-Woodman hall to which the members of the order, their families and their friends have been invited. A pleasant time is assured those who attend. A. Fitz Gerald, as captain of the degree team, has been charge of the committee of arrangements.

"I Appeal to Your Patriotism"

How many times has each of us heard this appeal from a flag-draped platform by some orator in the throes of an epoch-making speech in favor of Oregon Industry?

And after this soul-stirring imitation of Daniel Webster's best, we have gone home to try to forget all about Oregon Industry in general and our patriotism in particular.

Still, it can and will be done—if we act now—to make the year 1916 known in history as the one in which this section was transformed from a one-sided merchandising chain of cities to a balanced, rounded commercial and manufacturing center. There was never a better time to make the stand.

The home industries are appealing to your patriotism and pride, and they are appealing to it from the dollars and cents standpoint. Therefore, give preference to the Oregon-made article where price and quality are equal and especially remember with your patronage the following concerns who have subscribed to this campaign:

- "AUTO-LAC" TOP DRESSING. Top and body building, painting. Auto Top Co., 525 Alder, Portland.
- AUTO REPAIRING AND REBUILDING. C. B. Miners & Co., 14th and Alder, Portland, Or.

Coughs and Colds Not to Be Neglected

Anyone will realize the seriousness of neglecting a cold if he observes results of such neglect among his acquaintances. How often have you heard, "He caught cold, didn't do anything for it and it turned into"—then some dreaded disease is named!

Ordinary colds yield to prompt treatment at the beginning. That is why every family should be supplied with a reliable cough medicine—one that will heal raw and inflamed surfaces, loosen the phlegm, allay irritation, ease the hoarseness and stop the tickling sensation in the throat that does not permit one to sleep.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is invaluable for relief of coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, tickling in throat, tightness or soreness, grippe or bronchial coughs. It contains no harmful ingredients. It is healing, soothing, efficient and pleasant.

Court Says Husband Boss

READING, Pa., Oct. 14.—That a husband is head of his family and the "boss of his household" was decided by Presiding Judge Endlich in court here.

In a non-support case, in which Mrs. Estelle Artz declared her husband, Jacob Artz, was "bossy and wanted his own way," resulting in separation and a non-support suit, Judge Endlich very emphatically told the complainant that the husband should be the ruler of the house.

3 Officers Recalled

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Oct. 14.—Yakima county's three commissioners, Jim Lancaster, William Stahlhut and James Stuart, were recalled by overwhelming majorities in the county's first recall election. Twenty-one precincts out of 92 gave 1288 to 296 for recall. It is conceded that this proportion is fairly representative.

The recall movement against the commissioners grew out of the grand jury investigation last spring, when indictments for malfeasance were returned against the commissioners and recall was recommended. The recall leaders insist the recall has taken effect today and threaten injunction if the commissioners attempt to transact further business. They say that Governor Lister will come here at once to confer with the voters and appoint successors to the recalled officials.
