BANK AT RENTON ROBBED YESTERDAY $1416 CASH TAKEN

TWO MEN HOLD UP CASHIER, THEN MAKE ESCAPE THROUGH BRUSH.

Robbery occurred at Small Town but Six Miles from Seattle; Cashier Did Not Parley When Told to Throw Up His Hands—Masks Not Worn.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 20.—Two armed men who held up the Citizens State Bank of Renton and robbed the cashier, W. W. Gilham, of $1416 in gold and currency yesterday, fled into the brush skirting Lake Washington and escaped from police and deputy sheriffs who sought to surround them. Stanley Reese, 19 years old, was shot in the left foot by one of the robbers, who fired several shots as they climbed into an automobile waiting outside the bank. Reese was not seriously hurt.

Harry Anderson, driver of the automobile which the robbers abandoned at Rainier Beach, midway between Renton and Seattle, said that he knew nothing of the robbers' intentions until after they had robbed the bank and jumped back into his car when they compelled him to take them to Rainier Beach.

Masks Not Worn. The men were not masked. Each was about 30 years old and of medium build.

The two men entered the bank at Renton, which is a manufacturing town six miles south of Seattle, at 1:40 o'clock this afternoon, while one person, a woman, was in the bank lobby. One of the men went to the cashier's cage, pointed a large pistol at the cashier, and said: "Give me that money or I'll kill you. Give it to me quick!"

Money Handled Over. Cashier Gilham did not parley with the man, but pushed the money in the cage. The robber seized it and, with his companion, ran down the street two blocks to where a large automobile was standing, with a chauffeur evidently waiting for the robbers. The machine tore away at full speed in the direction of Seattle, the thieves firing a few shots as they went.

Cheese and Butter Again Figure in U. S. Export Trade

AFTER LONG PERIOD OF INACTIVITY, PRODUCTS AGAIN COME TO FRONT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Cheese, butter and other butter fats are again becoming important factors in our export trade after a long period of comparative inactivity. Fifteen or twenty years ago the United States was selling abroad between 20 million and 30 million pounds of butter, from 50 million to 80 million pounds of cheese, and from 2 million to 10 million pounds of imitation butter annually. In later years, however, exports of this class decreased in a marked degree and in the fiscal year 1914 had fallen far below the DRIFTWOOD. It had drifted away from harbor and bay, Out of sight of tower and town; An old, an empty and battered boat, But the boat did not go down, The sail still hung from its broken masts, And its painted pride was dim, The salt seaweed clung round its bows As it drifted with the wind. Fierce storms had tossed it on mountains of foam, Had swept o'er it billows of spray, And the sun had gleamed through its tattered shrouds, When its fury had passed away, Still it floated on, by headland and bay, Out of sight of the busy town; Good ships go down in stormy seas, But these empty boats drift on. The world hath lives like this drifting boat; Hearts that are empty and sad, That set their sails in the morning of life With songs that were joyous and glad; But their anchor of hope is cast away, And their flag of faith is furled, And they that sailed for the skies are now But the driftwood of the world. —By F. I. Maddock.

quantities named. In the year just ended there was a distinct revival in all lines, with totals closely approximating the high levels touched in the decade from 1890 to 1900.

The large gains made by domestic dairy products and butter substitutes are well illustrated by figures published by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, department of commerce, in the June "Summary of Foreign Commerce." Butter, usually averaging about 3 1/2 million pounds annually in our export trade, in 1915 went to nearly 10 million pounds. During this period imports of butter were reduced by more than one-half, falling from a little less than 8 million pounds in 1914 to less than 4 million pounds last year.

American cheese, running at about 2 1/2 million pounds a year, went to 5 1/2 million pounds in the fiscal year 1915. Here also, as in the case of butter, the trade balance was transferred to the export side, for the year's imports of cheese last year only totaled 50 million pounds, a decrease of 13 3/4 million pounds from the total for 1914.

Exports of condensed milk, usually exported in sums valued at between 1 million and 2 million dollars annually, in 1915 rose to 3 million dollars in value, the quantity (37 million pounds) being double that of 1914.

Imitation butter contains in addition to oleomargarine oil some butter fat. The export of this article also doubled, rising from 2 1/2 million pounds in 1914 to 5 1/4 million pounds last year.

England has become our largest foreign market for butter, cheese, and condensed milk, having taken 2 1/2 million pounds of butter, out of a total export of 10 million pounds; 4 1/2 million pounds of cheese, out of a total export of 5 1/4 million pounds; and 4 million pounds of condensed milk, out of a total export of 37 million pounds. Canada, Cuba, Panama, Australia, and Venezuela also take considerable quantities of American butter; Panama and the West Indies are important markets for our cheese; while Cuba, Belgium, the Netherlands, China, Japan, Hongkong, Russia, Chosen, Panama and Brazil take large amounts of American condensed milk.

These exports, while important, a very small proportion of the annual products of the 60 million cattle on American farms, valued at more than 2 1/2 billion dollars. As long ago as 1909, the latest period covered by the national census, we produced 1619 million pounds of butter, 321 million pounds of cheese, and 7,814 million gallons of milk, while the quantity of oleomargarine on which internal revenue tax was paid in 1914 aggregated 142 million pounds.

RAILROAD BOOSTING FOR CORN SHOW TO BE HELD DEC. 2-3-4

O.-W. R. & N. HAS ISSUED PREMIUM LIST OF AFFAIR AT WALLA WALLA.

The corn show organized and managed by the O.-W. R. & N. company is now being advertised and local agent, T. F. O'Brien has received copies of the premium lists. The show this year will be held at Walla Walla on December 2, 3 and 4.

Answering the question, "Why a Corn Show?" the following statement of interest to farmers has been given out by the railroad. Because agriculture is the most important industry, the basis of all business prosperity, the more successful and prosperous the business of agriculture the greater and more prosperous will be every other line of business.

The history of agriculture in this and other countries demonstrates the fact that to be permanently successful and satisfactory the system of farming should include a diversity of crops which live stock in some form as an important factor. This will provide for the maintenance of soil fertility, the continuous and profitable employment of labor, with more certain and continuous income. It leads logically to crop rotation, which is the best known check against plant diseases and insect pests.

Methods of farming in any section are largely influenced by public opinion. When everybody in a community gets to talking about apples, hops, cotton, corn, grapes or wheat, then the average man forms the habit of thinking in terms of wheat, corn or cotton, as the case may be.

The primary purpose of a corn show is to convince the skeptical that corn will grow here; that it can be made one of the leading and most profitable crops; to show them what is being done and teach them how to do it; to create a public opinion that gives recognition to the fact that:

The corn plant will produce the largest amount of feed per acre of any plant grown.

It is the best and cheapest feed to make a balanced ration with alfalfa.

It is one of the best crops to grow in rotation with grain, grass and root crops.

It will profitably utilize a larger measure of stable manure than any other crop.

When the ground is properly prepared and the crop cultivated as it should be, it is more profitable and satisfactory in cleaning a field from weeds than summer fallow.

It is the best, most economical and satisfactory crop to grow for a green feed to supplement dry pastures in July, August and September.

An acre of corn will produce more and better silage than any other crop. Good, well grown, properly cured silage, to the amount of one-half the daily ration, is one of the best known foods for dairy cows, young growing stock or fattening steers.

Throughout the Pacific Northwest the people had accepted the idea that corn could not be successfully and profitably grown. The fact is, however, that corn can be grown quite as profitably in every county of Oregon, Washington or Idaho as in other parts of the country.

BIG OPIUM SHIPMENT CAPTURED ON SOUND

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 19.—Eight hundred pounds of smoking opium valued at $75,000, was seized today by customs officers on board the blue funnel liner Catches. The opium was contained in 500 hermetically sealed tins which were secreted in an air-shaft. The Catches, bound from Vancouver to Seattle, went aground 10 days ago at Point Wilson. After being pulled off she was towed to Seattle and placed in drydock for extensive repairs.

JUDGE AND DEFENDANT IN DIRECTORS TRIAL

JUDGE HUNT. The pictures show Federal Judge Hunt, before whom the ex-directors of the New Haven railroad are being tried on conspiracy charge in New York city and William Rockefeller, brother of John D. Rockefeller, one of the directors on trial. The pictures were made as the men were entering the federal building in New York on Thursday. Rockefeller is 74 years of age.

WHEN you're tramping all over creation after game, you don't want a big bunch of ordinary tobacco sweating in your hip pocket. There is tobacco satisfaction for two, and plenty of it, in the sweat-proof sanitary pouch of Real Tobacco Chew.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough—cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

ASK YOUR DEALER FOR W-B CUT CHEWING TOBACCO. IT IS THE NEW REAL TOBACCO CHEW—CUT LONG SHRED.

Take less than one-quarter the old size chew. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just take a nibble of it until you find the strength chew that suits you, then see how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end. The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up. An excess of licorice and sweetening makes you spit too much. One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind. (Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste.)
