THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE

Where It Pays to Trade.

German Fish Cut Off, LONDON, Oct. 22.—Because the British fleet has been hunting German trawlers in the North Sea, especially on Dogger Bank, the Germans have withdrawn their fishing fleet from the North Sea, according to a dispatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph company. As the result the message adds the price of fish in Germany is again up and the price of fish in Sweden is falling in sympathy. The inward effects of humors are worse than the outward. They endanger the whole system. Hood's Sarsaparilla eradicates all humors, cures all their inward and outward effects. It is the great alterative and tonic, whose merit has been everywhere established.—Ady.
