NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Football Boys Here.

The football squad of the University of Oregon, stopped off between trains today on the way to Walla Walla where they are scheduled to play Whitman college tomorrow.

Wants Information.

M. S. Wallace of San Fernando, Cal., is seeking information regarding strawberry raising in Umatilla county. His communication is now being considered by the Commercial association.

Warehouse Is Closed.

Owing to the fact the farmers will not haul any more wheat until after they have completed their fall seeding, the warehouse at Lens, operated by the Pendleton Roller Mills, has been closed. Foreman L. L. Bakken came here today to work in the local warehouse and will not return to Lens until the farmers begin to haul in their wheat again.

Putting in Basement.

Workmen are engaged in putting in a basement under the building at Court and Garden streets.

Council This Evening.

The city council will hold a special session this evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock when several paving ordinances will be considered.

Working on Sewer.

Laborers have been at work the past few days digging along south Main street opposite the O-W. R. & N. freight office to connect up the south side sewer.

Now in Illinois.

B. L. Ballard, former Pendleton attorney, is now practicing law at St. Charles, Illinois. Mr. Ballard left Pendleton nearly a year ago, going from here to Houston, Texas. Friends have received work from him that he recently located in the Illinois town.

Attachment Suit Filed.

An attachment suit was filed today in the circuit court against V. W. Beeman and W. A. Black, under the firm name of Beeman and Black, by E. C. McCook and L. S. Bentley, doing business as McCook & Bentley, to recover, among other items, $400 alleged to be due on a note. Raley & Raley are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

Potato Crop Is Large.

Elmer and George Ferguson, who are farming on Weston mountain, were in the city today on business. They report that they have raised one of the biggest potato crops in years. George Ferguson was formerly employed in Alexander's department store.

Movies at Hospital.

The moving picture exhibitions at the Eastern Oregon State Hospital recommenced on Tuesday evening and the inmates enjoyed several reels of a diversified nature. These entertainments will be given each Tuesday and Friday evenings during the winter months. One reel of comedy, one reel of drama and one reel of travel is the program as outlined.

Finish on Highways.

H. R. Newport and Mark Bartholl, of the Newport Land and Construction company of Hermiston, are here today after having finished their work on the Columbia highway from the Multnomah county line to Viento. This company is the first to complete their share of the work and secure a settlement on the contract. In this case it amounts to $75,000. All differences which existed over the work have been satisfactorily adjusted, they report.

Man Is Released.

B. L. Titus, who was being held by the police pending an investigation to ascertain if he was the one who is being sought by his parents in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was yesterday released from custody it being learned that he is not the Vernon J. Bower who ran away from home. Exhaustive search is being made for Bower and the police here received notice to pick up anyone answering his description. Titus was almost a duplicate of the description and that was the reason he was held.

Seeking Homes for Families.

A request has reached the Commercial Association from S. L. Peterson of E. 303 5th avenue, Spokane, for information of available land for homestead purposes in Umatilla county. He says he is seeking to locate five or six families and possibly 10 families if a sufficient acreage can be obtained. He says he wants to get from 160 to 320 acres for each of his prospective customers. He says he wants to get places with some improvements and where future developments would make ideal homesteads.

Course Opens November 18.

The first number of the high school lyceum course will be here on November 18 at the high school auditorium when the Oxford Opera company will give its program. James L. White, northwestern manager of the Ellison-White lyceum and chautauqua system is now here and will work in conjunction with the high school committee in placing season tickets. Mr. White says that the entertainments to be given here this winter are the very best that have ever been in Pendleton. Claude Hart Ogden, tenor with the Oxford company, is one of the best on the opera stage today and local music lovers will be given a treat when he appears here with that company.

Successful Operation.

One of the most successful skin-grafting operations ever performed in the state or in fact in the northwest is the work of Dr. I. U. Temple upon a farm hand named Burrows. Burrows has been in St. Anthony's hospital since last harvest season and is steadily improving. He will soon be able to be about. Burrows was injured while at work on the ranch of Jim Wyzick, the skin of one of his legs below the knee being horribly torn and mangled. The man was taken to the hospital and Dr. Temple attended him. Taking the good skin from the upper portion of the man's leg, the physician grafted it to the bruised part. The operation has been a complete success and Burrows will suffer no ill-consequences from his injury.

THE GREAT MORAL AND HYGIENE PLAY

"Damaged Goods"

Tonight Your Last Chance

Christian Church Study.
Pendleton, Ore., Oct. 20, '15.
Manager of Temple Theatre,
Dear Sir:
It gives pleasure to know that you are bringing to our city such a high class educational and moral production as is "Damaged Goods." The whole community should appreciate your efforts in this line. The play contains a greatly needed lesson on clean, pure living that will be helpful to the young men and women.
Yours sincerely,
H. H. HUBBELL
Pastor Christian Church.

Read what the Clergy say about Damaged Goods

To the People of Pendleton.
The problem play, "Damaged Goods," to be put on at the Temple Theatre in a 7-reel film Thursday and Friday of this week, has the unqualified endorsement of the Oregon Social Hygiene Society, of which I am a member. It is a strong moral play and I take pleasure in commending it to the people of Pendleton. Children, however, should not be permitted to attend without their parents.
J. E. SNYDER,
Pastor Presbyterian Church.

Performances start at 12:00 o'clock, noon, and run continuous. We are running the reels slow, making the acting realistic and exactly like life. Complete performance every two hours. Children under 16 not admitted unless accompanied by their parents.
