Husband: "This is certainly some dandy piece of meat. Where did you get it?"

Wife: "Why, dear, that's a PEMECO steak from the Central market. Their meats are of the VERY BEST QUALITY, and, best of all, their PRICES ARE LOW. It's a pleasure to deal with them. Their delivery service is excellent."

Can you really say this about your butcher?

You can say it about us—if you will just give us a trial.

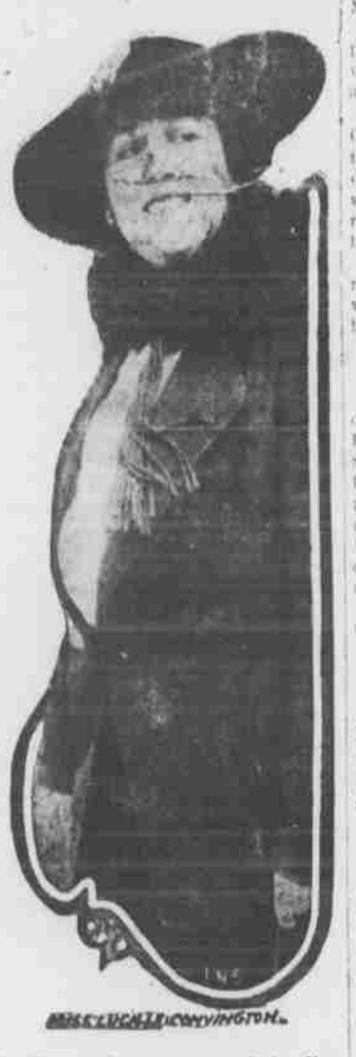
NOTED DIVINE WEPT AS HE WOOED.



MISS LUCILLE COVINGTON.

Lucille Covington, snapped in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Miss Lucille Covington, who is suing Dr. John Wesley Hill, noted preacher and president of the Peace Forum for $100,000 for breach of promise to marry, says that Dr. Hill wept as he told her of losing his wife and having three children which he wished Miss Covington to care for.

Miss Covington, who is darkhaired, plump and attractive, says that she will introduce letters from Dr. Hill as evidence in the case.

As a result of his pleading, Miss Covington says, she agreed to marry the noted divine, but that she was disillusioned shortly afterwards, when she discovered that he had already married a second wife, after his first wife had died.

"He confessed that he was married," she says, "but told me his wife was an invalid and might die at any time."

THE WOMAN AND HER WORK

Janet Scudder, Sculptor.

"The Little Lady of the Sea."

At an exhibition of women's work for the benefit of the cause of woman suffrage, Janet Scudder, who has won fame as a sculptor, exhibited her life size statue, "The Little Lady of the Sea." It served to show that women sculptors have become bold and are not to be confined to mere subjects as in the past. The statue was one of the most admired pieces of work at the exhibition.

Miss Scudder is daring in other ways too. She has dared to give her age in the official biographies of herself. She was born in Terre Haute and she studied in Cincinnati, Chicago and Paris. Her work has been exhibited in the Paris Salon, and some of her work is in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

CHARLTON IS GUILTY AND WILL SERVE IN ITALIAN JAIL MONTH

AMERICAN WHO MURDERED WIFE AT LAKE COMO GIVEN SENTENCE.

Has Been in Jail Five Years and Four Months so he Will Have to Serve but 30 Days More Before Being Free—Time Reduced One Year by Royal Decree.

LAKE COMO, Italy, Oct. 26.—Porter Charlton, an American, was found guilty here of murdering his wife, formerly Mary Scott Castle of San Francisco. He was immediately sentenced to six years and five months' imprisonment. As Charlton has already served six years and four months he has only one more month to serve.

Charlton was accused of beating his wife, formerly Mary Scott Castle, to death and throwing her body inside of a trunk into Lake Como. The charge against him was that of "unpremediated murder," the maximum penalty for which is 25 years.

Charlton had served but five years and four months imprisonment, but a year was shaved off his term at the beginning of the war by Royal decree. The royal decree affected all prisoners. After the verdict of guilty was returned, the prosecutor asked that Charlton be sentenced to seven years and six months imprisonment, but the presiding judge refused to comply with the request.

Charlton is the son of former Judge Paul Charlton, of the Porto Rican courts. He was 21 years old when he committed the crime on June 5, 1910. The body of his wife was found four days later in a trunk in Lake Como. He fled and was arrested as he stepped from the steamer in Hoboken, N. J., remaining in jail for three years before he was extradited.

Mrs. Charlton was 20 years his senior. They were married secretly at Wilmington, Del., three months before he killed her.

Charlton represented his wife was an extremely irrational woman, highly excitable, dissolute and insanely jealous.

Good success is promised in the singing.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid in the blood, which affects the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive process.

Captured Goods Wanted.

PARIS, Oct. 26.—Manufacturers whose works have been stripped of machines by the Germans propose that an official commission make an inventory of the machines that have disapepared as soon as may be possible. It is pointed out by manufacturers that the payment of an indemnity for the machines will not be sufficient, since many months, in some cases years, will be required to replace the machinery. Consequently the French manufacturers will demand the return of the machines themselves.

These machines, they assert, were not all taken because they were needed in Grmany, but in order to paralyze the industries of northern France after the eventual declaration of peace.

Swedish Steamer Sunk.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Wisby, Sweden, says that the Swedish steamer Rumina, of 1485 tons, has struck a mine off the East Granton light coast.

The force of the explosion broke her in two, the forward part sinking immediately.

The Rumina had been captured by a German submarine and a German officer was put in charge.

Six of the crew, who were asleep in the forecastle, were drowned. The rest of the crew and the German officer escaped in boats and landed on the Island of Gotland.
