BIG SUFFRAGE PARADE HELD IN NEW YORK

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—What probably is the biggest suffrage parade on record was scheduled to start up Fifth avenue this evening.

Twenty-five thousand women and 2000 men, carrying 25,000 fluttering banners, were forming in marching order to inspire enough favorable New York voters to give suffrage a landslide at the November 2d election.

Among the 2000 men marchers were such well known personalities as these: Will Irwin, author; George Middleton, playwright; William M. Mackay, artist; Allen McCurdy, clergyman; Samuel Merwin, author; William Rose Bennett, editor; Wytter Hinner, poet; Sinclair Lewis and Charles Norris, authors.

These were supplemented by lawyers, doctors, actors, business men and just citizens.

Gigantic banners declaring "Wilson for Suffrage," "Suffrage Means Better Babies," "Suffrage Means Pure Milk," "Suffrage Means Clean Streets," "Seven Million Women Vote Elsewhere in the World; Why not in New York?"; and costing about $2500 made the parade a veritable river of gay colors. In the midst of all the bright banners, how-

ENGLISHMEN HOLD TO RIGHT OF FREE SPEECH DESPITE THE WAR

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
LONDON, Sept. 8.—(By Mail)—The war hasn't killed free speech in England. When an Englishman wins a right, he holds to it.

Here's a scene at Trafalgar Square last Sunday.

A huge crowd gathered around Nelson monument; a tall man with an iron grey beard standing on the historic plinth; a banner either side him; his strong voice fills the square.

One banner reads, "These policemen were fined for trying to start a policeman's union." Graves, McFas and Smith, it appears, were the names of the unfortunate coppers. Another banner reads, "What about war bonuses for policemen and prison warders?"

The man is talking about oppressed policemen! Being an American and coming from a land of free and emancipated policemen, you laugh.

But this thousand persons listen intently to the woes of the "Union of Policemen and Prison Warders." "They won't let us have a union," he shouts. "England is in the midst of a great war, with a country that is ruled by tyrants. But I want to tell you that there are no tyrants in the world meaner than the men who govern the police department."

He points a long arm down Whitehall—which is the Pennsylvania avenue of London—as much as to say: "Who will go down Whitehall with me and blow up police headquarters?"

On the same spot where he stands the suffrage riots were started; from this same place thousands of Englishmen, at different times in English history, have massed their way down "Government avenue" to the office of the unhappy erring official. As he talks now a score of policemen are standing by to see that no one interferes with his free speech.

He may curse the government all he pleases, even though the government is knee deep in war.

For an hour he talks about the woes of the unhappy policeman. Not a word does he say about enlistment, or England's need for men.

Then he rolls up his two banners, climbs down off the plinth and goes away.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—(By Mail)—"Three cheers for American bacon!" "Lards American!" the French call it, but by any other name, it is as appetizing. They did not know of bacon before the war. That is by that name.

The Belgian relief committee has informally let the packers of Chicago know that the Belgians and the northern French war sufferers have become enthusiastic boosters of this by-product of the American hog.

Each new consignment of bacon that reaches the Belgian or French relief stations is taken quickly by the war sufferers.

The head of one of the big American packing companies, now in Europe says:

"American packers are getting better advertisement for bacon here in Europe than they are at the world's fairs."

"When the war is over and the people in Northern France are able to tell the people in southern France what they think of American bacon, I think the French will add another delicacy to their cuisine."

False Alarm Costs $1.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—Two men were arrested at Fourth and Callow streets when one was overheard offering the other $1 to pull a firebox and treat the visiting firemen to a demonstration of the rapidity with which the city apparatus can turn out. The prisoners, who were arrested by Police Schrandt of the Seventh district, gave their names as William Hauck, 24 years old, and David Donnelly, 32 years old.

According to Deputy Fire Marshal Caldwell, Hauck was coaxing Donnelly to accept a dollar bill and ring an alarm of fire. A passerby overheard the conversation and walked to the opposite corner and told the cop on that beat. Schrandt walked into a nearby store and donned civilian clothing, then returned and stood behind the two men. Upon examining the box the policeman found the glass broken and he took both men into custody.

"The Unborn" will be produced for the first time in New York November 5. It is claimed to be of more vital social importance than Brieux's "Damaged Goods." Among the sponsors who are financing and otherwise assisting in producing this play are:

Belmont, Princess Troubetzkoy (Amelia Rivers), Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Judge Ben Lindsey and Dr. C. H. Parkhurst. The Medical Review of Reviews, and its president, Frederick H. Healthy Old Age Brings Happiness

SIMPLE REMEDY PROMOTES HEALTH BY OVERCOMING TENDENCY TO CONSTIPATION.

Advancing years impair the action of the vital organs. Old age should be the period of greatest happiness, but good health is necessary. Constipation should not be tolerated—it is often the direct cause of ill health.

Headache, belching, biliousness, bloot, drowsiness after eating and other symptoms of constipation can be readily relieved by the use of a simple laxative compound sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Mr. J. H. Bristol, 1412 Geddes Ave., Ann Arbor, Mich., who is 82 years old, says "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best remedy I ever used for constipation and I always have a bottle of it in the house to use when I feel the need of it; it never disappoints."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a mild laxative preparation, positive in its effect, acting easily and naturally without griping or other pain or discomfort. For over a quarter of a century it has been the standard household remedy in thousands of homes. Druggists everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle. A trial bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.
