EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

YOU CAN BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE WITH SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

LAWRENCE SPERRY. ELMER SPERRY.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Elmer A. Sperry, president of the Sperry Gyroscopic company of Brooklyn, and his son, Lawrence B. Sperry, have invented and tested a self steering explosive carrying aeroplane, which will be supplied to the British army in great quantities soon, it is said.

The aeroplane can be loaded with a torpedo bearing anywhere from 500 pounds to five tons of trinitro-toluene. The craft is then launched, the automatic gyroscopic and steering device having been previously set, and without any aviator rises from its cradle and flies to the point indicated upon the device, when it dives and the heavy charge of explosive is detonated.

In tests it has been found that the following degree of accuracy can be depended upon: One hundred miles; fifty miles; twenty miles; ten miles; five miles; ten miles; five miles.

STEERS STRONG FOR THE WEEK

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 27.—With a medium sized run of 1953 head of cattle, the market opened with steers stronger; although the prices obtained did not reach last week's top, the class of stuff offered was not as good but brought better prices than the same class of stuff offered last week. Cows brought $2.25 bulls $2.50.

Hogs.
 A good run of 4956 head opened with steady prices which were maintained at the close. The bulk of hogs went over the scales at 7 per cent and one load at 7.10. Outlook good with demand fair.

Sheep.
 A comparatively small handful of sheep came forward over Sunday. Scarcity of sheep forced the buyers' hand for a little more money, and prime lambs brought 7.35 with ewes bringing $5.50 and wethers $6. More good lambs could be handled very nicely by the packers and we expect to see more coming in than have come in the last two or three weeks.

KILLERS SLOW ON SUPPLIES

 PORTLAND, Ore.—There was a slow tone in the hog trade at North Portland this morning. With a rather big showing of supplies killers held off their purchases. Seemingly there was no change in the general situation from yesterday, tops being nominally quoted around $7, although a small supply was moved yesterday as a dime more.

There was less favorable quality among the offerings of hogs in the local market today, and this was one of the reasons why killers held back. Hog market situation in the east was steady to higher this morning.

General hog market:
 Best light $ 7.00
 Good to heavy 6.75@6.95
 Rough to heavy 5.00@5.75

Cattle Market Quiet.
 Market for cattle is quiet. There was only a small run in the yards overnight and no special change in the situation was shown at North Portland. Real good stuff is generally quoted at $4.75 for tops in the steer division with fancy cows, as well as poor stuff somewhat slower.

In the east today there was a steady to easier tone in the cattle market situation:
 General cattle market range:
 Select steers $ 6.25
 Best hay fed steers 5.25@5.50
 Good to choice 4.00@4.25

Stories From the War Zone

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS.
 (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

PARIS, Sept. 21.—(By Mail.)—Between French, German and British airmen exists a strange camaraderie, a fraternity of chivalry and dramatic courtesies which stands out from the mud-slinging and butchery of war like a diamond on black velvet.

While French and British and Belgians and Austrians on the ground are killing each other by methods that make one's blood run cold, the airmen of the allies and the birdmen from the central empires are putting each other to death, high in the sky, with the utmost courtesy.

Psychologists ask if the warfare in the sky isn't developing the superhero to whom killing is a sport and death but defeat, like arriving second in a hundred yard dash.

Every time a French aviator has met death in enemy's territory, German aviators carried to France news of the event. After Peugeot died in a mid-air duel a wreath and a card fell from a taube soaring two miles above the French lines.

When Garros was taken prisoner a German aviator dropped a note in France praising the French pilot's conduct.

When a German warplane is sent crashing to earth in one of those wonderful air duels, flowers for the German aviators invariably are dropped by the French fighters whenever the duel has been fairly fought.

It is said that never a British aviator disappears but news of him is brought to his waiting comrades by German airmen. Such and such a thing has happened to so and so, says a note which comes plunging down out of the sky, a bullet attached to give it weight.

The British do the same for the Germans. It has become a sort of unwritten law of the air.

Of course there are exceptions; there are sportsmen in all contests who cheat and use unfair means. But generally the war in the air is clean.

It is because the men of the air are heroes of a superior sort. Such, at least is one answer. For, it is asserted, most anybody can face bullets on the ground when hundreds of thousands of others are facing them.

Everybody's courage is given to the individual and, almost to his own bewilderment he finds himself doing the bravest of deeds. But in the air the aviator is practically alone. His fight for life is fought unseen.

When such a brave man meets and braves down another of his own particular kind, he seems to feel no personal animosity towards his opponent, but merely a keen rivalry, and perhaps a certain amount of admiration, depending upon the other's skill and courage and qualities as a team fighter.

When it is over the irresistible desire to let the vanquished hero's friends know he died like a man seems to come over the victor.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—(By Mail.)—Snapshots for the men in the trenches is the purpose of a new organization—The Home League—now operating in England.

Thousands of amateur photographers go daily with their kodaks and cameras to the homes of the "Tommys" to snap the home folks. The pictures are turned over to the Y. M. C. A. where already 15,000 soldiers have written to ask for a "snap" of kiddies, mother or wife.

Sometimes in the smaller cities and villages these amateurs set up free "galleries" in their various gardens and tell the relatives of soldiers to come and be snapped. Within ten days the "snaps" is in the trenches. The league, according to advices, will soon extend its activities to Canada, Australia and New Zealand, where pictures of the colonial "Tommys" may be taken and sent to the various fronts.

WOMAN FIGHTS COUGAR TO SAVE HER CHILDREN

ABERDEEN, Wash., Oct. 27.—By giving battle with a piece of iron pipe to a cougar which had attacked her, Mrs. E. Burckhard yesterday saved her baby's life and her own near Pahola, 20 miles from here, according to word received by her parents here today.

Mrs. Burckhard was walking about a mountain trail towards a place where her husband was at work, carrying her babe, when she came across a cougar pursuing a fox. As Mrs. Burckhard came opposite the cougar abandoned its chase and made towards her. Seizing a piece of pipe beside the trail the woman faced the infuriated brute as it flung, tearing away part of her gown. A fierce battle ensued, during which the cougar ripped the woman's clothing to ribbons. The babe clung tightly to her neck, but she managed to wield her weapon to such effect that the cougar was put to flight. When Mrs. Burckhard arrived at home she was in hysterics.

POLICEMAN KILLS TWO BOYS WITH ONE SHOT

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.—Chester Nolen, aged 17, was killed and Frank Ward, 19, probably fatally wounded by a single bullet fired by one of two policemen, who began shooting as the boys sped away on a motorcycle after ignoring, or failing to hear a cry to halt. The bullet first struck Nolen in the back. It killed him almost instantly, and, passing through his body, pierced Ward in the back, penetrating his lungs and stomach and lodging under the skin over his abdomen.

The officers involved, Sergeant Wm. Cahill and Patrolman Samuel Shammo, declared the motorcycle had been stolen and that they previously had chased the boys for more than two miles. Ward, as he lay on an operating table at the emergency hospital, with a priest waiting to administer the rites for the dying, admitted having heard the call to halt, but said he thought he was wanted for speeding and decided to "beat it." The motorcycle, he claims, had been purchased by him from George Singleton in San Francisco a month ago. He and Nolen, whom he knew as Nolen Lehr, had been talking to a girl, he explained, and were just starting away on the motorcycle when the policemen appeared. Both boys had been wards of the juvenile court for five years.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

TAKE A TABLESPOONFUL OF SALTS IF BACK HURTS OR BLADDER BOTHERS.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in uric acid, to no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delicious effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.
