

Nationally Advertised Goods Week

November 1st to the 6th has been set as nationally Advertised goods week

WE WILL DEVOTE OUR WHOLE STORE DURING THAT TIME TO THE FEATURING OF NATIONALLY ADVERTISED GOODS, HELPING OUR CUSTOMERS TO REALIZE MORE THAN EVER THE ADVANTAGES OF BUYING STANDARDIZED GOODS. GOODS THAT ARE MADE BY PEOPLE WHO HAVE THE REPUTATION OF MAKING THE BEST, WHO STAND BACK OF WHATEVER THEY PUT OUT. GOODS WITH A REPUTATION TO MAINTAIN, GOODS THAT MUST COME UP TO WHAT THEIR ADVERTISERS CLAIM FOR THEM. This store carries more nationally advertised goods than any store in Eastern Oregon. As you read them over you'll recognize them, as the best in the business—and by comparing our prices you'll see that they cost you no more here than unknown, take-a-chance goods do in most other stores. Buy Guaranteed Clothes

Many people think a guarantee is a small thing, but consider the principle it involves and you will see that it is something more than just a piece of paper.

FOR EXAMPLE, PLACE YOURSELF IN THE POSITION OF THE MANUFACTURER.

You have been devoted to the making of a certain article for a period of time covering probably half a century.

You are positive that the thing you make is absolutely correct, beyond criticism and will prove satisfactory to the user.

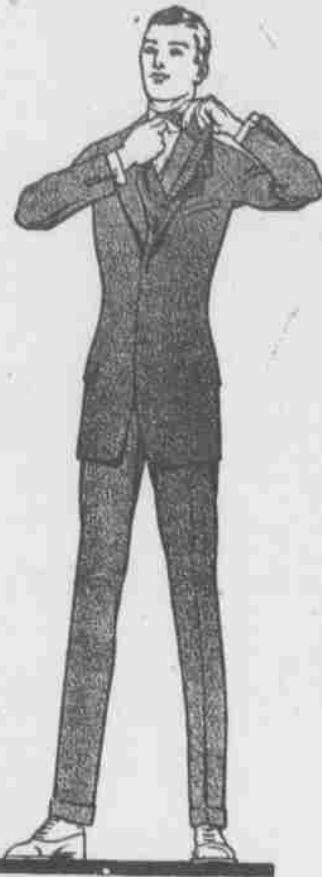

Isn't it reasonable to believe that you would extend a guarantee with every article just as Hart, Schaffner & Marx and Clothcraft do?

And having made this guarantee in strict confidence, your business depending on it, wouldn't you back it to the limit?

We know that the Hart, Schaffner & Marx and Clothcraft guarantees mean much to our customers and ourselves.

If you have worn one of either of these makes of suits you know how good they are.

If you haven't, come in, see the new stock. Try on a few suits and you'll go away with the conviction that $15.00, $17.50, $20, $25 or $30 clothes can possess every desirable feature.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Additional Social and Personal News on Page 5.

Invitations are out today for an afternoon at bridge on Thursday, November fourth, at the Dickson home, 127 South Main street, Mrs. W. C. E. Pruitt, Mrs. J. R. Dickson and Mrs. Henry Westbrook Dickson being hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Myrick arrived home on No. 6 this morning from Portland.

The Umatilla Social Club at Emmatilla enjoyed a very successful Halloween party last evening, according to report brought back by the local orchestra players who furnished the music.

Glen Storie arrived home yesterday morning from California where he spent several weeks in San Francisco and Los Angeles. Cecil Cole, who accompanied him down, is expected home in a few days.

Mrs. Walter B. Hinkle came up from her home at Echo this morning to spend the day.

Mrs. George A. Hartman, Jr., arrived home this morning from Salem, where she attended the convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs as a delegate from the Thursday Afternoon Club.

Announcements have been received here of the birth of an eight and a quarter pound daughter on October eighteenth to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Baker of Olympia, Washington. Mr. Baker, who is the father of Forrest Baker, formerly in business here, The Little Stranger has been christened Virginia Lee.

Mrs. S. L. Morse went up to Weston this morning to spend the weekend with relatives.

Mrs. Harry Reese, who has been visiting relatives here several days, returned yesterday to her home at Stanfield. She was accompanied here by her small son, William, who suffered a bad fracture of the knee eight weeks ago. An X-ray examination here showed that the fracture is healing nicely.

Mrs. William T. Humphrey, who has been enjoying a visit from Mrs. George Drive for several days, accompanied Mrs. Bruce to her home near Gibbon this morning.

Miss Hazel Parker, who is attending the high school, left for home at Athena this morning to spend the weekend.

Mrs. Jennie Luck returned this morning from a visit at Bingham Springs and with her brother, R. C. Hager, near Gibbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Lohr have returned from a seven weeks' automobile trip in California. While away they visited both the San Francisco and San Diego fairs and report having had a delightful trip. For the most part, motoring in California is a great treat, they report, especially on the improved roads, but the places under construction necessitate considerable detouring and in spots the roads are as bad as some of the worst spots in this county at certain seasons of the year. After a visit to the Panama-Pacific exposition, they took the coast route to Los Angeles and San Diego, a distance of about one hundred miles, being entirely hard surfaced and the trip was made in a few hours. Mexico was visited and the return north was made via the inside route, Bakerfield, Fresno and other middle state cities. Roads over generally at the age of 14 to marry.

The Siskiyou mountains were in good condition and the Pacific highway fairly good with only a few bad spots, they report. Traffic over the Columbia highway from a point about forty miles out of Portland to The Dalles has been stopped for the winter, so the car was shipped. Road conditions from The Dalles to Ione were not bad, but from that point to Pendleton, were chucky and dusty. Mrs. Lantz Daughter, Miss Pauline Mims accompanied them on their trip and stopped at St. Helena, Cal., where she will attend the Pacific Union College until next June.

The Right Rev. R. L. Paddock, D. D., bishop of eastern Oregon, the Rev. Dr. Van Waters, the newly appointed missionary of the district, and the Rev. C. H. Powell of Coos, met at the Episcopal rectory yesterday to confer concerning the division of the missionary work of the outlying places. The bishop also confirmed a class of five candidates presented by the rector, Rev. Charles Quinney.

Postmaster T. J. Tweedy and daughter returned this morning from San Francisco where they attended the expositions. Mrs. Tweedy, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Belts and Mr. and Mrs. Will Evans are still visiting in California.

Announcements have been received here of the birth of an eight and a quarter pound daughter on October eighteenth to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Baker of Olympia, Washington. Mr. Baker, who is the father of Forrest Baker, formerly in business here, The Little Stranger has been christened Virginia Lee.

Mrs. S. L. Morse went up to Weston this morning to spend the weekend with relatives.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Anyone who likes to be thrilled by a spectacular horse race will get plenty of solid enjoyment out of the photo play at the Pastime Sunday. It is "The Sporting Duchess," from the famous play of the same name, with popular Rose Coghlan in the title role. The fact that Rose Coghlan and Ethel Clayton are in the cast alone stamps it as a masterful production, but nothing is left undone to make "The Sporting Duchess" one of the most remarkable motion-picture achievements yet undertaken. The great horse race is only one of a score of thrilling incidents that dash by with a fascination that grips from the instant the picture appears. "The Sporting Duchess" teems with exciting incidents; first of all, because it's a soldier play—a story of English army life, with the action shuttling back and forth between the British Isles and India. There's intrigue, of course, and a few stiff fights that add piquancy to the play. But, above all, there's a beautiful love story unfolded, so that while "The Sporting Duchess" has an appeal to the red-blooded, it is humanely sympathetic and refreshing. It is truly a remarkable film. By the V. L. S. E., Big 4 of Pendleton.—Adv.
